GOLD 7-30 LOAN. A profitable and secure Investment.

THE Northern Pacific Railroad Companyoffers to the public an investment security which combines the ready negotiability, the conveni ence, and the high credit of a first-class Rail road Bond, with the solidity and safety of a Real Estate Mortgage on Land worth at least Traffic. As officially reported, the gross earn ings of the present Pacific Railroad (Union and Central) for 1871, the second year of through business, (December earnings estimated) reach Seventeen Millions and a Quarter. Of this, 65 per cent. is from Local business, and, it is stated fully 55 per cent., or nearly Nine and a Half Millions, are net over operating expenses An equal traffic on the Northern Pacific Road will pay a dividend of more than 91/2 per cent. on its total cost. With its great and unquestioned advantages in distance, grades, climate and trioutary fertile country, the Northern Pacific is assured of a vast and profitable business from the outset, with a large increase for the future.

The Value of Land Grants. The average price at which the twenty-six leading Land-grant at which the twenty-six leading Land-grant Railroads have thus far sold their lands, is $7.04 per acre—the highest average of any grant being $13.98, and the lowest $3.07. With icw exceptions, the average selling price has steadily increased from year to year. The lands of the Northern Pacific Road are admitted, by all who have seen them, to be better and more salable than those of most other grants, but, sold at the general average of $7.04 per acre, they will yield than those of most other grants, but, sold at the general average of $7.04 per acre, they will yield more than $161,000 per mile of road—more than three times the possible cost of construction and equipment; or, at the lowest average of any grant ($3.07), they will produce more than $70, 000 per mile. The 7-30 Gold Boads. The first mortgage bonds of this company, which, after full investigation, we strongly recommend as a reliable and unusually profitable investment, and which now stand among the solid and favorite securities of the country, have the following leading features;

The Proprietor can, with the greatest confidence, recommend his "CHAMPION PLATE POLISH" as an article superior to anything of the kind ever offered to the public. One trial of it will ensure constant use; and as it saves so much time and labour, besides producing a very lasting polish, Housekeepers will find it worth their while to use "ArkINSON'S CHAMPION PLATE POLISH," for cleaning and polishing all kinds of silver and plated goods.

The Halifax "Citizen." Tri-Weekly, $2 50 in advance. Weekly, 1.00 ESTABLISHED IN 1863.

THE combined circulation of the Tri-Weekly and Weekly CITIZEN is now over 5000, considerably larger than that of any other paper published in the Province, and thus the best medium for advertising. This statement we are prepared to prove by our books, and challenge contradiction. Terms of advertising as follows: Commercial Cards, not exceeding 12 lines, one year.

Diberal arrangements made with those desiring more space, or inserting advertisements for a long period. The above rates are for the Tri-Weekly only. If the Weekly be desired in addition one-half must be added to those prices. If Weekly only, price the same as Tri-Weekly. To Merchants and others desiring to obtain reliable reports of the Halifax markets, we can confidently recommend the CITIZEN, it being in fact the only paper issued in Halifax which publishes a regular Commercial Review. Several other journals have attemped it, but have allowed it to drop. In its shipping reports the CITIZEN has always been acknowledged to be in advance of any journal published in the Maritime Provinces, and this has given it a circulation specially large among the persons advertisers most desire to reach, Merchants, Shipowners and men of means generally. It contains mora reading matter than any other Halifax. Tri-Weekly or Weekly, and is the largest paper published in the Province. All orders to be addressed to the Man ager CITIZEN PUSILISHING COMPANY, Lock Drawer, No. 9, Post Office, Halifax, N. S. one year ...

THE WISDOM OF THE KING

NOTICES OF

Rev. James Bennet, ST. JOHN, N. B.

EVIDENCES of deep and serious thought throughout the volume."-Belfast News Letter, Jan. 24, 1871. "Succeeds well in seizing on the salient points of the words of the Royal Preacher, and in bringing them home to present duty."—Glasgow Daily Review, Feb. 6, 1871. "Characterized by directness of aim, sound sense, and right appreciation of the secred writer's menning."—The Preachers' Lanters, (London), Feb. 1871. "His Book may be recommended as worthy o take a place in the Homiletical Literature of Reclesiastes,"—British Quarterly Review, April

"The production of a highly cultivated mind.
... We have read several works on Ecclesiastes, and well remember the pleasure with which years ago we perused the 'Royal Preacher,' but for fine criticism, comprehensiveness of thought, striking illustration and unostentations, yet eloquent and forcible style, The Wispom of The King, we think, surpasses them all."
—St. Croix Courier, March 6, 1871. For sale by HALL & FAIRWEATHER. "The volume is not an unworthy companion of Dr. Buchanan on the same book."—The Homilist (London), April 1971. milist (London), April 1971.

