On a recent Sunday the Right Rev. Dr. Scadding dedicated a new altar cross and a processional cross in St. John's Mission, Sellwood, Portland,

The Rev. Dr. Robert Elliott, Methodist minister at Bernardsville, N.J., has resigned his charge, and has announced his intention of seeking Holy Orders in the Church.

To celebrate the completion of his sixtieth year in the choir of St. Andrew's Church, Great Yeldham, George Hardy has been presented with an armchair by the other members of the choir.

The death took place recently at Edinburgh after a severe surgical operation, of the Rev. Henry Montagu Villiers, Prebendary of St. Paul's Cathedral, and vicar of St. Paul's, Knightsbridge, London, aged 71.

In commemoration of his visit to Avonmouth in July last for the purpose of opening the Royal Edward Dock the King has presented to St. Andrew's Church, Avonmouth, a large lectern Bible, bound in red leather, bearing a suitable inscription.

Mr. S. Woods, of Leyland, in the Diocese of Manchester, who is only 27 years of age, has been appointed organist of Washington Cathedral, D.C. He has officiated as organist at Croston Parish Church in the Diocese of Manchester for the past seven

The Rev. P. C. Pyle, now curate of Grace Church, Newark, N.J., has been appointed with the approval of the Bishop of New York, rector of the parish of St. Edward the Martyr, New York City. Mr. Pyle will commence his new duties on All Saints' Day cannot harm one. The system craves

"Bishopstead," the fine old episcopal residence belonging to the Diocese of Deleware, is being renovated and fitted up for the incumbency of the new Bishop (Dr. Kinsman). It contains a handsomely approved chapel, a fac simile of the chapel at Lambeth Palace, in London.

Mrs. G. Shiras, of Washington, has expressed her intention of presenting St. Paul's Cathedral, Marquette, Mich., with an organ which is to cost $10,000, in memory of her father, the late Mr. Peter White. The instrument has been ordered and is to be intalled prior to Christmas Day.

Each of the four different Guilds of the parish of St. John's, Morristown, Pa., has decided to erect fitting memorials of the late rector, the Rev. H. S. Fisher, who died in St. Thomas Hospital, Lambeth, a short while ago, in the parish church or in the East side Mission of Holy Trinity which he founded.

The Rev. E. W. Watson, M.A., rector of Sutton, Sandy Beds, and Pro-inext meal take two or three of them fessor of Ecclesiastical History in King's College, London, has been appointed by the King Canon of Christ Church and Regius Professor of Ecclesiastical History in the University of Oxford. Mr. Watson is an Oxford man, St. John's College.

The Rev. Canon W. F. Cosgrave, B.D., who for some years past, has been the vicar of Christ Church, West Hartlepool, has offered himself for missionary work in India. He has placed his resignation in the hands of the Bishop of Durham, and has put himself at the disposal of the Bishop of Chota Nagpur, Bishop Foss Westcott, for work in that diocese.

By the will of the late Mr. J. J. Brome, a well-known citizen of Orange, N.J., and a warden of Grace Church in that town for many years, that church is left the sum of $10,000 as an endowment for its parish house, which the late Mr. Brome and his wife built as a memorial, soon after her death, to their only daughter, Alice. The House of the Good Shepherd is

British and Foreign BAD BREATH AND SOUR STOMACH

Stopped At Once With Pure Willow Charcoal, the Greatest Cas Absorber Known.

There is no necessity to suffer the humiliation, chagrin and discomfort of bad breath, biliousness, sour stomach, gastritis, sluggish liver, etc., when a little lozenge of charcoal will cleanse the stomach and make it pure and

Do not drug yourself when a simple little natural charcoal made from fragrant willow branches, sweetened with honey, will add tone to your stomach, liver and intestines, rapidly absorb gases and stop foul odours of all kinds.

Charcoal will absorb one hundred times its own volume in gas. A box full of charcoal placed in a bed room will keep the air of such a room pure and sweet.

A little charcoal lozenge dissolved on the tongue after meals will also keep the stomach fresh and clean. Charcoal is justly called the scrubbing brush for the stomach. monks of medieval times cured bad cases of stomach trouble, cast out devils from the system of man by feeding such a man charcoal.

