OTTAWA.

Nov. 10.—Society in Ottawa is but just awaking up to the realization of the departure of their excellencies the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen. The last few weeks have been devoted to farewells—to societies, schools, convents and personal friends. No one has been forgotten or overlooked. The girls of the printing Bureau were visited by Lady Aberdeen one day last week and a benefit society formed, she herself presenting the club or society with fifty dollars to start with.

A farewell reception was given to her excellency by the members of the Local Council of Women, when she was presented with a beautiful album containing the photographs of the executive and presidents of affiliated societies. In reply she made one of her charming little speeches, telling the council how very sorry she was to leave. Indeed no one can doubt that she loves Canada and its people, and, warm hearted and sympathetic as she is, she will bear away the affection of all with whom she came into contact. At one time it was said that she was unpopular—no one could say so now, for by her kindly thought for others she has won over all hearts.

The farewell banquet tendered their excellencies on Tuesday night was a most brilliant one; it is almost impossible to think that the decorations could be surpassed. The table at which their excellencies sat was in the form of a St. Andrew's Cross; the flowers used were yellow and white chrysanthemums and ferns. A decided innovation was the presence of the wives of the judges and of the Privy Councilors, who came in rather late; the evening to listen to the speeches.

The private car in which Lord and Lady Aberdeen left for Toronto was beautifully decorated with flowers the work of some of the members of May Court Club. I must tell you all about this club of girls in my next letter—it is sufficient now to say that it is the outcome of the May-day celebration at Government House this year. On coming back to Ottawa this autumn everyone remarked how pretty Lady Marjorie was looking; one hardly recognized her in the long gown she wore, and with her hair coiled loosely on the shapely head. And we had such a fleeting glimpse of her! Ah well, la reine est morte—vive la reine! Society, fickle as ever, will soon be talking of nothing but Lady Minto and her daughters. By the way, the eldest, Lady Sybil Eileen Elliott, was born in Ottawa. The now vice-queen is said to be a beautiful woman, fond of skating and dancing and all sorts of gaiety, so much is being expected of her; indeed it is thought that the next five years will be like those of the Dufferin regime—society will be woefully disappointed if it isn't!

The sudden death of Mr. Wright—a physician who was beloved by all classes—cast a deep gloom over Ottawa. His funeral is said to have been one of the largest ever seen in town; sympathy and grief were in every face. It was strange to see a whole city wrought up over the death of one man—certainly a great tribute to his life's work. Their excellencies had been giving a series of small farewell dinners, and on the night of his death he was one of the brightest of the guests assembled at Rideau hall; story after story came from his lips. He reached home, and, complaining of a chill, took some phenacetine. He was dead in a few moments.

Mr. Justice and Mrs. Burbridge are at present in the lower provinces; Mr. Sedgewick and Mrs. King returned to town early last month.

Ever yne predicts a gay season but there are going to be some heartbreaks among the debutantes I fear, for there are no less than twenty-three, or so it is whispered. And last year there were hardly men enough to round, and leave no poor, forlorn little wait-maids.

Ottawa is rich, too, in brides this season; Mrs. McGivern (nee Mackintosh) has not yet held her post-nuptial receptions, but the dainty brides of the other brides have been filled with callers on the reception day. Mrs. Gibson (nee Carey) is one of the latest.

The announcement of the engagement of Mr. Collingwood Schriebe and Miss Anna Gwynne, daughter of Mr. Justice and Mrs. Gwynne, caused quite a flutter in society; they will be married very shortly, I understand.

And now I think that is all my budget for this week; if anything wildly exciting occurs between this letter and my next, I will send a telegram to Progress with the information—but I think I am safe in making the promise.

THINGS OF VALUE.

The royal palace of Madrid, Spain, cost $9,000,000. It was built by an Italian architect in the early part of the eighteenth century and is the Versailles palace altogether in the shade.

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.

There are very few things that are just right in this world, but our opinion is one of them.

Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant to take; more effective in destroying worms. Many have tried it with best results.

A man isn't mighty because he never falls, but because of his ability to rise when he tumbles.

Why go limping and whining about your corns, when a 25 cent bottle of Holloway's Corn Cure will remove them? Give it a trial and you will not regret it.

What makes a heap of trouble in the world is that so many people spend their income before they get it.

The Horse—nobler of the brute creation—when suffering from a cut, abrasion, or sore, derives as much benefit as its master in a like predicament, from the healing, soothing action of Dr. Thomas' Eucalyptic Oil. Lameness, swelling of the neck, stiffness of the joints, throat and lungs, are relieved by it.

Youth lives in tomorrow; manhood in today; old age in yesterday.

THE DEMON, DYSPYPSIA.—In olden times it was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the ambient air, seeking to enter into men and trouble them. At the present day the demon, dyspepsia, is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by careless or unwise living lay it to him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislodge him. He that finds himself so possessed should know that a valiant friend to do battle for him with the unseen foe is Farnie's Vegetable Pills which are ever ready for the trial.

After a man is married, he has the legal right to deceive only one woman.

A MAGIC PILL.—Dyspepsia is a foe with which men are constantly grappling, but cannot exterminate. Subdued, and to all appearances vanquished in one, it makes its appearance in another direction. In many the digestive apparatus is as delicate as the mechanism of a watch or scientific instrument in which even a breath of air will make a variation. With such persons disorders of the stomach cause from the most trivial causes and cause such suffering. To these Farnie's Vegetable Pills are recommended as mild and sure.

The thoughts, even of the greatest minds, come in assorted sizes.
