For Big Fighters Willard and Dempsey Were on the Hunt for Sites Yesterday—The Men Are Making Ready for Championship Bout.

Toledo, O., May 8.—A hunt for sites for training camps for Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey was begun today by A. Q. Thacher, match maker for the Toledo Boxing Commission, which is staging the title fight here on July fourth.

Several locations on the shores of Lake Erie were inspected at the request of Tex Rickard, the promoter. Willard has been offered the old Casino grounds, a historic summer resort, less than a mile from the place where the ring will be set up. The offer was made by the West Toledo Gun Club, of which Willard was made a member when here with his circus three years ago.

A telegram from Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, stated that Dempsey and his manager were leaving this afternoon for Toledo. They will come by automobile, the message said.

There has been discussion here as to whether the local commission would approve of Matt Hinkle, of Cleveland as referee, but it is known that Mayor Schreiber, who is the placating member of the commission, told Rickard when here last week that his plans would not be interfered with by the commission.

McCULLOUGH THE ESCAPED MURDERER

RECAPTURED

By Watching His Lady Love Officers Were Able to Locate His Place of Hiding.

Toronto, May 8.—Frank McCullough, condemned murderer, of Youngstown, Ohio, who made his escape from Toronto jail on April 16, with his execution fixed for May 2, was recaptured this morning. When the police knocked at the door of a room in a house on Bathurst street, he jumped out of a back window to a shed in the rear of the house.

The discovery of his hiding place, undoubtedly, came out through the arrest of Vera Lavelle, and the tracing of her movements since April 16. The window of the room in which McCullough had been hiding since his escape was over the Cross street entrance on King street where McCullough in November last, killed Acting Detective Williams who was seeking to arrest him for store robberies. She never suspected who he was till the police called on her today.

McCullough was preparing to get away on a bicycle when captured today. He made no further attempt to escape when the police covered him with their revolvers. "When he saw he was covered he exclaimed: 'I have nothing on me I am of guns. What are you going to do?'"

Recognition of experts in criminal law there is no doubt that the date upon which Frank McCullough is to be hanged, under the circumstances of the two reprieves, is June 13. The date originally set for the execution was May second.

LONDON WORRIED OVER POLICE SITUATION

Several Thousand London Police Held a Demonstration in Trafalgar Square on Sunday.

London, May 8. (By Can. Ass'n Press.)—The home secretary, while admitting that the police had legitimate grievances, was very emphatic in stating that no official recognition would be extended to the London Police Trades Union. Little doubt is, however, felt that the cabinet is considerably uneasy about the unrest in the London force.

Several thousand London police held a demonstration in Trafalgar Square on Sunday. The proceedings consisted of a meeting in the square, presided over by the police commissioner, who was watched by the home secretary and the police commissioner. The police chief declared some men have been dismissed for forsaking patrols at night, and others for detying all authority.

There has been no open talk of another general strike, such as last August. There was considerable sympathy then for men who were inadequately paid in view of the high cost of living.

GERMAN INFAMIES COMMITTED IN THE VENETO

Milan, May 6.—The first volume of the Royal Italian commission about the Austro-German atrocities committed in the invaded parts of Venetia has appeared in Rome, and has produced a deep impression. It contains facts impossible to print in a newspaper.

Immediately after the invasion the average death rate ran up to from 22 to 45 for every thousand inhabitants and about 37,000 persons died from ill treatment in the single city of Feltre one-fourth of the population died.

One of the many examples of barbarity described in the book involves a certain Della Canova. After Della Canova had rescued a girl of his family from outrage at the hands of five Austrian officers, he was arrested, bound, and forced to drink a bottle of alcohol. After that with a candle the Austrians burned off his whiskers, eyebrows and hair, and passed a red hot iron over his body.