Scientific men of to-day believe in the great strength of charcoal for the cure of human ills. Too much of it it just like an animal needs and craves salt every so often. Charcoal goes into the stomach gently and is welcome, it settles down through the action of the stomach, and filters through all the food, absorbing gas. aiding digestion and giving tone to the juices, so that when the food goes into the intestines, and there meets other digestive fluids, the charcoal holds the impurities and thus keeps them from the blood.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are pared fragrant by the use of honey and sweetened so they please the taste and are easily dissolved.

They have an enormous sale, thus stamping them with the approval of the public. Every druggist sells them, 25 cents per box. Go to your druggist to-day and buy a box; then after your and judge for yourself of their merit. Several taken at bed time will prove to you in the morning that they have been at work all night for your bad breath will not 'e so bad after all.

Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 200 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

also a beneficiary under the will to the extent of $5,000.

At the 376th monthly meeting of the Fairfield County Clerical Association which was held in St. Luke's Schoolhouse, Darien, Conn., recently, the opportunity was taken to mark the 53rd anniversary of the ordination of the rector, the Rev. Louis French, and the 45th anniversary of his appointment as the rector of the parish by the presentation at the luncheon of a gold cross, the gift of his brethren. A suit-

CENTRE TORONTO

Your vote and influence respectfully solicited for the election of

EDMUND BRISTOL

LIBERAL-CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE

The Bishop of Kilmore, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Elliott, was presented at the close of the recentlyheld Elphim Synod with a beautifully illuminated album, containing an address together with the names of the subscribers—74 in number—appended. The address was presented to the Bishop in celebration of his having attained the 50th year of his ordination to the ministry. The Dean of Elphim read the address in which the Bishop acknowledged in suitable terms.

His Grace the Lord Primate has appointed the Rev. Precentor F. G. Mc-Clintock, B.D., to the Deanery of Armagh, in succession to the late and another Precentor is added to the berland. Accompanied by his two list of Deans. Formerly the appointment was in the hands of the Crown, and the consequence was that till Dis establishment no Precentor became Dean. The new Dean was ordained in 1878, and has spent 30 years in the Primital diocese

Mr. John Needham has been clerk of the parish of Barwell, in the Diocese of Peterborough, since 1857. His uncle, Joseph Needham, was parish clerk for eight years before him, and previous to that time his father and grandfather were parish clerks for thirty-five and twenty-one years respectively, so that altogether the Needhams have held the office for 110 consecutive years. Mr. John Needham, who is ninety-five years of age, has attended 543 weddings, and in his capacity of parish gravedigger has buried 2,430 persons. The west front and tower of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, North ampton, are in great need of restoration. This beautiful church is one of the four remaining English round churches (which were all copies of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem built by the Emperor Constantine in A.D. 35), and was probably erected about the year 1100. It is usually ascribed to Simon de St. Liz, Earle of Northampton, an ardent Crusader, who went twice to the Holy. Land, and died on his way back from able inscription was engraven thereon. his second journey, A.D. 1115.

A memorial cross, 15 feet high, has just been erected in Tywardneath Churchyard, in Cornwall, in memory of the late Bishop and Mrs. Gott. It is taken from the ancient one at Leeds Parish Church, which was rescued in a broken condition by the late Bishop when Vicar of Leeds. The four sides are sculptured with symbolical devices amongst which are the four Evangelists, St. Matthew as an angel; St. Mark with the lion's claws; St. Luke with the horns of a bull; and St. John with the claws of an eagle. The whole cross is of brown

A remarkable journey in a boat has William Shaw-Hamilton. Thus one been made by the Rev. Sidney Swann, made from pure willow. They are pre- rector of Drumcar succeeds another, vicar of Crosby, Ravensworth, Cum-

> "The finest body of singers in the world."-Arthur Nikisch.

The greatest undertaking in the annals of Imperial music. Flying visit to Canada of the far-famed

SHEFFIELD CHOIR

200 Voices Conductor, Dr. Henry Coward

MASSEY HALL

November 5, 6 and 7 Four Grand Concerts

Thursday, Friday & Saturday Ev'gs Saturday Afternoon ASSISTED BY

TORONTO CONSERVATORY SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

55 Pieces

Conductor, Frank Welsman SUBSCRIPTION LIST NOW OPEN at the HALL and principal music stores.

Reserved seats $2.00, $1.50, $1.00.

Letters addressed to Manager Massey Music
Hall will receive prompt attention.

"It is a mitacle. I have never heard anything like it."—Sir Hubert Parry.