The Lord Bishop of London had a most enthusiastic send-off when he left London on the 4th January for Khartoum. In addition to his suffragans, the Prebendaries of St. Paul's Cathedral and the Rural Deans of the diocese, a large number of the other clergy and many laymen of the diocese gathered together at Victoria Station for the purpose of wishing him god-speed. As the Bishop stepped into the railway carriage which had been reserved for him, a friend present gave him a piece of white heather which his Lordship gaily fixed in the button-hole of his overcoat. As the train moved out of the station the Bishop was accorded three hearty cheers.
