THE PROBS

Toronto, May 1.—The distribution of pressure has changed completely from that of the early part of the week, and the barometer is now highest over northern Canada and relatively low over the United States. The weather is overcast and cool throughout the Dominion, and rain is falling between eastern Ontario and the Maritime Provinces.

FORECASTS

Moderate to fresh northerly winds, cloudy and cool to-day and on Sunday; a few local showers.

THANK YOU?

The Courier desires to thank the donor who anonymously left the parcel containing ten packets of Old Chum and cigarette papers, also Mr. M. E. Mitchell, Prince Edward Hotel, for the generous donation of a 500 box of Players' cigarettes.

"WAITING."

There rings through Canada to-day, Cheers for our boys so brave, Who left their mark upon the foe, And never feared the grave.

But mingled with those cheers, are tears, From those who know no sleep, Who wait the news that soon may bring, Both pride and sorrow deep.

Pride that their loved ones, heroes died, The foremost in the fight, Scorned so deep that God alone, In His Good time can right.

In fancy we can see the fight, Upon that bloodstained field; The poisoned shells the Germans used, To make their foemen yield.

The fearful roar, the hail of death, Beneath the mighty German rush, Our flank was backward borne.

The guns were theirs! The foe poured on! With victory as their cry, To where our brave Canadian lads, Stood fast to win or die.

As heroes all, they meet the rush, The Germans backward reel, And on that shell-torn battle ground, Fall fast beneath their steel.

Back! Back—the guns are ours again! A mighty cheer rings out, Those of the foe who miss the steel, Fly fast in headlong rout.

Fierce is the battle raging still, Upon that distant plain, But we can trust our lads to do, That which they did, again.

Among the best in Britain's ranks Their place they proudly hold, They saved the day, but paid the price, In blood, worth more than gold.

But, oh, the aching hearts that wait, For news of those they love, Our duty 'tis to comfort them, With help of Him above.

—H. Blanchard.

TO-MORROW 7 P.M. SERMON SUBJECT:

"Home—Happiness and Mother"

Who ran to help me when I fell, And would some pretty story tell, Or kiss the place to make it well? "My Mother."

Who taught my infant lips to pray, And love God's holy book and day, And walk in Wisdom's pleasant way? "My Mother."

—JANE TAYLOR.

What Do You Owe to Your Mother?

"All that I am I owe to my angel mother."

—Abraham Lincoln.

HONOR YOUR MOTHER by attending this service yourself and enlisting the interest of others. Mrs. Arthur Secord will sing "Home, Sweet Home." That old favorite, "Where is My Wandering Boy To-night?" will also be sung.

A SERVICE You will enjoy. Will do you good. You will long remember.

COME! "Always Good Music"

EYE EXAMINING

is one of the most important features of our profession, and we have made the human eye a study so that we might excel in our work. By understanding the eye, its structure and susceptibility to derangement, we are enabled, after examination, to fit the exact lenses that improve the vision and rest the organ. We are reasonable in our charges and prompt in service. A trial solicited.
