FATHER'S PET.

John Hodge was a hard-working man. He never was rich nor learned, but he was happy. He had no houses or gold to call his own, but he had a treasure that no money could buy. He called that treasure "Father's Pet." She was his little daughter, who loved him as he loved her. Every day she carried his dinner to him; every night she watched for him to come home. She sang to him, and read to him. She was gentle and obedient, and was as bright as sunshine in his house. One day, when some man grumbled because rich men could have some things poor men could not get, John Hodge said, "I thank God for things that are better than gold can buy; and that I can have as well as the squire."

"Why, what are they?" asked the other.
"Sunshine; and flowers blooming; and plenty of love at home; and such a gift as 'Father's Pet,'" said John Hodge.

NATURE HAS PROVIDED.—A remedy for every ache and pain, and science through ceaseless activity and experiment is constantly wrestling the secrets of her domain. A new and wonderful discovery has recently been made by means of which tens of thousands will be freed from pain. Nerviline, or nerve pain cure, represents in very concentrated form the most potent pain relieving substitutes known to medical science, and strange to say, it is composed of substances solely vegetable in origin. Polson's Nerviline is the most prompt, certain, and pleasant pain remedy in the world. Sold in 10 and 25 cent bottles by all dealers in medicines.

LOOK UP.

In crossing a rushing stream do not look down. Everything there is swirl and change and roar. Your head grows dizzy; your heart grows sick; your eyes burn and turn and grow dim. You fall. There is nothing stable to make your foot firm and bring you peace. Look up. If it is day the blue sky is quiet and sure. If it is night the serene stars smile quietly down upon you with their steady light. You are soon over safely on the other side.

In crossing Time's raging flood on the narrow footlog of the years, do not look to the past. Your feet will slip. Do not look down to the changing, fretting, boiling feelings, passions and desires in your own heart—you will grow dizzy and fall. There is no steady bank, no firm rock there to fix your eyes upon. Look up. The sky is blue and the stars are bright and shine with a steady glow. Look to Jesus. Our help is in Him. Take your weary eyes from off the changing waters and swirling floods. Lift them up to "the hills from whence cometh my help." Think less of self and more of Christ. All attempts to walk over safely to Eternity without Him who is "the Way, the Truth and the Life," will be in vain. We
