

LIVE TOPICS OF SPORT AT HOME AND ABROAD

TWILIGHT
LEAGUE BALL
YESTERDAY

CITY LEAGUE.

The F. M. A.'s administration had a bad evening on the Rocklands last evening the score being 12 to 3. Hansen started the hurling for the Rocklands and pitched fairly well. "Sixty" Donovan went on the mound for F. M. A. and succeeded in holding his opponents down to two hits.

Box score follows:

F. M. A.		ABR BH PO A E
Graves 2b	.....	2	2 1 0 0 0
Millan c	.....	4	2 1 5 0 0
Garnet lf	.....	3	2 2 0 1 2
Callaghan 1b	.....	3	1 1 1 0 0
Mooney 2b	.....	2	2 1 0 0 0
Gallagher rf	.....	3	1 1 0 0 0
Maher cf	.....	3	1 1 0 0 0
Drummond ss	.....	3	1 1 0 0 1
Donovan p	.....	2	0 1 2 5 0
Totals	.....	26	12 12 12 6 3

Rocklands.		ABR BH PO A E
Sharkey c	.....	1	1 1 5 0 0
Cunningham 1b	.....	2	1 0 3 0 1
Donnelly 2b	.....	1	0 2 0 1 0
Ramsey 3b	.....	3	0 0 0 1 0
Marshall 2b	.....	2	0 0 1 0 0
Dunlap lf	.....	2	0 0 1 0 0
Elliot cf	.....	2	0 1 0 0 2
O'Brien rf	.....	2	0 1 0 0 0
Hansen p lf	.....	2	0 0 2 1 6
Totals	.....	17	3 12 12 6 5

LIVE TOPICS
ABOUT LIVE
RING STARS

Matty Baldwin and his manager left yesterday morning for Vernon, Calif., where Baldwin is to meet Leach Cross July 29. It is a surprise to the Boston sports that Cross has agreed to meet Baldwin again, for every time they have met Baldwin has defeated him. Cross possibly figures that Baldwin is cashed as a boxer and he has a chance of getting even with him for the past defeats.

Jack (Twinn) Sullivan must be boxing well again for he has been signed to meet Soldier Kearns in Buffalo, Aug. 22. The big Twinn is after the winner of the Flynn and Smith bouts. As he has three draws with Flynn the Twinn believes his challenge should be given consideration by the New York promoters.

So anxious is Freddie Welsh, the English champion, to get a match with Willie Ritchie, that his manager has already informed the champion that he will allow him to name his own weight, his own purse, his own referee and, besides, he can have the contest fought at San Francisco on any date that is satisfactory to him.

Billy Bennett, the lightweight champion of Ireland, and Harry Campbell of Brooklyn have been matched to meet in a 10-round bout at the Atlantic A. A. Rockaway Beach, on the night of July 22. At the same show, Al McCoy, the Brooklyn welterweight, will meet Mike Farrell in a 10-round bout. Willie Ritchie, the lightweight champion, says that he is not afraid to defend his title against those entitled to meet him. In a statement just issued in San Francisco, he declares that he intends to keep right on boxing and will not accept any theatrical engagements for more than two weeks at a time. "Within the next three months, I expect to meet Leach Cross and Freddie Welsh, the English champion. I will positively box one of these men on Labor Day," said Ritchie.

Boxing on horseback is the latest fad created by French sports.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES.

Pittsburg, July 14.—Storms and torrents of rain made racing conditions for the Grand Circuit so unfavorable today that the meet at the Ohio River track on Bruno's Island was set forward a day. The card that had been slated for today will be run tomorrow thus bringing the meet to an end with Saturday instead of Friday, as originally planned.

LOMBARDS WON.

The Lombards defeated the Acadas by a score of 2 to 1 last evening. The batteries were for the winners F. Dunham and P. Howard; for the losers H. Carrigan and Buckley.

AUTO POLO HAS MANY THRILLS FOR THE YOUNGER GENERATION.

Auto polo is the new sport that is getting a hold on the younger generation on Long Island. The game is played exactly as polo, but small, powerful automobiles are used instead of the fast polo ponies. This makes the game dangerous and thrilling, for during the game autos run into each other and spill out the occupants and probably injure them. The machines are able to make more curves and make better speed than their four-footed rivals. The machines are protected from injury when being overturned by steel hoops fastened on the frame. The above photograph shows one of the players rushing the ball to the goal.

