

Castoria is a Paregoric, Drops neither Opium, e. It is Pleasant. by Millions of nd allays Feverishind Colic. Castoria Constipation and he Food, regulates nd Children, giving is the Children's

Castoria.

Is so well adapted to chi'dren and it as superior to any preown to me." A. ARCHER, M. D. Brooklyn, N. Y

IATURE OF

July 9-Sld. str Cambrian 9-Psd, str New En

July 9-Ard in the Clyde, str Philadelphia via St Johns, NF. July 9-Ard, str v ISLAND, July 9-Ped, bark Bal, astle, NB, for Balfast. OOD, July 9-Ard, bark Dicta-

TESS, July 8-Psd, str Avons, via Sydney, CB, for London ULL, July 8-Psd, str Lakonia, eal for IGasgow. or lGasgow. July 6-Ard, str Kinsale.

July 7-Ard, strs Aureola, from rue, from montreal. STER, July 7-Ard, str Soman-hatham, NB. OL, July 8-Ard, str Numidian,

ST. JOHNSBALL-WERKLYSUN

STATISTIC STY. M. JOINT L. B. JINT 10 1028,

ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, JULY 16, 1902.

ains the most popular figure in the SALISBURY RESIGNS "I regard the change as beneficial i "I regard the change as bellening." Ireland, in the long run. Mr. Balfour has had much experience with Irelan. though he is not yet a home ruler, all though he is not yet a h though he is not yet a home ruler, and takk in the parinamentary hobbles re-his animosity has disappeared and he is just the man to propose a solution of the long standing difficulty. But Mr. Balfour does not come into office at a very happy moment. The after-for the chancehorship of the exche-Surrenders at a very happy moment. The alter i for the chancehorship of the exche-math of the war has come, and the majority of the government, though large, is wanting in cohesion. But it is useless speculating further; the un-Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's decision is useless speculating further; the un-expected is always the dominant fac-Is Succeeded By the Right Hon. Sir Arthur tor in English politics."

ITALY'S NEW HOPES.

ROME, July 13.—Lord Salisbury's resignation from the premiership has produced here a feeling of regret, tempered with the hope that the rela-tions between Great Britain and Italy, which grew cooler under the retirin premier, will under Mr. Balfour re-sume their ancient cordiality.

LONDON, July 14 .- A. J. Balfour was today formally greeted as Great Britain's premier, and the new regime began its work. The momento change was marked by only one real dramatic incident, namely, the res nation of Sir Michael Hicks-Be from his post of chancellor of the exchequer. It is safe to say that Sir Michael Hicks-Beach is only the first

The resignation of Lord Salisbury and government leader in the house was expected in connection with the of several whose names have figured coronation of King Edward, but when largely before the public in the the compnation did not take place there half century who now will disapp grew up an idea that perhaps the premier's resignation was indefinitely from the political arena. Nothing absolutely definite is yet settled, but the postponed. Oul men cling to power mionist party expects shortly to hea and it was supposed that Lord Salisof the resignations of Earl/Halsbury lord high chancellor; Lord James of bury was not free from the weakness of so many others. This prospect did not quite satisfy his colleagues. His extreme obesity is, of course, inconsis-Hereford, chancellor of the Duchy o Lancaster, and Earl Cadogan, lon lieutenant of Ireland. For Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's pla Right Hon. R. W. Hanbury, now pre-sident of the board of agriculture, I the favorite. In the pending recon struction, which may not be co for some time to come, Mr. Ball will remain the leader in the h commons and first lord of the frea-ury, with Mr. Chamberlain, still in ommand of the colonies, as his first eutenant. If Lord Haisbury, on ac-ount of his great age, fills prediction by retiring, Lord Alverstone will suc ceed to the woolsack, Bir Richard Henn Collins becoming lord chief jus-

affairs, seemed practically us, and that was that Auster

LONDON, July 14.-Late tonight th to retire from office, but not from the house of commons, is final, although in deference to Mr. Balfour's persua-sion, Sir Michael's retirement may possibly be postponed until the end of the session. It is an open secret that the chancellor of the exchequer was only prevented by Lord Salisbury's in-fluence from long ago abandoning the struggle against the protective influ-ence in the cabinet represented by Mr

by the Duke and Duchess of Marlbo

mier Ross of Ontario has gon

After that of the premier, the po of chancellor of the exchequer is always regarded as the weightiest one. Among the liberals strong fears are expressed that the departure of Sir chael Hicks-Beach will be the signal for the furtherance of the zoll verein movement, Mr. Balfour being powerless to resist the Chamberlain Their Boat Capsized and They Sank Almost Instantly-Two Companions It is understood it has been decided hat there will be no present appeal to Swam Ashore

TWO MEN DROWNED.

