ESCUMINAC, June 27th, 1881. To the Editor of the Miramichi Advance DEAR SIR :-- It is with reluctance that he attention of a collector of salmon from the north side of Miramichi river and above Oak Point, is called to his wilful desecration of the Lord's day. These last two years he has made it a starting day, leaving his home and coming down here every Sunday on his collecting tour. If he will not in future desist from his open and repeated Sabbath-breaking pracices, I will give his name in full; also the name of the WRITER.
