sent $25 to secure a life-membership in the society in memory of his wife, Helen Reade Taylor, who died May, '93. Mrs. Taylor was a member of the association, and most interested and active in the welfare of the Seminary. The Alumnae are very grateful to Mr. Taylor for this kind recognition of the esteem in which Mrs. Taylor was held by them. Mrs. Coulter White was received as a life-member, and several classes, assisted by other Alumnae, united in making Miss Graves also a life-member of the association.

The office-bearers for the ensuing year are as follows:

President, Mrs. J. W. Manning, St. John.

Vice-Presidents, Mrs. Foster Eaton, Rose Bay, Lunenburg; Mrs. O. C. S. Wallace, Toronto.

Recording Secretary, Miss L. E. Andrews, Wolfville.

Treasurer, Miss L. M. Sawyer, Wolfville.

Executive Committee: Mrs. Tufts, Wolfville; Mrs. Manning, St. John; Miss Margeson, Hantsport; Miss Mabel Archibald, Wolfville; Mrs. R. Eaton, Kentville; Mrs. A. E. Shaw, Windsor; Mrs. Redden, Wolfville.

Entertainment Committee: Misses M. Chipman, M. Fitch, Alice Bishop, Wolfville.

In the evening a "high tea" was served in the Seminary dining-room, at which feast 45 of the Alumnae sat down. At the close Miss Graves was first made aware that she had been presented with a life membership. She expressed her surprise, pleasure and thanks in a most graceful manner. A toast to Acadia Seminary, proposed by the president, was responded to by Mrs. Brough. A toast to the class of '94, also proposed by the president, was responded to by Miss Harris, the valedictorian. The toast programme went no further, owing to the lateness of the hour. The gathering then adjourned to Alumnae Hall, where the literary and musical programme of the reunion was presented. The essay, "Higher Education of Women," written by Mrs. Emma Lock Dickinson, was read by Miss Ida Jones. A song, with violin accompaniment, was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Alice Young Wallace. "Chronicles of Acadia Seminary's graduates from '80 to '85," were very interestingly given by Mrs. E. Margeson Eaton, followed by violin solo by Miss Fitch. The Alumnae Ode was written and read by Miss Fannie Cox. A song by Miss Lass Bill completed the programme. The reunion closed at midnight when the orthodox circle was formed and "Auld Lang Syne" was sung. A secret resolve was in every mind to be present at the next reunion, and as all went out into the star-lit night there was in the heart of each a memory of happy school-days, and on the lips trembled good wishes for the prosperity of their Alma Mater. L. E. A. Wolfville, June '94.