Off Harvey.

e country. The Times states that Lord Salisbury's resignation was not caused by (By telephone to the Sun. any political differences with his col-leagues in the cabinet. HOPEWELL HILL, Albert Co., July 14.-John Cairns, aged 22, son of George

LORD KITCHENER.

ite tendencies,

Smallpox on the Steamer That Brought Him to Southampton.

young men, in company with Capt. Wilbur of the schr. Friendship, and Miner Lyman, started from Harvey wharf in a small sail boat for the pub-lic wharf here. When in the middle of the stream and a short distance off the SOUTHAMPTON, July 12 .- The Pac fic Steam Navigation Company's steam-er Oratava, which left Capetown June 28 with Lord Kitchener and staff on as with Lord Kitchener and stair on board, arrived here at half past eight o'clock this morning. Owing to the fact that Major Gordon, who also was a passenger on the steamer, had been stricken with smallpox, Lord Kitchener and his staff only were allowed to land and his staff only were allowed to land. The Oratava has been placed in ceed to the woolsack, Sir Richard Henn Collins becoming lord chief jus-tice, Sir R. B. Finlay succeeding him as master of the rolls; Sir E. H. Car son, now soliditor general, becoming attorney general, and probably Charles Alfred Cripps, attorney general to the Prince of Wales, succeeding to the solicitor generalship. On one point the members of the house of commons, who throughout the day animatedly discussed the new state of affairs, seemed practically unanimous, and that was that Auster

BOER PRISONERS

Those Men's and Boy's Suits and Pants advertised three weeks ago, are going fast-much faster than we had expected; and yet there are plenty left to fit all who come. Everything at this store is found just as represented.

Men's Suits, Special prices	$8.00 to 1400
Men's Pants,	75c, to $3 50
Youth's Suits, long Pants,	- $4 00 to $8.75
Boy's 3 piece Suits, Special,	$2.50 to $5.50
Boy's 2 piece Suits, ,,	75c. to $4.00
Boy's Pants, Special prices.	25c, to $1.25
	the state of the state of the state of the state of the

- Men's and Boys' Clothier. 199 Union Street, St. John, N. B.

NO. 57.

COAL STRIKE.

Sad Accident in the Shepody River President Mitchell Threatens Fight Before Failure.

Which Would Mean a Severe Blow to Unioniem All Over America

CHICAGO, July 14 .-- John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, addressed the convention of International Longshoremen's Association, which began its eleventh an-Cairns of Waterside, and Charles nual convention here today. Mr. Mit-Fownes, aged 17, son of a respected rechell said of the coal strike: sident of Harvey Bank, were drowned

"If the time does not soon come this afternoon by the capsizing of a when we succeed, we will have to ask boat in the Shepody River. The two for assistance. "Failure to attain success," continued Mr. Mitchell, "would mean a severe strike to unionism. We must do all in our power to achieve success in this great strife. I want a union which knows how to fight and will fight to the lic wharf here. When in the interview of the end of Harvey wharf, an attempt was made to set the sail. Lyman climbed a distance up the mast, when his weight and the swift running tide capsized the boat and all four were dumped into the water. Wilbur and Lyman swam to the shore, but the other two sank before assistance could reach them. The father of young Fownes witnessed the accident from the bank and put oft to the reacue in a boat, but too late to the unfortunate young men have not yet been recovered. The sad accident munity.

NOWN, July 8-Ard, str Western-Philadelphia for Liverpool. July 8-Ard, strs Brazilian, eal; Carlièje City, from St John

8-Ard, bark Feynland, from July 8-Ard, str Avona, from Sydney, L, July

8-Ard, bark Alia, from Sagona, for Richibucto. marvon, July 5, bark Eima, An-Miramichi.

wcastle, NSW, July 4, ship Cro-Nicoll, -for Manila, merara, June 16, bark, Hillside, Cuba.

