Provincial, were a vain man his usual hat would not berve its purpose this morning, for surely no Buffalo priesi was ever accorded greater homor than was last evening shown the estermed pastor of Holy Angels' Church. The occasion was a banquet tendered its chaplain by Buffalo Council Knighteof Colum bus to signalize its appreciation of the honor recently accorded him by appointment as Pro-vincial of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate for the First Province of the Unit d States. Father Fallon has enchared himself to his fellow knights on many occasions and in diverse ways. He has been a champion of the order in season and out of senson; therefore was in fitting that B file Council should in a Burchal manary set to honor the man and apprecial manary set. special manner seek to honor the man and priest who has never lost opportunity for honoring than cism of the laxity of our laws in this regard. and Canada's stand against the divorce evil The evening closed with some remarks by Father Fallon which fairly took his audionce off their fact. He was elequent, fervent, magnetic; he disclaimed for himself the extraordinary honors and eulogies showered upon him He laid them firs' at the feet of his divine Master and then to the aged father and mother who watch his desting with tears for his responsibili ties and prayers that he will ever have divine guidance in meeting them. To the K of C, and in especial manner to his brothers of Burfalo Council, the speaker paid a tribute which, if such were possible weided still closer the bonds of mutual love and respect Taken all in all the occasion was probably unique in the history of Buffalo. It was an exhibition of respect and friendship batween priest and pacele that will have a lasting and beneficial effect on each one whose privilege if was to be present.—Buffalo Luion and Times.

November 16, 1904, the feast day of the be-lowed pastor of Rai. Portage, the Row. Father Gendreau, O. M. I. was a day of general ro joicing for his little lack. On that any the Catholics of Rat Portage proceed the esteem and affection they felt for their kenearated pastor, who, for many years, has labored zeal-ously and unitingly in their midat. On the morning of that loyful day a Chil-dren's Mass was celebrated at 90 clock by Ray. Father Gendreau, many becals and children receiving Holy Communica. Mow touching were the words: O God he server with Thy Church,
