Ten Prominent New Yorkers Lose $600,000 in Mythical "Pool"—Hunt for Broker. New York, Feb. 24.—Ten women, several prominent socially, who claim to have put more than $600,000 into a mythical "pool" promoted by Alfred E. Lindsey, broker, with a palatial home at South Nyack, today were summoned to appear before a supreme court grand jury Monday and help piece together the details of a remarkable story of "high finance," on which Assistant District Attorney Murphy will seek Lindsey's indictment.

Fire Destroys Home of Mrs. Geo. Gambin at Collina

Large Part of Furnishings, Clothing, Etc., Also Destroyed in the Blaze. Apohaqui, Feb. 25.—On Friday morning the home of Mrs. George Gambin, of Collina, Kings County, was burned to the ground. The fire started in the attic and made such headway before being discovered that nothing could be saved from the upper story. Practically all the furnishings on the ground floor were saved, but all the bedding and wearing apparel with the upstairs furniture was lost, the occupants only saving the clothes which they were wearing.
