WOLFVILLE, N. S., JAN. 18, 1893.

Local and Provincial.

Risk open to-night. Band and Electric Light.Dealers all over the country are sorely disappointed, because they cannot get the Star Almanac, the demand for which is phenomenal.Rev. Alex. King is expected to preach in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath afternoon. He will preach at Lower Horton in the morning.It is expected that a special train will be run from Kentville this evening, to accommodate persons from our sister town who wish to spend an evening at the Wolfville rink.The annual meeting of the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers' Association is to be held in Witter's Hall, Wolfville, on Thursday and Friday, Jan. 26th and 27th.
On Friday evening a conversation will be held in College Hall, when an extensive programme will be given.A society was formed in Wolfville on Monday evening to be called the "Tenny-son Society," for the purpose of studying the works of English authors.
Prof. Keirstead, we learn, is the president, and the society now numbers 25 members. It will hold fortnightly meetings.
We wish it success.A change has taken place in the running of the W. & A. R. freight trains.
Hereafter, during the winter, there will be only a tri-weekly service between Kentville and Annapolis, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, returning every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. The daily service between Halifax and Kentville will be continued.Application will be made to the Local Legislature of Nova Scotia at its next session for incorporation of a company to be called the Annapolis and Granville Bridge and Harbor Improvement Company (Ltd.). Hon. T. R. Jones, of St.
John, is one of the promoters. One of the objects is to build a bridge between Annapolis and Granville Ferry.A full line of Ganong's celebrated Con-fessionary, at Trenholm's, Grand Pre.Mr. D. R. Munro, of this place, accomplished the best feat in duck shooting one day this week that has yet been heard of—in shooting nine wild-ducks at one shot. Anyone who is acquainted with the difficulties attending duck shooting at this season will appreciate the skill required to accomplish the above result. Mr. Munro is an accomplished sportsman and his shooting will be found hard to beat.We would direct the attention of our readers to the announcement in another column of a musical entertainment to be given in College Hall next Friday evening under the direction of Mr. Burpee Witter. Mr. Witter has been engaged in musical work in Wolfville for the past eighteen or twenty years during which he has rendered much valuable assistance to the various churches and societies of the town. The concert is to be given by a number of his friends as a benefit, and we feel sure our citizens generally will be glad of an opportunity of showing their appreciation of his services by a liberal patronage. The talent which makes up the programme is too well known to require any comment.The annual meeting of the Wolfville Fire and Protection Co. was held in their room last Friday evening. Notwithstanding the very inclement weather there was a good attendance of firemen present. The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:—President—J. W. Caldwell.
Vice-President—B. O. Davison.
Secretary—Wm. Regan.
Treasurer—Geo. W. Munro.HONORARY COMPANY.
Captain—Geo. W. Munro.

Heber Haslam in College Hall this evening promises to be very interesting, and will no doubt be largely attended.Rev. H. D. Bentley has been in Wolfville for a week or two. He occupied the Baptist pulpit last Sunday evening and spoke to the young on the subject of missions.Dr. DeWitt's office hours are from 8.30 to 9.30 A. M., and from 1.30 to 3.30 P.

The W. & A. R. 1893 Calendar.

An altogether admirable and pretty wall calendar has just been issued by the Windsor & Annapolis railway, whose method of marking time is ever a record of bettering the good deeds already accomplished by them. The calendar bears twelve tear-off leaves, one for each month chronicling days and dates. Above this attesting the perennial youth of the lovely "Land of Evangeline" is a delicious picture of a dainty maiden seated in a garden of flowers studying with contented looks what is evidently a volume of much interest. On the cover of the book can be read the title "Land of Evangeline." Above this and harmoniously worked into the decorative lettering is a charming vignette of Grand Pre village. Manager Campbell is to be congratulated on the success of this pleasant remembrance, which will certainly be preserved as a useful treasure all the year round.Try Condensed Tea, at Trenholm's, Grand Pre.

Berwick Notes.

