The Montreal Witness

this year offers to its subscribers, on remarkably favorable terms, its premium picture by Davidson Knowles, entitled "Suffer the little Children to Come unto Me." It has published in its columns from time to time recommendations of the great value of this picture from such gentlemen as the Governor-General of the Dominion, the Lieut-Governors of most of the Provinces, Sir Donald A. Smith (who spent $40,000 on one picture alone), the clergyman of all denominations, everincluding high Roman Catholic dignitaries, and others. Our readers should read the advertisement headed "42 Years," on another page.

The Schools.

The public schools will reopen next Monday, the 9th January.

Miss Mowat, who had charge of the school in the upper end of the district, resigned to accept a better position near her home. The trustees were much pleased with Miss Mowat's work and were sorry to part with her. Miss Kerr will take charge of the school on the re-opening.

Miss Sarah Morrell will resume her work in the upper town school, after a six months' leave of absence. Miss Adams, who has proved a very efficient substitute during Miss Morrell's absence, will take charge of grades 3 and 4 in the Harkins' Seminary (lately taught by Miss McLeod) until 1st July.

A Great Pacer.

Aurora, the great San Francisco pacer, has finished a very successful season, winning all the races in which he was entered. He is four years old and has a record of 2:14. Of course the Columbus colt, owned by Mr. C. S. Ramsay, which did such admirable work on the ice last week, has no such record as the great Western horse, but then Miss Columbus is only three years old and has never been trained.

Illustrated London News.

The American edition of this illustrated journal is issued about one week later than the same number is issued in London. The Christmas number is a choice production, being a double number, with fifteen full page illustrations, besides four beautiful colored pictures from attractive paintings. Single copies of the Christmas number fifty cents, usual copies ten cents, or four dollars per year. For sale by all newsdealers.

Officers Farewell.

Captain Warr and the Lieut. of the Newcastle detachment of the Salvation Army farewelled on Sunday night. The captain has done good work while she was here and has strengthened the organization. It the line of army work she was the ablest of any of the officers yet stationed at Newcastle. She was a forcible speaker and a good general.

In Kent.

John Miller, aged 102 years, was buried at St. Andrews' Presbyterian churchyard, Richibucto, on Thursday last.

Robert N. Doherty's saw mill at St. Nicholas River was burned on Thursday night.

Journalistic.

The Fredericton Reporter has reached its forty-third year and its eye is not dimmed nor its natural strength abated.

The St. Croix Courier gave its subscribers a large calendar with its holiday number.

Dog Tax.

Taxes on 63 dogs were collected in Newcastle last year. This is not the total number of dogs in the town. The collector found a good many more, but the difficulty was to find their owners. The collector should make his rounds on moonlight nights. He would then be better able to locate the dogs and also their owners.

Harper's Magazine.

From the New England News Company, of Boston, Mass., we have received the January number of this magazine. We gave its list of contents in last week's issue of the ADVOCATE.

Getting Better.

Brakesmen Charles Reid, of the I. C. R., son of Mr. Wm. Reid, of Newcastle, who was injured a fortnight ago while jumping from a car to a gondola at Canaan tank, is much improved and will soon be able to resume his duties on the I. C. R.

Married.

At the residence of the bride's father, on the 28th ult., by the Rev. G. W. Fisher, JOHN VINCENT VAUTIER, to IDA, third daughter of A. McKenrick, Esq., of Campbellton.

Died.

At Riviere Du Loup, Pro. Quebec, on December 21st, of inflammation, IDA M. ROBINSON, youngest daughter of the late John Robinson of Maple Green, aged 22 years.

She is at rest—(how sweet the words;
What comfort they contain.)
We miss her, but we would not ask
To call her back again.

She has a brighter home than earth,
Where dwell the angels fair;
And she will watch beside the gate
Until we enter there.

CAMPBELLTON NOTES.

CAMPBELLTON, Dec. 27.—The ladies of the Presbyterian church held a Jubilee Xmas tree in the Masonic Hall on Thursday evening last, at which they realized over $150.00.

