

DEPARTURE OF THE REV. JOHN WILLIAMS AND HIS FELLOW MISSIONARIES FOR THE POLYNESIAN ISLES.—Wednesday se'night the City of Canterbury steam vessel left London bridge wharf, with the Rev. John Williams and his fellow missionaries and their wives, and the Directors and friends of the London Missionary Society, to the number of 400 on board. The scene at starting was most interesting. London Bridge and all the wharf from which a sight of the vessel could be obtained, were crowded with spectators, who rent the air with acclamations when the vessel was put into motion. Mr. Williams stood with his hat in his hand, acknowledging the honors which were paid to himself and his fellow missionaries, until he was overpowered by his feelings. The weather was beautiful—in harmony with the occasion and the object. At twelve o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, with their missionary companions, were seated on the quarter-deck, and received the 'farewells' of all on board. The Camden was lying at anchor about four miles below Gravesend; the steamer was laid alongside her about two o'clock. Solemn prayer was then offered up by the Rev. Thomas Jackson, after which a hymn was sung. During the singing, the missionaries and their wives went on board the Camden. At this parting moment the scene was very affecting—all but the missionaries and their wives were in tears. They bore it with the greatest fortitude. The Camden was got underweigh with all her canvass spread, the City of Canterbury keeping company with her four or five miles; three times three cheers were then given from the Canterbury, and returned from the Camden, when the former tacked and quickly lost sight of the latter.—London paper.

ADVANTAGE OF PROMPTNESS.—A merchant whose policy expired at twelve o'clock, called at the Insurance office at half-past eleven, and obtained a renewal of it. At two o'clock the same day, his store and goods were reduced to ashes! What would have become of that man's fortune if he had thought it "would do as well after dinner."

ADVERTISEMENTS.

WHAT NEED OF IMPORTING BOOTS AND SHOES &c?

LONGARD AND HERBERT'S
HALIFAX BOOT AND SHOE MANUFACTORY !!!
THE Subscribers beg leave to acquaint their friends and the Public, that they have received their Stock of ENGLISH LEATHER, and a variety of other articles in their line, suitable to the summer season, consisting of—

Black and white Satin, black and a variety of fancy colored Prunellas to suit dresses, Morocco and kid and various colored Roana, black and buff doe skins, dog skins, &c., which they will make up and sell for Cash at their usual low prices. Their custom work will be found not inferior to any made in Halifax.

L. & H. cannot allow this opportunity to pass without expressing their gratitude for the exceeding liberal patronage they have received hitherto, which has been equal to their utmost expectations, and this circumstance affords them peculiar satisfaction, for thus they have been instrumental in retaining and putting in circulation many hundreds of pounds within the province, which would otherwise have been exported to Great Britain and elsewhere, never to visit our shores again. Every effort is being made, which the infancy of their establishment will admit, to produce work at prices corresponding to those of imported Boots and Shoes, and if sufficient patronage be continued, the Halifax Boot and Shoe Manufactory will be able to defy foreign competition.
