Solid as a Brick Wall.

R. L. Bordon spent Sunday quietly at the residence of Mr. Thorne, attending service at St. Paul's (Valley Church) in the evening. A represent ative of the Sun had some conversa ion with the opposition leader on Sat urday evening. In reply to questions as to his work since the session Mr. Borden said :

The last session was a long and wearisome one. After its conclusion I remained for a few days in Montreal, during which time I attended the for mal opening of the Lafontaine Club, been recently organized and which is neeting with great success. \ The Jacques Cartier Club in Montreal, also cently organized, is a club with a very large membership, and promises to be an important factor in promoting the conservative cause in the province. After reaching Halifax at the end of a most successful meeting was held in Monument Nationale, and which was addressed by Mr. Monk, Mr. Tarte, myself and other speakers. I immediately returned to Halifax, and after spending a few days in that city I began a tour of the maritime provinces and so far I have addressed meetings plendid audiences, attentive and enthusiastic, and our expectations have