FOREIGN PORTS. Arrived.

Me., July 7.-Ard, sch E A Stew

the Freddie Eaton, for Wesley; den, for Branford; Kennebec, for ORK. July 7.- Ard. str T

VEN, Conn., July 7.-Ard, schs Ira, from St John: Lotus, from

LAND, July 7.- Bound south, hony, from Parrsboro, N.; Hor-Sand River, NS; Emily I White, oro, N B. JRG, July 7.—Ard, str Kronpring rom New York via Plymouth for om New York via Plymouth for d proceeded). ND, Me., July 7.—Ard, schs Pan-H A Holder, from St John, N B: ner, to load for Dorchester, N B; tris, from Calais for Harwichport. AH, Ga., July 7.—Sld, sch Gri-r Port Hastings, C. B. fass., July 7.—Ard, sch Genesta, N. S.

N. S. July 7.- Ard, strs Virginian, on; Halifax, from Halifax; schs n Clementsport; Centennial, from

s St. Croix, for St John; Prince Yarmouth; Edga, for Louisburg. D HAVEN, Mass., July 7.—Ard sch Cora L, from New York for

S. schs Hunterfl, from Eatonville for ; Abble Ingalis, from St John, N Demozelle, from Parrsboro for do. tr Rosalind, from St Johns, N F, t for New York; schs Otis Miller, ohn, NE, for Providence; Rewa, 'City Island; W H Waters, from Annie M Allen, from St John, hiladelphia; Senator Grimes, from yort, Conn. July 4, sch. Well-ort Chester. port, Conn. July 4, sch Well-rom St John. ork, July 6, brigtn Alacia, Hart, ndreas. brieans, July 5, sch Vera B Rob-s, from Mexican ports. ondon, Ct, July 5, schs Florence, Schule, from New York. July 5, sch Keewaydin, from

RK, July 8-Ard, bark Egeris, Constable Island; sch Alrato,

Constable Island Del Toro. Island City, for Bangor. S, Mass, July 8-Ard, schs Mar-as, from Augusta for New York: A, from St John for New York: A, from St John for New York:

Me, July 8-Ard, schs Abner Tay-New York; Annie Gus, from Nor-aw Peters, from Boston; William om Boston; Joe Millbridge, rah A Reed, for Vineyard Ha-

AY HARBOR, Me. July S-Ard, C. from St John. STER, Mass, July S-Ard, sch Le-Church Point, NS. ND, Me. July S-Ard, sche Dread-m Newton Creek, NS, for New 'Dexter, from Calsis for du, str line, from St John for Boston. Rebecca W Huddell, for Spen-NS.

I, NS. AND, July 8-Bound south, stre rom St Johns, NF, and Halifax. Hamburg, from Spencer's Island. I Gibson, from St John; J Nick-icalais, Me; Earl of Abericen. or, NS; Ruth Robinson, from do: r, from Hillsboro, NB; tug Gyp-from Hantsport, NS, towing m King, Gypsum Emperor, Cals-rge J B King and Co No 2, from first had an interview with Mr. Cham-berlain and then consulted with his cabinet a garded as assurance that the future relative positions of Messrs. Balfour and Chamberlain will be satisfactory to both. As to Lord Salisbury's withdrawal, tent with activity, either of mind of

Idren Cry for STORIA.

Britain's Veteran Premier

Salisbury has resigned the premiership ceed him. The Marquis of Salisbury tendered his resignation at an audience which he had with King Edward last Friday. Yesterday Mr. Balfour visited the LONDON, July 13 .- The fact of the foreshadowed in the despatches of the Associated Press, was officially given out this evening. The prime minister laid down the responsibility of his re-nowned office July 11 and received the commendation of his sovereign. Within 24 hours His Majesty eleva

Within 24 hours His Majesty eleva-ted A. J. Balfour, the government's chief representative in the house of commons, to the position of premier. About the only surprise expressed as the news spread through London, concerned the date rather than the fact, of the resignation. The real in-terest was not so much in reference to Lord Salisbury's withdrawal as it was in the appointment of his successor.

