TRIESTE, April 2.—The Italian settlement of the Adriatic question, Government has notified Gabriele Anzani, an envoy from Premier Nitti has announced that it will have to accept the plan sent to Fiume, where he made President Wilson's project for the decision known to D'Annunzio.

New York's Tie Up

NEW YORK, April 2.—A general strike order, effective immediately on all railroad boats except ferries, was issued by the marine workers' affiliation this afternoon. The workers on the ferry boats of the railroad companies were ordered to quit work at eight o'clock tonight. The Union announced that five thousand men would obey the order, and that the strike would tie up forty per cent. of the total harbor traffic.

Hungary's Treaty

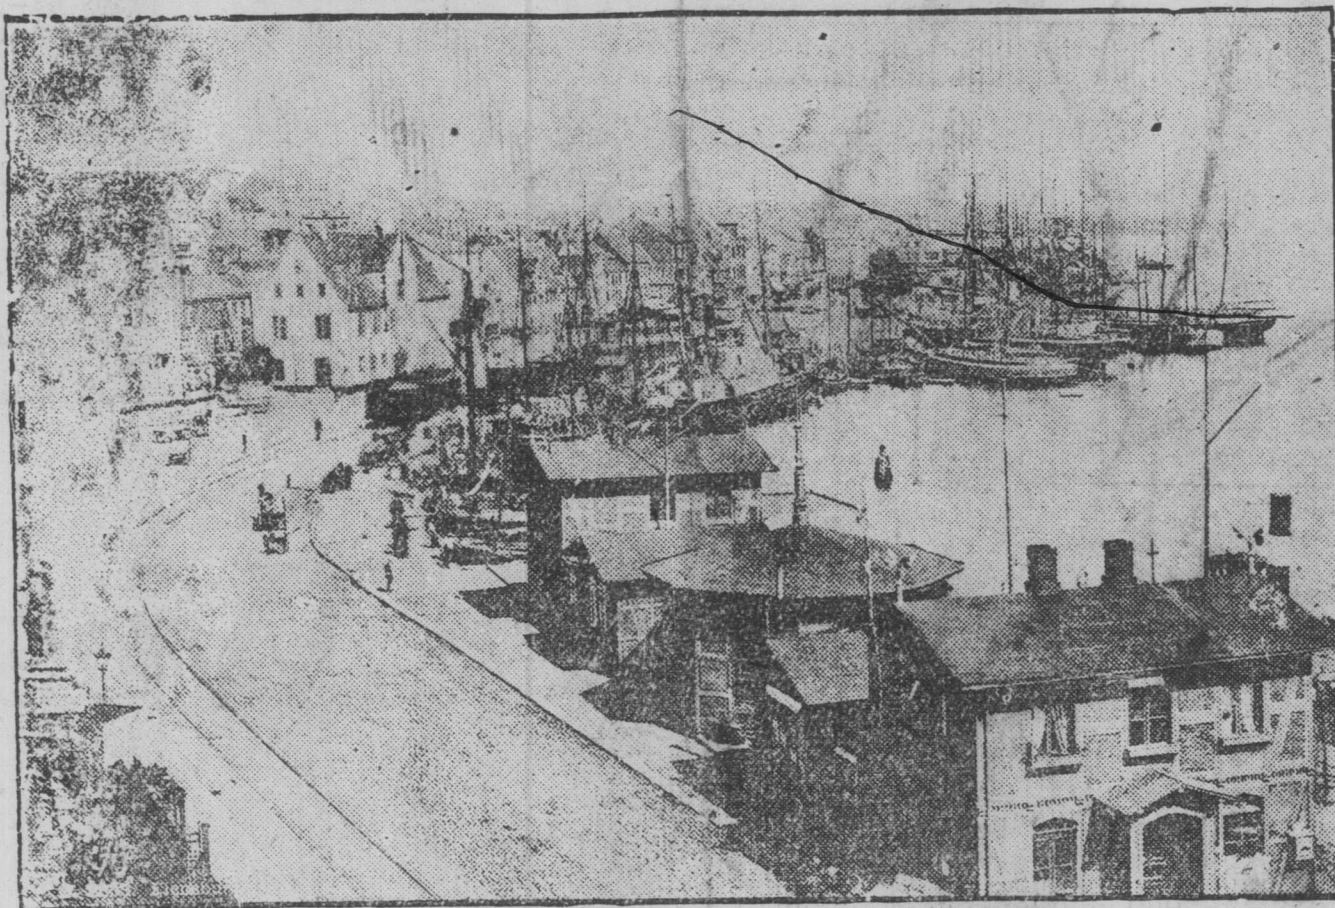

PARIS, April 1.—The Council of Ambassadors has virtually completed its examination of the objections filed by the Hungarian plenipotentiaries to the proposed treaty of peace with Hungary, and the general terms of the Allied reply have been decided upon in a subject I never stop until I have the Ambassadorial body. The reply will probably be handed to the Hungarian delegation at an early date.

Foch Has No Authority Over American Troops

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Troops on the Rhine are subject only to the orders of the President of the United States as commander in chief of the army, President Wilson wrote Congress today in response to a resolution of inquiry adopted by the House. Field Marshal Foch has no authority over American troops, the President said. Major General Allen, commanding the forces, has full authority to utilize his troops for policing of the occupied district, the preservation of order, and to repel any attack which may be made upon him.