REDS DRIVING THE BALL TOWARD THE WEST GOAL, SECOND PERIOD.

Auto polo is the new sport that is getting a hold on the younger generation on Long Island. The game is played exactly as polo, but small, powerful automobiles are used instead of the fast polo ponies. This makes the game dangerous and thrilling, for during the game autos run into each other and spill out the occupants and probably injure them. The machines are able to make more curves and make better speed than their four-footed rivals. The machines are protected from injury when being overturned by steel hoops fastened on the frame. The above photograph shows one of the players rushing the ball to the goal.

Auto polo is the new sport that is getting a hold on the younger generation on Long Island. The game is played exactly as polo, but small, powerful automobiles are used instead of the fast polo ponies. This makes the game dangerous and thrilling, for during the game autos run into each other and spill out the occupants and probably injure them. The machines are able to make more curves and make better speed than their four-footed rivals. The machines are protected from injury when being overturned by steel hoops fastened on the frame. The above photograph shows one of the players rushing the ball to the goal.

Auto polo is the new sport that is getting a hold on the younger generation on Long Island. The game is played exactly as polo, but small, powerful automobiles are used instead of the fast polo ponies. This makes the game dangerous and thrilling, for during the game autos run into each other and spill out the occupants and probably injure them. The machines are able to make more curves and make better speed than their four-footed rivals. The machines are protected from injury when being overturned by steel hoops fastened on the frame. The above photograph shows one of the players rushing the ball to the goal.

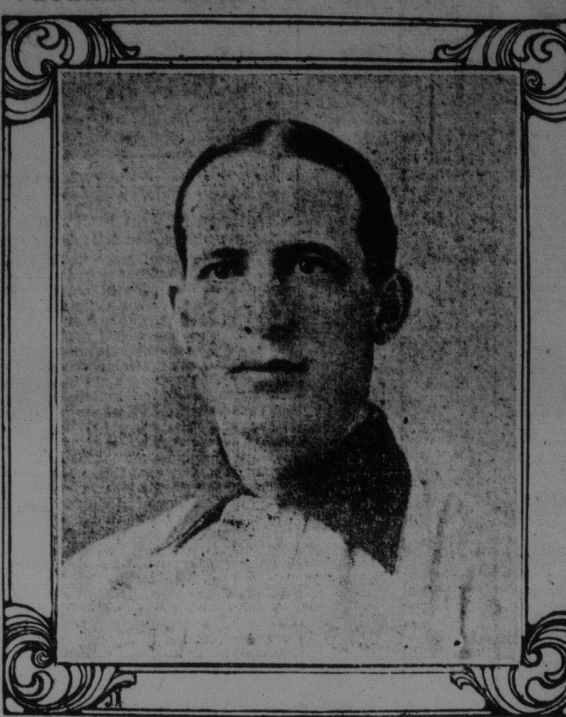

Auto polo is the new sport that is getting a hold on the younger generation on Long Island. The game is played exactly as polo, but small, powerful automobiles are used instead of the fast polo ponies. This makes the game dangerous and thrilling, for during the game autos run into each other and spill out the occupants and probably injure them. The machines are able to make more curves and make better speed than their four-footed rivals. The machines are protected from injury when being overturned by steel hoops fastened on the frame. The above photograph shows one of the players rushing the ball to the goal.

Auto polo is the new sport that is getting a hold on the younger generation on Long Island. The game is played exactly as polo, but small, powerful automobiles are used instead of the fast polo ponies. This makes the game dangerous and thrilling, for during the game autos run into each other and spill out the occupants and probably injure them. The machines are able to make more curves and make better speed than their four-footed rivals. The machines are protected from injury when being overturned by steel hoops fastened on the frame. The above photograph shows one of the players rushing the ball to the goal.

Auto polo is the new sport that is getting a hold on the younger generation on Long Island. The game is played exactly as polo, but small, powerful automobiles are used instead of the fast polo ponies. This makes the game dangerous and thrilling, for during the game autos run into each other and spill out the occupants and probably injure them. The machines are able to make more curves and make better speed than their four-footed rivals. The machines are protected from injury when being overturned by steel hoops fastened on the frame. The above photograph shows one of the players rushing the ball to the goal.

