RICE MUST HANG

Executive Decides not to Interfere in His Case.

Ottawa, Ont., June 25.—The appeal of Mr. T. C. Robinson to the Government, asking that executive clemency be extended to Fred. Lee Rice, awaiting execution at Toronto for the murder of Constable Boyd, was considered by the cabinet at a sitting this afternoon. The recommendation of the Government still awaits the signature of Sir Henry Strong, acting Governor-General, and no official announcement could be made, but it is understood the ministers decided not to interfere with the verdict of the jury confirmed by the Court of Appeal. Rice's last chance has now gone, and he will hang on the day appointed for execution.

DIED OF HER INJURIES.

Albany, N. Y., June 25.—Miss Alice Forrest, a young actress who was injured by falling through a trapdoor while playing at Harmanus Bleeker Hall, died in the Albany hospital yesterday. Miss Forrest was 19 years of age, and was a cousin of John Drew.

A DECIDED IMPROVEMENT MADE BY THE ROYAL PATIENT

Thirty-Six Hours Have Passed Since the Operation Without Complications—Immense but Orderly Crowds in the Streets of London.

London, June 25, 11 p. m.—The following bulletin was posted at Buckingham Palace at 10.52 p. m.:—

"The King continues to make satisfactory progress. (Signed) Treves, Laking, Barlow."

11.30 p. m.—The following amended bulletin was issued after 11 o'clock tonight:—

"The King continues to make satisfactory progress. He slept some hours during the day. He complains very little of discomfort and is more cheerful. The wound is doing well.
(Signed) Treves, Laking, Barlow." the bulletin is concentrated therein, the rest being purely corollary thereto.

ANXIOUS ENQUIRERS.

Throughout the morning the vicinity of the Palace was invaded by anxious seekers after information. A curiously cosmopolitan crowd gathered about the railings, awaiting the morning bulletin, and directly after it was posted there was a great scramble to read its contents. The Prince of Wales arrived just as the bulletin was being issued. Lord Lister, who came directly from the King's apartments after having assisted in drawing up the bulletin, left shortly afterwards, and the more cheerful expression apparent in his

LEADING MEN ASSEMBLE

Conservatives From all Over Ontario Meet and Strong Resolutions Passed.

Disgraceful Tampering With Ballots Condemned—Confidence in Whitney.

Toronto, June 25.—Three hundred Conservatives from all parts of Ontario met in convention at Victoria Hall to-day, and applauded to the echo their leaders and proclaimed the certainty of conquest. A more enthusiastic gathering could not be imagined. Mr. Whitney received an ovation, which left no doubt of the respect and affection in which his fellows hold him. The men who redeemed the old strongholds of the Liberals in the recent election were accorded applause that must have made their blood tingle. As one of the speakers said, the Conservatives assembled did not appear to be in any sense a defeated party. Mr. J. J. Foy, K. C., L. L. D., the president of the association, was in the chair.

The election of officers to the vac-cant positions on the executive took place.

Mr. R. Blain, M. P., Brampton, nominated Mr. Edmund Bristol for the post of third vice-president, rendered vacant by the defection of Mr. G. F.
Marter, M. P. P. Mr. Blain incidentally pointed out that the voters of North Toronto had already given their verdict on Mr. Marter's kind of independence. Mr. Bristol was forthwith elected.

Mr. A. Claude MacDonald was elected secretary, and Mr. E. E. Ryckman was chosen his successor in the office of treasurer.

Resolutions were adopted, pledging the support of the party to work in preserving the sanctity of the ballot and expressing renewed confidence in Mr. Whitney.

A resolution of sorrow at the death of the late Mr. Wardell was also carried. A large number of the gentlemen who redeemed constituencies in the recent election spoke and were accorded great ovations.

The association passed a resolution of sympathy with the King, on motion of Mr. Whitney and Dr. Reaume, M.
P. P., and sang "God Save the King."

DECIDED IMPROVEMENT.

London, June 25.—(Midnight)—King Edward's condition to-night is even more satisfactory than has been indicated by the last bulletins. He has made a decided improvement and the feeling at Buckingham Palace is very hopeful. His Majesty is able to take nourishment. He had scrambled eggs and a little hock and soda this evening, and with his own hands he opened several telegrams. The bulletin, issued at 11 o'clock to-night, is regarded as intensely satisfactory. This bulletin is generally taken as being the first occasion upon which the King's doctors have allowed themselves to express even to a small degree the hopeful feelings they undoubtedly, even though privately, entertained. Thirty-six hours have now elapsed since the operation was performed, and the absence of complications creates hopefulness in all quarters. "Though several days must pass before the possibility of danger can be eliminated."

EARLIER REPORTS.