"Yes," said the young student, thoughtfully, "when I get interested in a subject I never stop until I have embraced it thoroughly."
"That's nice!" was her hesitating reply. "Do-do you think I'm an interesting subject?"

DOCKS AND WATER FRONT AT FLENSBURG, GERMANY

Fleensburg, in Schleswig-Holstein, which is now controlled under the Inter-Allied Commission, has a wonderful situation for commerce, and a great deal of shipping is done there. The view shows a great many vessels at the docks. As you will notice, the majority of them are large schooners.

CABLES IN BRIEF

Fire destroyed four warehouses in Columbus, Ohio, Thursday, causing loss estimated at half a million dollars.

By defeating Seattle 6 to 1, Ottawa won the Stanley Cup and the world's professional hockey championship on Thursday night.

An agreement was reached at Muenster on Wednesday night for settling the troubles in the Ruhr district, according to the editor of the Moderate Labor newspaper in Düsseldorf.

The threatened Danish strike has been postponed till Tuesday next, to give influential persons who are known to be working for a compromise, time to effect a settlement.

The Republican leaders' resolution declaring a state of war between the United States and Germany at an end was reported today by the House Foreign Affairs Committee by a strict party vote of twelve to six. It will come up in the House on Monday.

After having been adrift in a sea-plane for sixteen hours without food or water, Major Parker, of the British Army, and Miss Blanche Fraser, arrived at Baltimore on the steamship Hilton, by which they were picked up on Sunday last about 15 miles southeast of Jupiter, on the Florida coast.

A wireless despatch from Moscow says a dramatic message of distress has been received there from the Arctic icefields. The message asks help for eighty men, women and children perishing of cold and hunger aboard the steamer Solov, which became icebound in the river at Ochigina in January and finally drifted into Kara.

"In the good old days ladies dressed for dinner, now they undress for it," declared Rev. Bernard Vaughan, the widely known Jesuit Father in a sermon assailing the prevailing fashions in women's gowns, "Women, 'dile.' The great reptile, basking in their made craze for what are known as 'emotional gowns,' sin against every canon of good taste," he said. "Such dresses are unhealthy, immodest and as ugly as they are expensive."

Georges Clemenceau, former Prime Minister of France, tells of bagging a crocodile in the Upper Nile as one of the proudest achievements of his four

TO NORTH POLE IN THE SUMMER

MONTREAL, April 1.—A London cable to The Montreal Star says, after being held up for two years by ice, Capt. Roald Amundsen's expedition, long wrapped in the silence of the north, expects to push on to the Pole during the coming summer. A message from Amundsen has been received in Christiania today stating that he was wintering at Aoin Island, Siberia, and telling of plans for the summer.

The Prince's Triumph

PANAMA, April 1.—Great crowds lined the streets and enthusiastically cheered the Prince of Wales as he went to the executive mansion to pay a formal call on President Lefevre yesterday. So large were the throngs that surged through the thoroughfares that the progress of the Royal visitor's car was often impeded. Upon arrival at the President's home the Prince was forced to go to the balcony from which he bowed his acknowledgments to the crowd. Later the Prince inspected the Pacific defences of the Canal and reviewed discharged British West Indian soldiers.

JAPAN FIGHTS SOVIET FORCES

HONOLULU, April 1. (By the A.P.)—Seven hundred Japanese troops and civilians were killed in a two-day battle with Russian Bolshevik forces at Nikola-Evsk, Siberia, according to a Tokyo cable despatch received by the Japanese newspaper Nippon Jiji here.

A widow with certainly one eye at least to the main chance, has been discovered at Newcastle-on-Tyne. She rented a house for $150 a year and sub-let it for $520. An ejectment order has been issued against her.

score years. "They call me the tiger in France. I believe this is the first time that a tiger has killed a crocodile inside its mouth, killing it. The great reptile, basking in the warm sunshine, opened its enormous mouth when Clemenceau approached. The bullet struck the crocodile inside its mouth, killing it. 'I have always held,' said Clemenceau, dryly, 'that reptiles as well as human beings should keep their mouths shut.'"

No Third Term For Wilson

ATLANTA, Ga., April 1.—The name of President Wilson, which had been entered by petition in the Georgia presidential primary, has been withdrawn by the action of a number of signers of the petition. The time limit for entries expired to-day, and official announcements of the candidates who had been certified revealed that President Wilson was not among them. Attorney General Palmer, Thomas Watson, former candidate for President on the Populist ticket, and Senator Hoke Smith, were the only candidates whose names will appear on the ballots.

The Renown's Propellor

PANAMA, April 2.—The Prince of Wales sailed to-day for Sandigo, California, after his visit to the Canal zone. It developed that the Renown suffered damage to her starboard propeller in the Chibola cut on Tuesday. The British cruiser Calcutta, which accompanied the Renown here, has returned to Barbados.

Japanese Forces

HONOLULU, April 1.—General Baron Yuehara, chief of the military general staff, announced today that Japanese forces would be retained in Siberia for the protection of life and property of Japanese subjects, as well as for national defence.
