Proviso : Defendant's debtor sued by him after the seizure, may obtain stay of proceedings.

Court or Judge may and shall deposit with the Sheriff a Bond to the Defendant executed by two freeholders, whose sufficiency shall be approved by the Sheriff in double the amount of the appraised value of such articles, conditioned for the payment of such appraised value to the Defendant, his executors or administrators, together with all costs and damages that may have been incurred by the seizure and sale thereof, in case Judgment shall not be obtained by the Plaintiff against the Defendant, then the Sheriff shall proceed to sell all or any such enumerated articles at public auction, to the highest bidder, giving not less than six days' notice of such sale, unless any of the articles are of such a nature as not to allow of that delay, in which case the Sheriff may sell such articles last mentioned forthwith; and the Sheriff shall hold the proceeds of such sale for the same purposes as he would hold any property seized under the attachment.

LI. If the Plaintiff in any Writ of Attachment, after notice to himself or his Attorney, of the seizure of any such articles as enumerated, shall neglect or refuse to deposit any such Bond, or shall only offer a Bond of sureties insufficient in the judgment of the Sheriff, then, after the lapse of four days next after such notice, the Sheriff shall be relieved from all liability to such Plaintiff in respect to the articles so seized, which the said Sheriff is thenceforth authorized and directed to restore to the person from whose possession he took the same.

LII. If any person who is indebted to or has the custody or possession of any property or effects of an absconding Debtor, shall, after notice in writing of the Writ of Attachment duly served upon him by the Sheriff or by or on behalf of the Plaintiff in such Writ, pay any debt or demand or deliver any such property or effects to such absconding Debtor, or to any person for the individual use and benefit of such absconding Debtor, the person paying such debt or demand or delivering such property or effects, shall be deemed to have done so fraudulently, and is hereby made liable for the amount of such debt or demand or for such property and effects or the value thereof, to the Plaintiff in such Writ of Attachment, provided such Plaintiff recover Judgment against the absconding Debtor, and if the property and effects actually seized by the Sheriff are insufficient to satisfy such Judgment; and if any person indebted to any absconding Debtor or having custody of his property as aforesaid, shall be sued for such debt, demand or property after notice as aforesaid of the Writ of Attachment, by the absconding Debtor or by any person to whom the absconding Debtor may have assigned such debt or property after the date of the Writ of Attachment, he may, on affidavit, apply to the Court or a Judge, to stay proceedings in the action against himself, until it shall be known whether the property and effects so seized by the Sheriff, shall be sufficient to discharge the sum or sums recovered against the absconding Debtor, and it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge to make such rule or