London, June 25, 11.27 a. m.—Anxious suspense over the condition of King Edward is shared, as is evidenced by shoals of telegrams from abroad, by the whole civilized world, hardly will be much lessened by the bulletin issued by the attending physicians at 10.30 this morning, as follows:—

"His Majesty was very restless, and had no sleep during the early part of the night. He obtained some sleep, however, after 1 o'clock this morning, is free from pain, and no untoward symptoms presented themselves. Considering all circumstances, His Majesty may be said to be progressing satisfactorily." (Signed) Lister, Treves, Laking, Smith, Barlow.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN RATIFIED.

Private information from Buckingham Palace substantially bears out the official bulletin issued at 10.30 o'clock except that the King had rather a worse night than was indicated therein. His Majesty, however, is resting easier, and was sleeping at 10.30 o'clock this morning.

SAID ALL THEY COULD.

Earlier unofficial reports had been more favorable than the official medical pronouncement. They spoke of the King as having passed a good night, with peaceful rest, and the announcement of His Majesty's restlessness and lack of sleep are regarded by the general public as by no means reassuring, although court officials profess satisfaction. The absence of all mention of the patient's temperature causes comment, although, probably, the statement that up to the present "no untoward symptoms presented themselves" is intended to indicate that there has been no dangerous rise in temperature. In medical circles the opinion is expressed that, in the phrase just quoted, the surgeons are saying all they possibly can. In fact, the whole meaning of face was taken as an indication that he was satisfied with the condition of the patient. Callers continued to arrive in great numbers throughout the morning. Among the earliest distinguished persons were Lord Salisbury, who rode up on a tricycle; Archduke Francis of Austria and the Duke of Norfolk. The Duke of Cambridge, who arrived later, had previously presented a set of colors to the Middlesex Regiment, addressing which he said the King's illness was a very grave blow and a very trying one. But, he added, he was very glad to be able to speak hopefully of the progress made by His Majesty, because he had received favorable news from those in attendance upon the King.

A SOCIETY EVENT

Marriage of one of the Maple City's Most Popular
Young Ladies.

The Rutley-Braunstein nuptials was the fashionable event in Maple City society circles this season. The home of the bride's parents, Selkirk street, was the scene of the ceremony and the house within was daintily decorated in pink and white. Nature furnished the decorations, and the rooms were buried in a wealth of foliage and flowers. The front parlor was banked along the walls with ferns and palms.

At six o'clock the bride descended the stairs and advanced to the place of the ceremony down an aisle made through the guests by white ribbons held by the ushers. The east corner of the drawing room was banked with ferns and green foliage, which furnished a soft and subdued background for the bright dresses of the ladies of the bridal party. The Rev.
Mr. James performed the ceremony which united in marriage Miss Louise Rutley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T.
J. Rutley, Chatham, and William Frederick Braunstein, Cincinnati.
Mrs. Thomas Alexander Hazen was matron of honor and the groom was supported by his brother, Joseph Braunstein.

After the wedding service, the guests, who numbered about sixty, sat down to an excellent repast.

The bridal table was a work of beauty and was the admiration of all the guests. The centre piece was a

BALLOTS MISSING

The Prince Edward Election Ballots Have not yet Reached Toronto.

Toronto, June 25.—The ballots in the Prince Edward election are missing.
They were mailed to Toronto, on June 18th for use at Osgoode Hall, in connection with the appeal from the recount, but so far as the officials can discover, they have never been received here. G. O. Alcorn came up from Pictou to-day to trace them up. It is supposed that the case is one of misdirection, and that the package will be found in one of the offices of the parliament buildings or Osgoode Hall.

CANADIAN KNIGHTS

Two Members of the Cabinet and Others Receive Coronation Honors.

New Order of Merit Created by His Majesty—Also a New Order of Civil Servants.

London, June 25.—To-night's issue of the official gazette contains the coronation honors. The list is published by the special desire of the King, as originally arranged.

Among the titles conferred is a baronetcy on Sir Thomas Lipton.

Dr. A. Conan Doyle, the novelist; Gilbert Parker, the novelist; Francis C. Barnard, the editor of Punch, and Leslie Stephen, president of the Ethical Society, are made knights.

Sir Robert Bond, the premier of Newfoundland, is made a Privy Councillor.

Sir Frederick Treves, surgeon-surgeon to the King, and Sir George Henry Lewis, the well-known lawyer, besides Sir Thomas Lipton, are created baronets.

The Order of Knight of the Garter is bestowed on the Duke of Wellington and the Duke of Sutherland.

The Duke of Roxburgh and the Earl of Haddington are made Knights of the Thistle.

The Earl of Enniskillen and Baron De Ross become Knights of St. Patrick.
