S. S. Imperator, Largest
Vessel Afloat, Swept by
Fire at New York Pier—
Other Items.

S. S. IMPERATOR BURNS.

New York, Aug. 28.—The steamship Imperator, the largest vessel afloat, was swept by fire early today when she lay at her dock at Hoboken, with her crew and 1,131 steerage passengers aboard.

Second Officer Gobrecht, who led the crew into the hold to fight the flames, was cut off from his men, enveloped in a cloud of smoke, and suffocated. His body was found an hour later, untouched by fire, and brought ashore.

MURDERER FREED.

Boston, Aug. 28.—Pauline's behavior for seventeen years in the federal prison at Atlanta, during which he has been a great force for good, according to Warden Mott, has convinced the government authorities that Thomas M. C. Bram, convicted of a triple murder on the high seas, is an innocent man, and as a result he was set free today on the parole system.

RUMOR DENIED.

London, August 27.—In reply to an inquiry regarding the report that H. R. H. Prince Arthur of Connaught would succeed his father, the Duke, in the governor-generalship of Canada, T. Rivers-Bulkeley, the Duke's secretary, telegraphs to the Montreal Star's correspondent from Bagshot Park: "Not a word of truth in the statement."

SEVERE ELECTRICAL STORM.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 28.—Boston had a severe thunder and lightning storm on Wednesday and twenty boys and girls were struck down and severely injured when a bolt tore through the Everett City bathing house. A ball of fire fell from the heavens into an alley on Canal street. Scores of houses in Greater Boston were also struck.

G. T. P. DENIES REPORT.

Quebec, August 27.—E. J. Chamberlin, head of the Grand Trunk Railway, speaking of reports that the company did not want the section from Cohasset to Moncton, says that the Grand Trunk Pacific never had any difficulty with the Dominion government. Our relations are most cordial. The Grand Trunk Pacific entered into an obligation with the government to take over the entire Transcontinental Railway and operate it, when it was completed and handed over to us by the government, and it is our intention to live up to our obligation.

ISSUED LIVE SHELLS.

Chatham, Ont., Aug. 28.—When the Blue army in its manoeuvres halted at noon yesterday, an inspection was made of ball pouches and rifles. The officers were startled to find that several men were carrying loaded shells as are used in the regimental shooting galleries. An investigation will be held.

WHAT MARITIME PROVINCES
ARE DOING IN BOSTON

Truro Woman Meets Nephew She had not seen for Thirty Years — Charge Against Sarah Childs, of Moncton, may not be Pressed — Former Provincialists Dead.

Special correspondence of The Standard.

Boston, Aug. 27.—Boston has been enjoying September weather ahead of time, and the temperature in the early morning this week has been quite low. Hundreds of vacationists are returning from the Maritime Provinces, and the travel eastward is still of large proportions. The Yarmouth line has added another boat to its service to handle the traffic which is heavy both ways.

A Pleasant Surprise.

Fred M. Haggerty, of Waltham, a scouter of weights and measures, was pleasantly surprised last night when he met an aunt whom he had not seen for thirty years. The woman is Mrs. Martha Wilson, of Truro, N. S. The meeting was arranged by a friend of the two, a woman. The latter asked Mr. Haggerty if he was to be at home last evening, and on being told that he would be, he was informed that he would have two visitors. Mr. Haggerty was amazed when he was introduced to his aunt. Mrs. Wilson came to Boston to visit a daughter, and learning that Mr. Haggerty lived in Waltham decided to look him up.

N. B. Girls for Europe. Four New Brunswick girls sailed from Boston for Europe yesterday on the steamer Arabic, of the White Star line. They were Miss Violet Goodwin, daughter of Freeman Goodwin, Miss Grace Worman, Miss Annie Gibson and Miss Pearl Steeves. They are chaperoned by Miss Florence Page. They won a trip abroad by being the most popular girls in a Moncton newspaper voting contest.

Married in Wakefield.

Miss Christine Burgess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Burgess, of Moncton, and Robert McTague, of Wakefield, were married in that town this week.

Miss Childs' Case.

The case of Miss Sarah Childs, of Moncton, who is charged with stealing $150 worth of jewelry and lingerie from her employer, Mrs. Edmund J. Phelan, of Lynn, Mass., was set for trial this week. It is said that Mrs. Phelan may not prosecute the case, as she understands the Moncton police are not likely to handle the case. A striking blonde of 26, Mrs. Phelan is a sister-in-law of Congressman Phelan.

MRS. HANDSOMEBODY IS MARITIME PROVINCES'
LADY GOLF CHAMPION

Defeated Mrs. Maddison of Moncton, Four Up and Three to Go—Good Matches Played.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Aug. 28.—A heavy downpour of rain this forenoon did not dampen the ardour of the lady golf players at the Maritime Tournament for the putting and approaching contest. Was held, Miss Phelan, of Amherst, and Mrs. Lennox of Halifax, tied with 8 each. In the play off the former won.

In the afternoon, when the weather had cleared, the championship final was played. This was won by Mrs. Handsomebody, of Windsor, who defeated Mrs. Maddison, of Moncton, 4 up and 3 to go. Mrs. Handsomebody is now champion of the Maritime Provinces. Miss Thomson, of St. John is not expected to defend the title.

In the championship consolation final Mrs. Cooke, Moncton, beat Miss Pope, Charlottetown.

In the semi-finals of first consolation Mrs. Bonnyman, of Amherst, beat Miss Pipes, and Mrs. Goodwill, Charlottetown, beat Miss Vroom, Windsor. In the final consolation consolation Miss Tighe, Amherst, beat Mrs. Patterson, Truro.

In the final of the second consolation Mrs. Purdie, Amherst, beat Mrs. Roberts, Halifax.

The annual meeting of the association will be held tomorrow forenoon. In the afternoon an interprovincial match, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, against Nova Scotia, will be played with 19 players on each side. This will close the tournament.

Morning Play.

In the second round for the championships the results were: Mrs. Maddison, Moncton, beat Miss Stetson, St. John.

Mrs. Rhodes, Amherst, beat Mrs. Smith, St. John.

The drawing competition yesterday was won by Miss Bauld with 449 yards and Miss Barker, St. John, was second with 370 yards.
