Dear Mr. Meighen,

I thought I would let you know the results of my talk with Mrs. Reid of the Herald-Tribune on January 5. There is nothing on her paper and there is no hope that there will be in any foreseeable future.

Yesterday I went out to see Mr. Hunt in his new office. He is happy and sends his kindest regards.

Meanwhile I received a letter yesterday from Harry Price who writes as follows: "Have just finished Meighen's collection of speeches, and while I had, in the past, read or heard most of them, I still get a kick out of reading them again."

He also writes that you will speak at the Hogarth dinner on Friday night, or act as toastmaster rather. I am glad and am just sorry that I shall not be there to hear you.

Meanwhile I still search in ~~xxx~~ vain but not without hope.

My best regards,

Sincerely,

(L.L.L. Golden)