The liveliest speculation is rife as to the personnel of the new cabinet. The most discussed feature is the posi-

A representative of the Associated Press learns that prior to the accept ance of his new office, Mr. Balfou tion of Mr. Chamberlain, the co secretary.

King and accepted the premiership.

resignation of the premiership

Great Britain by Lord Salisbury, alfour, the first lord of the treasury of Great Britain, and Right Hon. A. J. lows:

mons, has been appointed to suc-

Seals of Office.

Baltour, First Lord of the Treasury.

The Passing From Public Life of One of the World's Greatest Statesmen-He Retires Full of Years and

Honors, Respected Alike By Political

Supporters and Opponents.

LONDON, July 13 .- The Marquis of resignation of Lord Salisbury and the

of appointment of Mr. Balfour, as fol-

the main reason is considered by practically all the best informed per-sons to have been simply a desire for a quiet life on the part of a man adanced in years.

The close of the war in South Africe and the return of the commanding general there is considered to be an priate time for his withdrawal. WASHINGTON, July 13 .- The apatment of Mr. Balfour to the Engniership will not result in any has premiership will not result in any change in the existing relations be-tween Great Britain and the United States. This is the opinion of state board department officials, who ex-South Africa had to be announ he calmiy asked the house of lords press the opinion that Mr. Balfour will

LONDON, July 13 .- Although Lord lisbury's resignation does not nece arily involve the reconstruction of the abinet, it is believed the occasion will be taken to make some changes. LONDON, July 13 .- Gen. Lord Kitch-body, and there were whispers that he times was overcome by sleep in the midst of momentous cabinet coun cils and that he only awoke when the discordant voices of Joseph Cham berlain and Sir Michael Hicks-Beach the chief opponents in the cabinet reached an unusually high pitch. Onc or twice, too, lately, in the house of lords, he has shown a certain want of grip that was almost painful. For instance, when the terms of peace in whether they desired to hear the words of Lord Kitchener's despatch, press the opinion that Mr. Ballour will be as much disposed as was his prede-cessor, Lord Salisbury, to continue the friendly relations between the two countries. "No man could be more adverse than is Lord Salisbury to supreme power being in the hands of so impu restless and arrogant a politician as the colonial secretary. "It is doubtful in any case whether the rank and file of the tory party would have accepted Mr. Chamberlain willingly. There is a certain see of young' tories who do not love Ba four, thinking him slack, dec and lethargic, but is still the darl was renewed, but his voice faltered and he was only just able, hesitating ly, to declare that he was too over come to find words of thanks.

LORD SALISBURY.

BERLIN, July 14.—The announce ment of Lord Salisbury's retiremen was received here simply as interest ing news, not having great politica significance, because it had long been expected. The comment is generally respectful though not cordial. No Eng-lish statesman gets cordial treatment in the German press, but Lord Salis-bury was so much better liked than Mr. Chamberlain these chamber bury was so much better liked than Mr. Chamberiain that he has always been treated with a certain regard. The Vossische Zeitung thinks Mr. Chamberlain's influence will now be greater than ever, while other papers of less importance share this view. LONDON, July 14.—King Edward re-ceived Mr. Balfour in audience today at Buckingham Palace and delivered to him the seals of his office and the privy seal.

privy seal. LONDON, July 14.—The court circu-lar announces that King Edward con-ferred upon Lord Sallsbury at last Fri-day's addience the grand cross of the Victorian Order, set with bulliants.

Laurier when seen seemed great surprised. He admitted that it was surprised. He admitted that it was well known that differences existed be-tween Hon. Joseph Chamberlain and Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, but he found it difficult to believe that they would not work together under Hon. A. J. Balfour's premiership. Asked as to the effect of the resignation on the optionial conference, he replace: "On I really could not possibly say." He re-fused to add another word. Hon. Mr. Fleiding and Sir William Mulock were at the garden party given

