A missionary meeting will be held in the school room on Monday, Nov. 27th, to be addressed by the Bishop of Athabasca. Come and hear what God hath wrought among the Indians of the far North West.

The C.M.S. has 50 missionaries who wholly support themselves, and 23 who do so in part. The Universities Mission has 10. The S. P. G. 8, and our own Canadian Wycliffe Missions 1, who go at their own cost. Think of that, ye scoffers at missions; about 70 from our own church, who spend their lives among the heathen, living and working at their own charges, that they may bring the light of life to them that sit in darkness and help to fulfil their Master's command to "preach the Gospel to every creature." Would that many more to whom God has given this world's wealth would use it likewise.

The eighth anniversary of the opening of St. Paul's Church will (D.V.) be commemorated by special services on Sunday, Nov. 26th. The preacher will be the Right Rev. Dr. Young, D.D., Bishop of Athabasca. The offertory will be for the reduction of the church debt, and we ask our friends, both in town and country, to make an earnest effort to make it as large as possible. Let each one of us do his or her best and we will be amazed at the result. "God loveth a cheerful giver."

Archdeacon Vincent of Albany, diocese of Mooseonee has consented to complete Bishop Horden's revision of the Cree bible, and to proceed to England to see it through the press. The archdeacon has been one of those most highly blessed of God in his work among the Indians near Hudson Bay, and was a co-worker with the late Bishop Horden. In 1891 he baptized in a few weeks as many as 125 Indians. Mr. Vincent is a cousin of Mr. Gladman of the post office, and also of Mr. Gladman of Orillia.
