Free Fishing on Lakes.

Writing from Detroit, Mich., a correspondent says: "It is a singular fact that while the State and Federal Governments each spend tens of thousands of dollars annually planting fish in the Greet Lakes, commercial fishemmen, whether residents or non-residents of the state, pay not a single dellar in taxes or other fees for the privilege of taking fish. If an Amercan tag goes over the border and is caught taking fish in Canadian waters it is liable to be fired on by the Canadian revenue cutter, and nets confiscated. Canadian commercial fishermen, on the other hand, are free to fish anywhere in American waters of the lakes during the open season. To meet these conditions, Senator Ring has introduced in the State Legislature a bill to exact a tax of $200 on every non-resident fishing tag with a steam lift, and $100 for non-resident tags without a lift. Resident tags with a steam iiit are to pay $25, and $50 if they have no lifts. The bill, if passed, will hit hard the Booth Co. fish trust on the Great Lakes, both in Canada and Michigan."

The class Wanted to Bet.

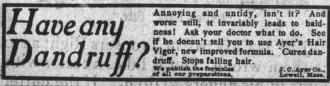

The class Gaming Suppression Act, which prohibits the making of wagers on a racecourse between bookmakers and women, was responsible for some comical incidents at Flemington Racecourse recently, when the law had to be observed for the first time on a registered course. Many women, who are in the habit of frequenting the betting-ring, and know more as a rule about the proper price of a horse than of the desings of the Government, attempted to make wagers as usual, and were indignant when the bookmakers declined to do basin ness. One feminine backer, who had evidently made up her mind that she had a certainty in her possession, insisted upon being laid odds, and threw the money into the bookmakers when money into the bookmakers beging at the same time demanding a ticket while another, who had been told that he law did not permit betting with women on racecourses, sent her son to put the money on, but was again disappointed, as the son was obviously under the age of twenty-one, and according to the law, could not make a bet.

DEATH OF G. F. MARTER.

Former Conservative Leader Succumbs After Long Illness.

Toronto, May 10.—George F. Marter, ex.M. P. P., at one time leader of the Conservative Opposition in the Ontario Legislature, and well known as a temperance leader in the province, died early vesterday morning at his home, 12 Elm Grove avenue Mr. Marter had been confined to his bed for some time with diabetes and his death was not unexpected.

All the members of his family were present at his bedside.

The late Mr. Marter was a member of the Methodist Church, and a pub-lic service will be held for him.

The funeral will take place on Mon-day next.

GEORGE F. MARTER, ex-M. P. P.

GEORGE F. MARTER, ex.M. P. P.
The late George Frederick Marter was born in 1840 and was educated in the Brantford Grammar School and early in life engaged in business as a merchant, and took an active part in municipal affairs, holding a seat in the Council of Waterford, and for some years the position of clerk for the Township of Wyndham.

He afterwards removed to Muskoka, which he represented as reeve until his ability sent him to the Ontario Legislature in 1868.

Elected Censervative Leader

Elected Conservative Leader.

Here in the Ontario House he found a chance to expand, and on the elevation of Sir William R. Meredith to the bench in 1894, he was unanimously chosen to succeed him as leader of the Conservative Opposition. He had previously removed to Toronto and had been returned for North Toronto at the general election of 1894, defeating his opponent, Joseph Tait, by a majority of 805.

Although qualified to successfully fill the position of leader of the Ontario Conservative party, and possessing the confidence of all, Mr. Marter did not find the office particularly congenial, as he was not one to condemn measures because they emanated from the Treasury benches of the Liberals or to approve of others because fathered by his own party.

Post Was Irkseme.

His broad-minded views and his high standard of principle allowed him to dispassionately view the faults as well as the virtues of both sides of the House, and his sense of fair play and desire for real legislation in the interests of all the people were not to him reconcilable with his office, so he resigned from the post on April 2, 1896.

For several years past Mr. Marter was president of the Canadian branch of the London and Lancashire Insurance Co., which position he occupied at his death.

He was prominent in the Masonic order and was a member of the Foresters.

Mr. Marter has always been known Elected Conservative Leader.

Staunch on Temperance.

Staunch on Temperance.

Mr. Marter has always been known as a staunch temperance man, and one who did not leave his temperance principles behind him when he entered Parliament.

Indeed, the first attempt to secure provincial prohibition through the Ontario Legislature was when Mr. Marter, then in opposition, introduced what was known as "The Marter Bill." This was an act which provided for abolition of the bar-room throughout the province.

Strike Situation Grows Acute. San Antonio, May 11.-A special to from Orizaba,

The Express from Orizaba, Max., says:

The strike situation here has grown more acute. The number of strikers has been augmented, and now reaches nearly 12,000, and the tendency to violence is more marked.

The federal forces and those of the rurals have also been increased. All hope of immediate arbitration has been abandoned, and much apprehension is felt.

Smallpox Outbreak. London, May 11.—The report of a smallpox outbreak in Anderton Township is confirmed.

It is said there are upwards of sixty cases. Assistance from the provincial board of health has been requested.

It is thought the contagion spread from Sandwich West, where there was an outbreak recently.

New Jailer at Napanee,
Napanee, May II.—Archibald W.
Downey has been appointed jailer at Napanee, vice A. Z. Laven.
The appointment was made by Sheriff Hawley of Lennox and Addington, formerly representative of the constitency, who has the patronage of the county in his hands. It must, however, be approved by the Government.

