

BAPTIST GIVINGS SHOW INCREASES

Annual Meeting of the Peterborough Association in Session Here

AN ERROR OF TODAY

Speaker Shows That Many Mistake Gospels as Only Biographies of Christ

At the opening of the annual meeting of the Peterborough Association last evening in Victoria Avenue Baptist Church...

The popularity of the bride and groom and the military atmosphere made the scene a memorable one...

The ceremony was performed by Major the Ven. Archdeacon Beamish assisted by the Rev. A. L. Gean...

The bride, who was given away by her mother, was very beautiful in a gown of ivory kitten's ear crepe...

The groomsmen were Major Ernest Gean, Major S. E. Vornilva, Capt. A. D. Harper, M.C. and Capt. Harry Alford...

The women's program opened yesterday afternoon with an address by Mrs. J. Young on Mission Band work...

The lady delegates were in conference this morning. The convention lasts until tomorrow morning.

PICKING GIRLS FROM LONDON FOR MANITOBA. WINNIPEG, June 8.—Working in co-operation with the provincial and federal departments of immigration...

The first party of women numbering 35 destined for Manitoba will sail in July. In instituting this branch of immigration service...

FASHION NOTES SAY. That Bernard and Jenny are showing broadcloth; it is used in black only, and makes a very good variation of the tailored model.

That dark kolinsky mole, flying squirrel, seal and gazelle are a novelty, are featured in an advance Dreocoll fall collection as trimming.

That on some of the new Dreocoll daytime dresses in black or navy serge, a check design is carried out in fine wool embroidery in bright colors...

That there is no doubt that crepes will continue for fall, and for those who want a change from this fabric, the crepe satins, the use of the two sides contrasted will continue.

That Paris reports beadings developed in new ways are particularly strong again, and there is no doubt that this type of decoration must continue; it is used in many girle novelties and in hand trimmings, as well as in band designs, and allover treatments, favoring very bright colors.

IT WAS WORSE THAN NAMES. From a Canadian nurse in a New York hospital comes an amusing story.

In a semi-private room, were three small girls, all about twelve—two with their legs in plaster casts, and the third, Rebecca, a pathetic wisp of humanity, who twisted and tossed with St. Vitus dances.

A recent visitor arrived to find the two plaster cast children giggling shrilly and Rebecca convulsed with sobs. After some persuasion and a bit of tenderness and sympathy...

"But, Rebecca dear," said the visitor gently, "teasing can't hurt you, really. Names, you know, never broke any bones."

"It ain't names," wailed Rebecca, as her little being twitched nervously. "They say"—and here she burst out anew—"They say I shimmy in the sheets."

Fire destroyed the house and contents belonging to Maurice Dourgan, of King's Wharf, near Lindsay.

Edwin Jones, Port Hope, while going to Cobourg with a party of C.P.R. builders, fell from the car and was seriously hurt.

Rev. W. J. H. Petter, pastor of Trinity Church, Warton, has been appointed to the parish of Wooming, near Sarnia.

MILITARY WEDDING TODAY BIG SOCIAL EVENT OF THE SEASON IN BELLEVILLE

St. Thomas Church has been the scene of many brilliant weddings but of none with more appeal than the khaki ceremony which took place this morning at eleven-thirty o'clock...

WEDDING INVITATIONS AND GIFTS. Yesterday I promised to discuss wedding invitations and gifts for my many Reader-friends who have written me about these things.

Invitations are issued not later than two weeks and not earlier than four weeks before the ceremony.

They should be engraved, and any first-class stationer will advise you as to the proper and fashionable size and style.

The invitations are enclosed in a first envelope which is to be left unsealed and addressed, by hand, with the name only of the guest to whom it is sent.

This envelope is then inserted in a larger one which is sealed and addressed by hand for mailing.

Announcement cards may be sent to those whom the young couple wish to tell of their marriage, but who could not be invited to the small wedding.

A reception in honor of Major and Mrs. Johnson was held there. The house was decorated with pink and white peonies.

Following the reception luncheon was served. The bride's table was centered with the wedding cake which during the luncheon was cut with a sword, according to custom.

The guests' table was centered with a lace centre piece which was surmounted by a glass plaque bearing a silver basket containing pink roses.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and valuable gifts, including many cheques from friends in the city and from all parts of the province.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, Boston, Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson and Miss Ellen Johnson, of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Cummings and the Misses Cummings, Trenton, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Gilbert, Windsor, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hallman, Toronto, Mr. Fred Jameson, Ottawa, Mr. Roy White, Napanee, Miss Nicholson, Kingston, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Holton, Kingston.

During the afternoon Mrs. Johnson left on a motor tour of the western part of the province. They will reside in Belleville.

The bride's going away dress was a costume of brown, tulle-trimmed with pink skirt, a large henna hat covered with blue veil, and brown shoes.

HAVE You Any Broken Jewellery? PIECES of jewellery broken and stored away in a desk or dressing table drawer or jewel cabinet are useless to you.

NOW that things of the sort are more expensive than when those broken were bought why not let us repair the broken ones so that you can put them to use again.

ANY an old broken pin or buckle or ring or bracelet could be repaired for a very low expense and make something that could not be duplicated today for a high price.

BRING us the contents of that box of broken jewelry and let us see what we can make out of it for you.

LONDON REDS CHASED BY "YARD" DETECTIVES Search of Building for Bolshevics Reveals Casket Containing Ashes of "Red Boss"

LONDON, May 20.—(By Mail)—Determined efforts are being made by the British Home Office to get at the bottom of Bolshevick propaganda in this country, according to the Daily Sketch, which says that reports have been received of dangerous activities of the Bolsheviki in London and Scotland.

Raiders have been carried out by Scotland Yard detectives on alleged Bolshevick meeting places and offices and it is reported that sensational discoveries have been made.

While searching one building the detectives found a small casket containing ashes which are declared to be those of Rosa Luxemburg ("Red Rosa"), the German socialist who was killed in 1919 about the same time as Karl Liebknecht, the Communist agitator.
