JIMMY WILDE TO BOX AT TORONTO

The British flyweight champion who made his initial appearance in Canada when he defeated Zulu Kiki at Windsor, outclassing his American opponent in every one of ten rounds, is booked for the G. A. C. carnival at Toronto, May 24th.

His offer to meet any man in the universe on that date, provided they make 116 lbs. at the ringside, has met with a challenge from "Dot" Guthrie, manager of "Patsy" Walcott, of Philadelphia. As Wallace has already shown his capacity to carry Wilde at a lightning pace, boxing fans are interested in the possibilities of a bout in Toronto. The above picture shows Wilde in an Overland 4, he having expressed a desire to visit a Walcott-Overland factory and see for himself the punch behind the new car. The manager, Dave Hughes, who is a wealthy grain merchant, and controls a number of picture houses, is taking an Overland 4 coupe home with him to Wales.

New York Greek Won American Marathon

Peter Trivoulidas Proved Fleetest of a Field of Sixty Runners Yesterday — His Time Eight Minutes Slower Than Record.

Boston, April 19.—The American Marathon race was won today by Peter Trivoulidas, of New York, who proved the fleetest of a field of sixty runners. The winner is a Greek subject, and will apply for citizenship papers, Thursday. It is understood the race was the official test for elimination of the United States representatives at the Olympiads. Trivoulidas' time, which was eight minutes slower than the record, was two hours, 29 minutes, 31 seconds.

Second to the sturdy Greek was Arthur V. Roth, of the Dorchester Club, Boston, who won the race in 1916. Last year's winner, Carl W. A. Linder, of Quincy, was third; William Wick, also of Quincy, who was second to Linder a year ago, was fourth; and Edwin H. Walle, of Holy Cross, Lyceum, New York, was fifth.

Trivoulidas ran a heady race today. While James Hanigan, New England ten-mile champion, was setting a fairly stiff pace over the first half of the course, the Greek runner lay behind, conserving his strength. With the race half run, the steep Newton Hills forced Hanigan to drop out and others back, and Trivoulidas steadily worked through the field. He was running second to Roth at Lake street, six miles out, and at Massachusetts avenue, Boston, he passed his rival. He finished strong.

Sixth place was won by Robert Conboy, of Buffalo, N. Y.; seventh by Frank Zana, of Newark, and eighth, the last of the prize position, by Clinton Mitchell, of New York. Charles Mellor, of Chicago, dropped out three miles from the finish.

RUMORS OF MARITIME PRO. BALL LEAGUE

Joe Page Said to be Preparing to Organize a Class D League.

Word comes from Halifax that a Maritime provinces professional baseball league, may be in operation this season. While nothing definite has been learned of the proposition, a report regarding the project was received. Joe Page, the well-known Montreal sportsman, is said to be behind the scheme. It will be remembered, that Page had a part-time league, with St. John, Moncton and New Glasgow, formed in 1914, but rumors of war caused the project to be dropped. Joe Page is a hunter, and anything he goes after he generally lands.

It is reported that Page will endeavor to organize a class D league which will be a member of the American association of baseball clubs, the salary limit to be $2,000 per month for each team. According to the report received here, Page plans to have St. John, Fredericton, Moncton and Halifax in the league, the winners to meet the winners of the New England to play off for the Eastern championship. Page is a scout for one of the American league teams, and it is reported that the owners of the clubs on the junior circuit of the majors would back the proposed league with finances.
