keeper, do swear that the accounts of my creditors, contained in the Schedule made and signed by me, and now in the hands of the assignee chosen by my creditors, is in all respects just and true, according to the best of my belief and knowledge, excepting the equitable claim I may have against Edward Matthews for about sixty odd pounds. And I do further swear that I have delivered to James Hamilton, Esquire, sheriff of the London District, all my estate, except such
