

ONE OF THE MANY Canadian poets invited to read and foment and God knows what else at Poet and Critic '69, George Jonas of Toronto, who describes himself as "an elementary-school drop-out", will be here to read and foment and God knows what else.

Poet and Critic '69 examines Canadian letters

The Department of English will sponsor a conference on Canadian poetry November 20 to 22. Called Poet and Critic '69, the conference will bring together many of the most prominent literary and academic figures in Canada for a pastiche of poetry readings, critical papers, round-table seminars and drama presentations.

The conference is student oriented. The Quebec government will fly in a large group of grad students in literature from Montreal, and a number are expected to make their way here from Winnipeg. Most of the scheduled events will be open to students who are not registered conference members.

In conjunction with Poet and Critic '69, the Bookstore will mount an exhibit of all books of the participating poets which are still in print. You can go down there, to lovingly run your eyes over your Favorite Canadian Poem.

Registration forms and schedules will be available at SUB Information Desk next week, or may be obtained from Prof. Dobbs of the Romance Languages Department and Profs. Harrison and Wiebe of the English Department.

ENGINEERS

Ontario Hydro must double production during the next 10 years and will add 13,000,000 kw (mainly fossil fuel thermal and nuclear plants based on 500 and 750 Mw units) during the 1970's. We do our own engineering planning, design, construction, operations, have an excellent research group and computing facilities as good as any in Canada.

Graduates are trained through productive work assignments which can lead to a first regular position in any of the above areas. You are invited to read our brochures in your placement office and to see us when we are on campus.

For Electrical, Engineering Physics, Mechanical, Chemical, and Metallurgical Engineers graduating in 1970 or those in post-graduate study. . . INTERVIEW DATES WILL BE:

December 1 & 2