Auto polo is the new sport that is getting a hold on the younger generation on Long Island. The game is played exactly as polo, but small, powerful automobiles are used instead of the fast polo ponies. This makes the game dangerous and thrilling, for during the game autos run into each other and spill out the occupants and probably injure them. The machines are able to make more curves and make better speed than their four-footed rivals. The machines are protected from injury when being overturned by steel hoops fastened on the frame. The above photograph shows one of the players rushing the ball to the goal.

VETERAN RETURNS AND FANS ARE HAPPY.

After an absence of two years Fred Clarke, the veteran player and manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, has returned to his regular position in left field, and the fans all over the circuit are glad to know that the great player has returned to his old game. There is many a game left in the same Fred Clarke.

ST. CROIX TRIMMED BANGOR;
GREEKS LOSE TEN INNING GAME

St. Croix, 9; Bangor, 4.

Special to The Standard.
Bangor, July 14.—St. Croix took the first in a closely played game today by a score of 9 to 4. Welsh, a new recruit, started in for Bangor and for the first two innings pitched good ball to win. In the third the visitors got to him and coupled with loose playing piled up eight runs. Hits that should have been flied were let go for safeties. He was taken out and Jereau was sent in. He easily disposed of the first three men up, but was relieved to let Wallace bat for him in the fourth after two were out, and the bases full. The best that Wallace could do was to hit to Lee for an easy out.

Lee was as wild as a hawk in spots and passed seven men, but when in a pinch he tightened up and made an easy time of it. Bangor should have won, but no team can win on the kind of ball they played today. Throws down to second were missed and errors at the critical time were what defeated them.

In the third inning twelve visitors came to the bat. Two bases on balls, five singles, three triples and a home run is the story of the fatal third.

The following is the box score and summary:

St. Croix.		ABR BH PO A E
Jacobson lf	.....	3	2 1 0 0 0
Lynch 3b	.....	3	0 0 1 3
Tetrault 2b	.....	5	1 2 3 5 0
Pease 1b	.....	5	1 2 10 0 1
Parker cf	.....	4	2 2 1 0
Vance ss	.....	3	1 3 2 1
Spiller rf	.....	4	1 1 0 0
Gross c	.....	4	0 2 7 1 0
Lee p	.....	4	1 1 0 1 0
Totals	.....	35	9 14 27 13 4

Bangor.		ABR BH PO A E
Ashworth rf	.....	4	0 0 2 0 0
Connaughton 2b	.....	4	2 2 2 2
Reed lf	.....	5	1 8 0 0
Wakfield c	.....	4	1 0 5 1 0
Dolan lf	.....	3	0 1 2 1 0
Mathews cf	.....	5	0 2 1 0 0
Tewhey ss	.....	4	1 0 3 2
Welsh p	.....	1	0 2 0 0
Brooks c	.....	1	0 0 2 1 0
Wallace p	.....	2	0 0 1 0
Jereau p	.....	2	0 0 0 0
Totals	.....	34	4 8 24 8 3

Score by innings:
St. Croix 1b..... 010000000-9
Bangor..... 11002000-4

Two base hits, Parker. Three base hits, Parker, Vance, Lee, Connaughton, Wakefield. Home run, Jacobson. Hits off Welsh 11 in 3 innings; off Jereau 1 in 1 inning; off Wallace, 2 in 5 innings. Base on balls, by Welsh 1; by Wallace, 1; by Lee, 7. Struck out by Welsh 2, by Jereau 1, by Wallace 1, by Lee 7. Stolen bases, Jacobson, Gross. Double plays, Lynch to Tetrault to Pease, Connaughton to Reed. Sacrifice hits, Wildes, Connaughton, Vance. Left on bases St. Croix 6, Bangor 10. Umpire, Labelle. Time of game 2 hours.

FREDERICTON 7, MARATHONS 6.

Fredericton, N. B., July 14.—Fredericton won a 10-inning thriller from the New York Canoe Club, against Ralph B. Britton, of the Ganoan Canoe and Motor Boat Club, the Canadian challenger. Frede won over the eight mile course by a margin of two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

DURNAN IS READY TO ROW ALBANY

Toronto, July 14.—Eddie Durnan, the professional sculling champion of America, when asked today if he would meet Albany, the English professional in a race for the championship of this continent, to be settled on Toronto Bay, in August, replied: "Certainly I will meet him, but not on the terms he suggests. If Albany wants a race he must send his money over here to be covered. I do not see why I should have to send it to him, as he is the challenger. I have always had to send my side bet to the old country when I wanted a race over there."

