Last Tuesday evening; the annual Din-mer of the Guelph Fire Company came off in the British Hotel. A considerable number of the members were present— John Smith, Esq., Captain, in the Chair; Mr. Thomas Day, Lieutenant of the Hook and Ladder Section, Vice. The dinner was first-rate and the liquors we may suppose ditto; although the circumstance might not be much to friend Thorp's advantage, we must confess we were not a little gratified to perceive that a third of the firemen abstained from fire water; in fact a goodly number of the Company have become Sons of Temperance, and we dare promise that when unfortunately their services are required, the cold water men will not be found the least efficient in the discharge of the very onerous duties the Company are embodied gratuitiously to perform for the public safety.

The usual loyal toasts from the Chair were followed by " The Guelph Fire Company " by Mr. mense crowds was very great. She gives Pirie, and " The late Officers" by the Vice, which three more concerts in Boston this week was a knowledged by Mr. Tracy. Mr. R. Scott and in Providence on Monday next, and gave "The Honorary Members," acknowledged returns to New York on the 14th. About by Mr. Therp, who stated his having been the 5 or 600 persons from Montreal are to be first Capt. of the Company, and an office-bearer in Boston at her Concert,-amongst them for many years in succession. The Chairman, 6 of the Editors of the Montreal papers (?) prefacing the toast with remarks on the object that had lead the gentleman to this quarter of the Province, and the nature and value of the profession he occupied, gave "Mr. Murray, the Assistant Provincial Geologist." Mr. Murray returned thanks. The Chairman, in an address illustrative of the origin and of the benefits derived from the Art of Printing in the progress of civilization and the arts, gave "The Press of Guelph, and Mr. Pirie." Mr. Pirie acknowledged the compliment. Mr. Thorp gave "The Trade and Manufactures of Guelph." Mr. R. Scott returned thanks. The Chairman took occasion to make some remarks in reference to the conduct of the Washington Mutual I. surance Company, and the determinain good style, and the company having spent a very sociable evening broke up.

LAMENTABLE ACCIDENT .- An accident, likely we fear to be attended with the most serious resu't, happened to our esteemed townsman, T. R. Brock, Esq , on Thursday evening. MURDER. - Two brothers named Finegan were at a logging Bee in the neighborhood of Lindsay, and after their work Mr. Isnac Anderson, to Miss Margaret Hindly, was ended, the whiskey the party had all of Eramosa. partaken of began to produce its usual effects-quarrelling and blows. A very pencemble, harmless man, named O'Boyle, unfortunately interfered between the two Finegans and two Twoheys who were fighting, and was immediately fallen upon by the man he attemped to rescue, and badly beaten-O'Boyle presently made his escape and lay down in a distant corner, where Finegan again found him and beat him so severely with a beach stick Eggs, per doz., 5d. that he died the following evening. An inquest was held on the body before T. Bird, Esq., Coroner, and a respectable Jury, when a verdict of Wilful Murder was returned against Timothy Eigenstein The transfer of the state of th The two Finegans are lodged in the Gaol in this town. Unfortunately the mischief did not end here. A young man named M'Glin, while going to Lindsay for the Doctor, fell from his horse and had his leg broken, and another young man named FER, about 2 years old. The owner is Gavin Jackson of the murderers, was thrown from his animal away. horse with such violence that his life is despaired of .- Peterboro' Despatch.

Jenny Lind in Boston .- From the New York Spectator of Thursday, we see that Mr. Ossian E. Dodge, the vocalist, pur-chased the first ticket to Jenny Linds first concert in Boston, for $625 premium .-The first bid was $250. This is even a better dodge than the great hatter's. In what a ridiculous position some people will place themselves, in order to be taken notice of. When Genin bought the first ticket, there was a novelty, a sort of bold originality connected with the affair; but the second dodge is only a beggarly copy, and so far as it exceeds the other in a mount of money, so far it exceeds it also in snobbishness. The next sold to Mr. Sole, of the British Consulate, for $24.-The price then receded to $16, and down to $5,50 premium. The Telegraph of last night says that the Jenny Lind excitement in Boston knew no bounds. The musical demonstration, and the superlative display of fire-works, took place on Saturday night. When about twenty miles on this side of Rochester, and a mile and a half from shore, the engineer discovered smoke coming into his room, seeming to issue from an immense quantion of the policy holders here to resist payment tity of brooms and cotton bales, which of further assessments. Several songs were sung were piled up between decks. By the exertions of the men these were removed, but the fire was not there.