Hall, where he received an address from the chamber of commerce, ex-pressing admiration of the generalship. the treasury, would be promoted, a majority mentioning him as likely to succeed Mr. Hanbury should the latter take the chancellorship of the excheource and skill which he had shown in South Africa and hoping that the peace which he had secured would be There is absolutely no serious anticipation of a general election lasting and mark the beginning of a Mr. Balfour's first appearance in the new epoch of prosperity and develop-ment throughout the empire. In reply Lord Kitchener declared that whatever house of commons as premier was characteristic of the man and of the mbly. Peers came into the stransuccess he had achieved was due gers' gallery and leaned expectantly upon the rails. Sir Michael Hicksthe rank and file of the army. He thanked those who had friends and re-latives left behind in South Africa. In Beach sat gloomily among the coleagues he was so soon to leave. Sudresponse to the clamorous calls for General French and General Ian Ham-ilton, they also spoke, the former re-marking that they had throughout denly the clatter ceased and there stole from behind the speaker's chair the long, thin figure of the prime minis-ter. From all sides of the house there From all sides of the been inspired by the example of their chiefs. The freed om of the borough was c ferred on Lord Kitchener and the party was then obliged to hurry away in or-long, thin figure of the prime mini-ter. From all sides of the house there rose a chorus of "Hear, hear." the members rose and kept up the ap-plause till Mr. Balfour, who sidled along the treasury bench, nearly fall-ing over Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's feet, reached his seat and buried his head in a voluminous question paper. He was blushing like a school sirl. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the liberal leader, stopped further busi-ness by making such a feeting personal reference to Mr. Balfour as is seldom heard in legislative bodies, and which was delivered with an emotion that quite unnerved the premier. When Mr. Balfour rose to reply the ovation was renewed, but his voice faltered. der to meet their London engageme The progress of Lord Kitchener manions to the railroad station his co was marked by scenes of remarkat ONLY A FRENCHMAN'S BODY.

Town Marshal, Considered an Inquest Unnecessary.

the terms of peace were signed. CAMPBELLITON, N. B., July 14.-Some boys discovered the body of a man in the woods back of the town Orange Free State said there are no about 4,600 prisoners in the islands of this afternoon and notified the police. Town Marshal Duncan and Coroner Doherty subsequently visited the place. The town marshal says that a man Bermuda.

KING EDWARD named Maltals identified the body as thta of Charles Pedard, a native of ed to the Royal Ya This Evening.

France, who went away or disappear-ed some weeks ago. The town marshal further said that the coroner considered an inquest unnecessary.

DORCHESTER.

Celebration of Their Twenty-fifth We ding Anniver

DORCHESTER, July 13 .- Last even ing a large company of church mem-bers and friends of Rev. Wm. Harrison and Mrs. Harrison gathered at the Methodist parsonage, it being the oc-casion of their twenty-fifth anniver-sary of wedded life. A congratulatory ingram Falace to the falace this after-moon. Six bluejackets, who have been selected to remove the King, went through a rehearsal by removing the couch on which the King has at times been resting, to the ambulance, under the direction of the nurses. His Majesty, when he is taken from the palace tomorrow, will be accomaddress was presented, accompanied by a beautiful silver plate containing $54 in silver coin fresh from the mint. The Rev. Mr. Grant, Presbyterian; Rev. B. H. Thomas, Baptist, Sheriff McQueen and others present added Nev. B. H. Thomas, Baptist, Sheriff McQueen and others present added words to the pleasure of the occasion. Rev. Mr. Harrison replied in feeling terms. the palace tomorrow, will be accompanied by Queen Alexandra, Princ

SPECIAL CHEESE CARS.

OTTAWA, July 13 .- The department of agriculture has arranged with the Canadian Pacific Rallway Co. and the Canadian Pacific Rallway Co. and the Grand Trunk railway system to pro-vide a number of refrigerator cars for the carrying of cheese on through bills of lading and on local shipment to Montreal for export. These cars are be-ing fitted with a special ventilating contrivance devised by Professor Rob-ories

sons-Low Down Irish American Citizons

Commandant Peter Ferreira of th gham Palace:

the officers were Gen. J. B.

ergt. Carruthers Ecored the In Golden Penny Match Canadiane Did Well.