"A series of charming Essays. . . Each chapter branehes out into innumerable topics of a sesondary and collateral nature, giving to the work a boundless diversity, enriched with stores of ethical as well as of spiritual wisdom, evincing at once acute observation of social life and of human character, and containing the nollest lessons for practical guidance. Our author's style is remarkable for its free, unconstrained flow, almost collequial at times, but invariably signalized by elegance, force, adaptation to the subject, and not seldom by originality of thought in combination with terseness and beautysof expression. . There is about it a freshness, as well as a fullness of practical teaching, rarely to be met with in directional results of the subject, and not seldom by originality of thought in combination with terseness and beautysof expression. . There is about it a freshness, as well as a fullness of practical teaching, rarely to be met with in directional results. This is a bright, breezy book, both interest-"This is a bright, breezy book, both interesting and instructive, We can most conscientiously commend this book generally, as one of the most sprightly, attractive and instructive works of its kind that has fallen under our observation."—Boston Evening Iravetler, May "Every portion of the work indicates extensive scholarship and mature thought."— Belfast Northern Whig. April 8th, 1871. "The force, raciness and robust manliness of Mr. Bennett's style and mode of treatment will arrest attention and excite interest in quarters where preaching or writing of the average quality would fall flat and dead."—Home and Foreign Record. March, 1871. unlity would fall flat and dead."—Home and Foreign Record. March, 1871.

"So plain yet so suggetive, so practical yet so profound are these Lectures that while ou read them you feel their deep truth and reality; it hat you are in contact with realities both visible and invisible; that you are in close contact with the beating heart of nature and humanity, and that all their life and hope flow flul and free from God alone."—Fredericton Head Quarters, March 1st, 1871.

"The writer is evidently well acquainted with the literature of his subject, and that acquaint nace reveals itself almost unconsciously in every page. There is no ostentation of reading or learning, but there is everywhere the gleaming forth of light which cannot be hid.
The style is simple, intelligible, graceful. It shows at once that Mr. Bennet is a man of literary culture, who can express his thoughts with scholarly chasteness and good taste. We could not open a page without meeting some thought vigorously expressed. The work is eminently fresh and readable."—Pres. Witness, Hakiyax.

"He reveals in the treatment of his themes

Halifax.

"He reveals in the treatment of his themes strong common sense, a firm grasp of thought, a logical acumen and a clear insight into human character. Even when dealing with trite idea he imparts to them a novelty and interest by which they are lifted into an importance they searcely deserve. The style throughout is lucid, pure, compact, forcible,—and it is his own—the garb of his own thinking. We have met in our perusal of the book with numerous paragraphs of finished and brilliant rhetorio-fine specimens of pulpit oratory. He is never tame nor tiresome. We have not found one slip shod sentence in the volume."—Christian Visitor, (Baptist) March 6th, 1871.

"We were not repeared to find him writing."

(Baptist) March 6th, 1871.

"We were not prepared to find him writing in such a finished style and issuing such a volume as the result of certain preparations made for an evening lecture to his congregation. If all his pulpit performances are equal to these, his people have reason to rejoice in the Providence which guided his steps to them."

Evangelical Witness, May let. 1871.

"This is a remarkably thoughtful, colid book? Mr. Beanet is evidently at home in Metaphysics and Ethics, and he is a shrewd observer of human nature in its ordinary manifestations; consequently he ranges over the lessons of the Preacher with a power of illustration which shows his mastery of the subject. The style is close and direct, and yet so lucid, that any reader may understand every sentence in the volume.

It will, we doubt not, take its place, as it ought to do, among our household expositions of this treatise of observation and Jewish wisdom."—The Presbyterian (Philadelphia), May 20, 1871.

"The lessons to be learned are drawn with a phia), May 20, 1871.

"The lessons to be learned are drawn with a master's band, and are expressed with a combined force and beauty that we have rarely seen surpassed in the production of any author. The ordinary reader will find nothing that is above his comprehension, and yet it would be difficult to find a common place thought or form of expression. A combination of these requisites we deem the highest merit a writer can possess. "We will be much disappointed if the book do not command a wide circulation. Wherever a sound literature is felt to be a deside atum, The Wisdom of the work that the world will not willingly let die."—Saint John Telegraph and Journal.

"The Wisdom of the King is well worth."

Journal.

"THE WISDOM OF THE KING is well worth careful reading. Indeed you cannot read much of it at once. There is a constant play of fancy about the thoughts, and often the very words, that is admirably suited to the Scripture book, of which this is an exposition, but which demands such constant attention on the reader's part that he gets tired, for he does not know where it is to end. The style is compact, lucid, often sparkling and epigrammatic, the sentences cut sharply, but with a poetic fullness of original all llustration that redeems them from all hardness."—Halifax Monthly Record, (Church of Scotland). "Each chapter is so well done, so lucid, yet concise in its exposition, that it is sometimes a flicult to determine which is the best and most interesting,—Stewart's Quarterly, St. John.