"Albany wants half the receipts and the steambot money, but I will not agree to this. He has never beaten anybody in his life that I know of, unless it was Dick Arnst's brother, who was never known to be a sculler. I will consider his expense money if he wants to meet me here, but I think that it is only a lot of talk, and that it sounds very much as though some one had got Tom Sullivan talking over a 'mug' or two."

Durnan is out every day in training for his race with Greer, of Boston, for the championship, that will be sculled at Put-In-Bay in August, and if Albany wants to get a race on for the title it will have to be held about the first of September. This will probably be Durnan's last year as a sculler. He is thinking of retiring from any active part in the rowing life. He is 41 years old and thinks he has had enough.

AMERICAN
OUTSAILED
CANADIAN

Brooklyn, July 14.—Leo Frede, of the Manhattan Canoe Club, was successful today in defending the international canoe challenge trophy for the New York Canoe Club, against Ralph B. Britton, of the Ganoan Canoe and Motor Boat Club, the Canadian challenger. Frede won over the eight mile course by a margin of two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

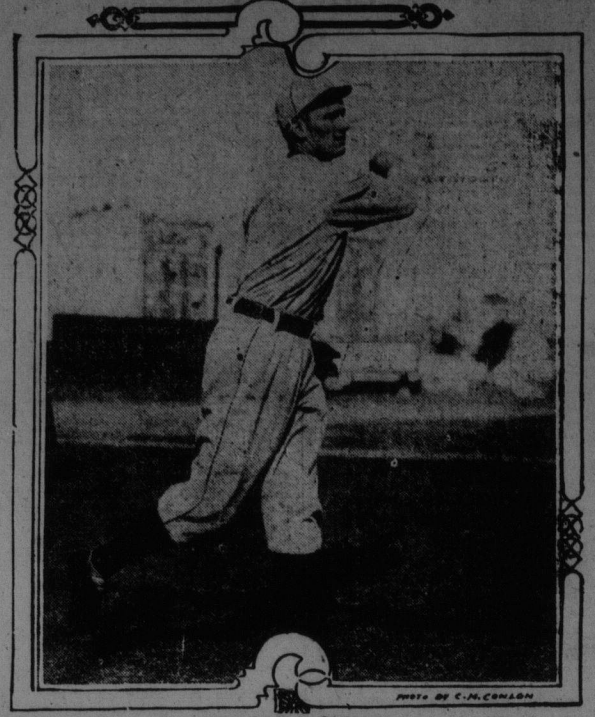

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

Today's event was a procession after the first two hundred yards. Only in going before the wind did the Canadian show to advantage. On every other race, the American outlasted the British. Britton got the better of the start and was away first, two minutes and twelve seconds. In the first race, sailed last Friday, Frede led the Canadian over the line at the finish by 1 minute, 34 seconds. In this race, however, Britton was disqualified for fouling a buoy. Both races were sailed on a triangular course on the Gravesend Bay, off the Marine and Field Club.

AUTO RUINS JOHNSON'S PITCHING HAND

The mighty Walter Johnson is threatened with a serious change in the form of his wonderful right hand. If Walter persists in spending his time at the wheel of an automobile, expert automobilists declare, his pitching days will be over before many moons.

"Constant handling of an automobile steering wheel will completely change the shape of any baseball pitcher's hands," declared an expert motorist. The slump which Johnson now is experiencing has been brought about by the wheel cramp, which is slowly but surely getting his pitching hand. Johnson says he doesn't know what is the matter with his pitching.

AUGUST 8
DATE FOR MOTOR RACE

A meeting of the committee which has charge of the Norton Griffiths motor boat cup met yesterday in the Board of Trade rooms, and arranged for a race on August 8. The start will be made from North Market wharf about 4 p. m. The boats will run round Partridge Island and into Courtenay Bay as far as a buoy off Union street, return to the starting line at North Market wharf, and then make a run round the Beacon Bar lighthouse and back to North Market wharf. This route will make a course of about 12 miles.

The committee will get in touch with the Eastern Canada Division of the Motor Boat Association of America, and endeavor to get their sanction to the rules of the race.

STANDINGS

erica, and endeavor to get their sanction to the rules of the race.

---

STANDINGS

After losing a ten-hitting battle to Frederickton yesterday the Greeks will strive hard to win from the Frederickton team this afternoon and the game promises to be a good one. The game will start at 3.15 o'clock.