AT BISEFY. And BOIL

(Associated Press.) NEW YORK, July 14.—Among the passengers who arrived today per steamer Pretoria from Bermuda were LONDON, July 14 .- In the first day's shooting for the Golden Penny nrize (500 yards, eight shots), Sergeant Car-ruthers of Canada scored the highest 108 Boers who were prisoners at Bermuda. Among the most prominent of

Peter F. Stevn, a brother of Presiden (Special to the Sun.) Steyn of the Orange Free State; J. TORONTO, July 14 .- The Telegra cable from Bisley Camp says: Rifle-men from far and near are here for Devilliers, late attorney general of the Free State, and Joubert Reitz, a son of the Free State secretary. None of the officers would talk about the way the National Riflemen's Ass meet, which opened today and will last they had been treated by the British in Bermuda. until the 26th. The Canadian was on hand as usual, and two of its The youngest member of the crowd was 12-year-old M. J. DeWet, a coumembers came well to the front on the Golden Penny match. The sin, he said, of the general. He is acwas at four hundred yards, with eight panied by his brother, P. S. Deshots, and the competition does no end until the 24th. Sergt. Major Car Wet, who is 21 years old. James L. Malloy of Boston and Mi-chael Halley of Nevada, American ruthers of Prescott, Ont., got W the centre mark of the tax citizens, arrived with the Boers. Mal shot, making a score of forty, Capt Rennie of the Queen's Own scored loy said he had gone to South Africa from America with a red cross ambu thirty-nine. lance corps, and then joined the Boers. It is likely eight teams

After he was captured and sent to for the Kalapore cup. Bermuda he made strenuous efforts to be released, but only succeeded in get-ting a letter to U. S. Consul Green a few weeks ago. This letter resulted in the release of both men as soon as Lynn Invalid Tried to Save, Child-Little Johnnie Lovering Set Fire to His Dress With Matches.

BRAVE MOTHER.

> LYNN, Mass., July 13.—While play-ing with matches tonight John, the 21-2-year-old son of the late Charles Lovering, was horribly burned at 13 Achern street.

The little boy set fire to his clothing and before the flames were extin-guished he was burned about the body and face in a shocking manner. How he got possession of the matches is unknown. The mother is an invalid, but she made a neroic attempt to put out the fire, without success. Her criss aroused the neighborhood, and two LONDON, July 14 Following is the bulletin on King Diward's condition, posted at 19 o'clock this morning at The King continues to progress sat passinig ran in and saved the , who was immediately taken to isfactorily. His general condition is excellent and the wound is healing the Lynn h

the Lynn hospital. A few weeks ago the father, who had been a fireman for many years, died suddenly. The mother has ben sick a long time and is in a very weak condi-tion. When she heard the screams of the child and saw the dress in flames she struggled from hed, but fell to the floor crying loudly for assistance. Her screams were heard, and when help came she fainted. There she was found when the neigh-bors rushed into the house. The chances for the child's recovery are fair, but the shock to the mother will probably result seriously. LONDON, July 14 .- The speciall onstructed ambulance in which King dward is to be removed from Buck m Palace to the railway station

Mrs. Mary Elvire Gillespie, at the age of 6, has been admitted to a hospital in Den-rer. She is the mother of 37 children, in-luding 15 sets of twins, but all have lifted away from her and she does not mow the address of one of them.

O. J. MCCULLY, M. D. M. R. C S., LONDON.

PRACTICE LIMITED TO DIS EYE, EAB, NOSE AND THROAT,

163 GERMAIN STREET.

and Princess Charles of Denmark Lord Francis Knollys, the King's pr vate secretary, and the attending ph It is understood that no bulletin re-garding the King's condition will be issued until His Majesty shall be safe by on board the Victoria and Alber morrow evening. "I am Mr. Phake, sit," said the obtrusi stranger, "makes of Phake's panacea "Ah, yes," remarked Cadleigh. "Your me feine, sit, has benefited me greatly." "GI to hear it. I...." "Yes; a rich uncle mine took it, and I was his sole heir." Tit-Bits.

W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd.

42, 44, 46, Prince Wm. Street, Market Square, St. John, N. B

. Orders filled promptly. ELECTRIC SPRAYERS

Pure Paris Green for Potato bugs, Anticipate your wants and do not run short.

LAURIER GREATLY SURPRISED.

(Special to the Sun.) LONDON, July 14., The resignation of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach created a tir in colonial circles. Sir Wilfrid