THE RONALD ENGINE MODDLE. The Mayor read report of the special remnittee appointed last night as follows:
Your committee beg to report—that we sat J. D. Rousid, Esq., at the Adams' pune at 10 o'clock s.m. and after a long onlersness atterly failed to agree with him a reference to price of his engine.

GEO. WATT, Chairman.

On motion the report was adopted. Aid. Nicol: Now, where are wo? Aid. Watt: Awaiting further offers. Aid. Nicol would like to hear particulars what occurred at the committee's confer-es with Mr. Ronald.

Ald. Watt said the conference was long ut it might have been shorter. Mr. tonald refused all offers for a lower price s and a flauge mock for our Amoskeag n judging of the value of the engine as he would like to be. Mr. Rousid had offered the engine to the old fire board for $3,200; as to payment he had no knowledge. Mr. Ronald may have based his price on receiving 5% bonds in payment and, hence, named a lower price than that in his present tender. He wished also to direct the attention of the Council to the fact that if pay-ment was on a basis of 4% bonds he wanted his $3,600 but if it was on 5% bonds it pty the bose included in his former offer, yet he deducted only $900, while, on a basis of cash he should deduct $880.