Hulbert School Destroyed. Cornwall, May 11.—The public school building at Hulbert, north of Brinstone's Corner, Dundas County, has been destroyed by fire. The roof caught from a spark from the chimney during school hours. The teacher, Charles Strader, with several neighbors, saved all the contents.

Killed While Fixing Lamp.
Utica, N. Y., May 11.—Fred Garrison, 30 years of age manager of the municipal electric light plant at Tupper Lake, in the Adirondacks, was instantly killed while fixing a street lamp. The ground was very wet and Garrison touched a bare wire in the lamp.

The Rev. B. J. Campbell's book entitled. "The New Theology," is probably already in the hands of many Canadian readers. Even those who have not yet read it are by now familiar with the outline of the position which he has taken up, which has been foreshadowed by him for some two or three months past in another series of sermons. It is practically a condensation and revision of these recent sermons put together during a winter holiday in Cornwall.

20,000 Copies In Ten Days.

Even the long-expected life of Mr Gladstone, by a biographer so eminent as Mr. Morley cannot compare with it in the extent with which it was greeted at length in the daily press. The first two editions were sold out before publication, and the third and fourth have been bought out and sold within a week. Messny. Chapman & Hall are reticent about the actual figures, but it is probable that not less than 20,000 copies have now been disposed of within ten

THE CITY TEMPLE.

He Had to De In Canada.

Sir Alexander Mackenzie, principal of the Royal Academy of Music, was asked to tell the readers of The London Tatler what was the busiest day he ever put in. He replied: "Well, I think that day was one on which I began at 9.50 a. m. with an orchestral rehearsal of two hours and a half in London, Ont. We then proceeded by special train to Woodstock; there, after speaking at a public luncheon of which I had not time to partake, I hurriedly rehearsed the local choir in sight of the incoming audience; then conducted an afternoon concert and returned to London in time for the evening concert. The day ended with another banquet given by the mayor. All this did not prevent me from being at my post at early rehearsal in Toronto on the following morning. I do not think I could have possibly got through such a fatiguing day's work in this country, but the Canadian chimate is wonderfully bracing and invigorating. At all events, I found it to be so."

Sir Alexander further said: "In two or three of the smaller Canadian towns I conducted the first orchestral concerts ever given, and as these entertainments took place in thestra. I had to direct in the house between the third and fourth rows of stalls, surrounded by the audience. Encores were always numerous enough, but on one occasion the enthusiasm was accompelling that I was obliged to play with the exception of a short choral work—every item in the program twice over. Truly, the good-will of the listeners helped my staying powers amazingly."

days. There can also be little doubt that it is one of those books which will continue to find recurring strata of fresh readers and run ultimately into very big figures.

"It is New Religion."

It is only the London press which has treated it cavalierly and some of the more august among the religious press. The Guardian and the Methodiat Recorder took but scant notice of it. The Record called it a disappointing book. The Church Times says there are few pages in it which they can recommend. The Morning Post says that it is impossible to take Mr. Campbell's book seriously. The Standard is contemptaous, the Daily Mail and Daily Chronicle non-committal, and the Daily Telegraph concludes a rather supercilious notice by saying that the "New Theology," in fact, is not a re-statement of the Christian religion. "It is a new religion, just as much as Mrs. Eddy's Christian Science. Madame Blavatsky's Theosophy and Dr. Dowe's Zionism. Mr. Campbell has written an exceedingly interesting book, which many will find stimulating and suggestive reading, but he has not demolished the Old Theology."

Press Divided.

It was taken much more seriously

Do You Open Your Mouth
Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you?
Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-adays insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine.
Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, to access and on each bottlewrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies synder-eath. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weak-Press Divided.

It was taken much more seriously by the provincial press. The more advanced religious press also recognize, although they do not all approve, the immense influence which this movement will acquire before long. The Christian Commonwealth, which prints Mr. Campbell's sermons weekly and may almost be considered his organ in the press, is enthusiastic in its welcome. The Christian World sacrifices to it every other topic, and, though not in sympathy with his Press Divided in its welcome. The Christian World sacrifices to it every other topic, and, though not in sympathy with his views, recognizes both the force of his appeal to the growing neglect of religion and his sincerity.

Of course he is anathema to the orthodox of every sect. The opinions of scores of ministers have been collected in a kind of daily census undertaken by The London Telegraph. These will have nothing to do with a man who denies the fall, and explains away the atonement, who asserts that evil is not positive, but privative, who weakens the authority of Scripture and almost abolishes free will and sin.

ror the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, ofttimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy.
It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular.
It is also a soothing and invigorating nervine and cures nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic discases of the distinctly feminine organs.
A host of medical suthorities of all the

to be a cure. You may read what they of St. Denis and Beaudry streets. He was conversing by signs with a deaf

At Least One Friend.

He has had very little enthusiastic support from his own profession. The well-known Dr. Horton is most fervently his friend, and says very truly that whether theologians take his book seriously or not the churches and ministers will have to reckon with it, for it will be widely read and its criticisms and challenges will be in many pews. The Rev. F. B. Meyer, who is a severe but not unkindly critic, expresses the opinion that the book must precipitate a final and irreparable breach between Mr. Campbell and the evangelical party. They cannot admit his views as mere restatements of the Gospel. He concludes that humanity will retain the plainer interpretation of the Gospel in preference to any philosophical speculations.

English For Japan. One of the suggestions for the improvement of the Japanese language mentioned by Baron Kikuchi in a lecture at University College, was that it should be abolished altogether, and the English language adopted, with all its irregularities cut out.
