FREDERICTON

Fredericton, N. B., Feb. 26—Manzer
Wallace, of Patterson, Sunbury county, is in jail at Burton, charged with stabbling is waite with a pitchfork. His examination will probably take place Wednesday. The stabbling is said to be the result of domestic trouble. Wallace's story is that his wife entered the barm where he was at work Saturday afternoon. He ordered her out, but she refused to go. It stying to put her out of the building he struck her. The arm with a pitchfork. When she did attempt to leave he tried to prevent the barmdoor from being blown to by the wind, by bracing the form against it and accidentally struck her. The wom an's story is different.

Wallace was arrested on his wife's complaints. Constable Armstrong took him by railway to Waasis and drove in to burse.

Application is being made for the incorporation as the Lower Restiguence
