WHOLE NO. 672

To Victory Bond Holders

Victory Bonds have never sold so high as at the present time. Many who hold Victory Bonds would improve their in-vestment position by taking advantage of these high prices and reinvesting in non-taxable Provincial Government and Municipal Bonds. Victory Bonds are subject to local taxation.

These bonds are quoted:

192351	4100.60	192453	4100.90
19275		193353
193453	4103.00	193751	2108.30

Enquiries will receive prompt attention. Better write at once as these prices are very high and may go off any day.

Contest Which Closed Yesterday Showed Miss Hildred DeLong the Safe Winner -- Other Girls Highly Pleased With Cash Awards

The big "MISS CARLETON" Contest conducted by The Observer during the past four weeks came to a close at sharp I o'clock yesterday. The winner of the first prize, a trip to the chief Canadian cities and Ningara, went to Miss Hildred Delong of Centreville who assured 214,658 points. Miss Ferne McGoldrick of Hartland came second with 997,537 points. Miss Fred Gray, who began work in the contest a week after the others had started secured third place with 479,290 atts.

The work of checking the lists began at I o'clock and announcement was made of the winner at 11.20 last evening. There were present the three contestants, Col. Kennedy, representing Miss DeLong; W. Montgoney, representing Miss McGoldricks E. W. Laskey as crutineer and referee, and the president and secretary-treasurer of The Observer Newspapers, Ltd. At 6 p. m. the session adjouraged and were mean of The Observer Ltd. at Hotel Carleton for supper. In all, ten hours and twenty minutes was consumed in checking over the lists, notwithstanding the hard fought nature of the contest wherein each of the three were doing her utmost to secure advantage her opponents. The most cordial good nature reigned throughout the session vesterday afternoon and evening. When President Stevens amounced Miss DeLong the winner of the first prize the other two contestants showed the good stuff they were made of when they immediately began vigorous applicates of congratulations. Mr. Stevens apoke briefly of the work that all had done and of various advantages and hundicaps that existed. Taken all together, the efforts of the girls were very nearly equal, but the prizes were awarded in accordance with the figures which are shown above.

Miss DeLong proved herself a modest winner and Miss McGold-

Miss DeLong proved herself a modest winner and Miss McGold-rick and Miss. Gray distinguished themselves by the grace with which they lost.

No definite announcement of secondary prizes had been given, but at the close of his remarks Mr. Stevens presented Miss McGoldrick with a $100 bill and Mrs. Gray with $75.

The contest lasted over a period of four weeks and two days. At the commencement the circulation of the paper was 2050 each week. As the result of new subscriptions gained in the four weeks the circulation of The Observer has been boosted to more than 2750 which is the largest circulation ever obtained by any newspaper north of Fredericon. Valuable features of this circulation is its concentration in the district embraced between Woodstock and Grand Falls. In this territory no other publication has so large a circulation, and The Observer is very sure that its circulation in the territory mentioned is content than the combined circulation of its three competitors.

I wish to express my entire satisfaction in the manner in which the "MISS CARLETON" Contest was carried out... Of course as winner, I could not have any complaint. I was present with the other contestants during the time of checking the list and know that all was fair. Mr. Laskey as referee was in my judgment altogether fair.