Fred Masters, formerly of Berwick, arrived from Boston Saturday, on a visit to his relatives.Mrs. Chas. Jefferson, of North Sydney, has been visiting her father, Mr. C. Not-wood, the past week.Misses Ess, Hattie and Flora Morse, of Nictau, were the guests of their aunt, Mrs. E. O. Reid, a few days last week.
Berwick is in the midst of a round of festivities. Parties, two concerts, a lecture by Hon. J. W. Longley, and last but not least, the Thorndyke supper are in the programme for this week.Byron Robinson, youngest son of Benj.
Robinson of Morrisstown, died suddenly last Monday at the residence of his brother Mr. L. D. Robinson, with whom he had been visiting. The cause of death was paralysis of the brain.Miss Beattie Alcorn, teacher of painting at Seckville Ladies' College, Miss Ina Chipman, student at Wellesey College, also Miss Lizzie Somerville, Miss Georgia Borden and Mr. J. H. Parker, all of whom spent the holiday season in Berwick, left on Saturday to resume their respective duties.A very enjoyable occasion was the parlor concert, given on Monday evening by Mrs. A. S. Tuttle, in aid of the W. M.
A. S. instrumental music, recitations, etc.
Two readings by Miss Whiston of Halifax were particularly well received.
Singing, with an autoharp accompaniment, by Captain Tuttle and Lieutenant Gormly of the Salvation Army contributed much to the pleasure of the audience.—Monitor.

Wolfville, Jan. 4th, 1893.

Cambridge Notes.

Holidays are now over. It is with pleasure that we look back over the festive season that has just past, with its Christmas dinners, parties, etc., fresh on our memories. Nearly a dozen teachers returned home from their labors in different sections to spend their holidays in this village.The friends of Joseph G. Webster spent a very pleasant evening at his home on Thursday, 5th inst.We are pleased to note that the Cambridge House at the corner has received a new coat of paint.The residence of John H. Webster has also had its appearance improved by a coat of paint.The new house built by Freeman Rachford for Cathbert Harrison is now completed, and Mr. Harrison expects soon to move into his new residence.Omer Woodman is again filling his mill yard with a large quantity of logs.
Mr. Woodman is the largest lumber shipper in Cambridge.Capt. Wm. Bullerwell is spending Xmas at home.Capt. Graves and wife spent Xmas at A. A. Webster's.Mrs. Jessie E. Cox is in Canning for a short time.The Local Union of Christian Endeavers held their quarterly meeting in Cambridge on the 28th ult. J. Howe Cox, President, was in the Chair. The meeting was not only successful but interesting and profitable. There was a very large attendance in the evening. The C. E. Society here is in a thriving condition and doing good work.Rev. E. O. Reid is supplying the Baptist church here, in the absence of a pastor, with good satisfaction.Mr. Norman A. Whitmore is attending Horton Academy this year. He has the ministry in view.Mr. David Condon is again seriously ill. Dropsy is the trouble.J. Howe Cox sold a valuable "Allright" rifle, dam by "Rampart." C. L. Dodge, Kensville, was the purchaser. It was the finest shot around. It may be heard from again. Mr. Cox has a fine matched pair of "Rampart" mares.Our good sleighing vanished like a specter but some of our industrious farmers seized the opportunity and got out a good wood pile.

Weston Notes.

Messrs. Barteaux and Blenkhorn, blacksmiths, have withdrawn from the Union.Our post-office, established the first of last Dec., sold 100 per cent. more postage stamps, etc., during the month than the P. O. Department anticipated. The business of the office is increasing and a daily mail is needed.Miss Sterling, of the Hillfoot Orphanage, who went home to Scotland last February, has lately been visiting Paris.
Her return is expected during the coming spring. In her absence Miss Smith, of Maitland, Hants Co., has charge of the institution and manages its affairs very efficiently.W. C. Hiley, Esq., has recently purchased ten acres of the Caribou bog swamp, which he intends converting into grass-land. Evidently his faith in the future of our country is not growing less.Rev. M. B. Shaw, writing home from India under date of Dec 3d, says: "The rice crop is being gathered and is abundant."Mr. H. Hinton Bosch, student at H. C.
A., on his return to school, stopped off for a day here with friends. He expressed himself highly pleased with the institutions and surroundings at Wolfville.