The lovers of driving have been taking advantage of the splendid condition of our streets and country roads.

The weather has been very cold of late, the thermometer going as low as 25 below.

We notice that Mr. Ed. Levegue, watch maker, jeweller, etc., has removed from his old stand to the Montreal Hotel.

Mr. J. P. Mowat, of the firm of J. P. Mowat & Co., is at present in Boston, where he is acting as agent for a British Columbia salmon freezing company. Besides this he is also finding large sales for his own fish. Mr. John Mowat is in Western Ontario and Manitoba acting in the same capacity.

Mr. S. H. Lingley was in town on Friday, but left for St. John on Saturday morning. Stan is always a welcome visitor to our northern town.

Large numbers of teams arrive here daily from Carleton, Maria, etc., loaded with beef, mutton, fish, etc., for which they find a ready sale, notwithstanding we have three butchers in town.

Messrs. A. McKendrick & Son have secured the services of Miss M. J. LeBlanche as clerk, as a large part of our population speak the French language. She will be a great acquisition to Mr. McK's trade, etc.

Mr. W. E. Williams has removed his stock of pictures, framing, etc., down to Mr. McKenzie's store, where he is prepared to frame pictures with frames of any style and guarantees the best of work.

A few of the stores kept yesterday as a holiday, but the majority of them were open all day.—Gleaner.

A GREAT SURGICAL OPERATION.

The Prince Edward Island papers publish particulars of a wonderful surgical operation performed at Elkedale in that province by Dr. McVale. An exchange says: "The patient, a young man, was suddenly seized last May with severe pains in the stomach. The complaint did not seem like neuralgia, and certainly it was not inflammation. The patient also experienced creeping, crawling sensations in the stomach. Alternating with the pains, there were violent convulsions. Altogether the case was a most violent one. It was pitiful to behold the terrible sufferings of the patient. The doctor at first did not understand it, but after carefully considering the symptoms, he said, "There is a living animal in that man's stomach and I will take it out." Accordingly on the first of July, amidst the most intense excitement, he proceeded to operate. He had diagnosed the animal to be located at present in the right or pyloric extremity of the stomach.

An incision was made across the epigrastium. The stomach being contracted was overlapped by liver. Accordingly the latter first presented itself. Anticipating trouble in securing the animal, the operator designed to provide for free manipulation. Accordingly the liver was drawn up and carefully stitched to the under surface of the abdominal wall. Then the stomach was drawn up to the edge of the incision, and neatly stitched there. After a few days, to allow the stomach to form a connection in its new locality, he opened the organ. Then a most remarkable sight was presented. A snake fully 12 inches long, lay coiled up in the suspected locality. Having observed light through the stomach wall it was ready for action. As soon as the opening in the stomach was made, it sprang at the hand of the operator. Missing its aim, it changed its tactics. The attempt was made to escape by dashing through the pyloric orifice, but in this it was foiled, for the gallant operator seized it by the tail and drew it back. Having eluded the grasp of the forceps, an attempt was made to escape into the œsophagus. Its passage there was not interrupted. Finally it emerged through the mouth, and the patient was thus relieved of his torment. The patient remained weak for a long time, but finally he completely recovered.

NEWS FROM EVERYWHERE.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—During an address at the Anti-poverty Society tonight, Dr. McGlynn read the following telegram received from London:—"Cardinal Manning in a speech to-day said: 'Every man has the right to life and food necessary to sustain life. So strict is this right that it prevails over all rights of property. Necessity knows no law—a starving man may steal his neighbor's bread.'"

OTTAWA, Dec. 18.—Mr. Diggles, a New York capitalist who is here in connection with the Calgary and Peace River Railway charter, has originated one of the most extensive schemes ever contemplated for reducing the passage between America and Europe to a minimum. His plan is a railway from Quebec to the most easterly point of Labrador, where safe harbors abound. He says the voyage could be made to England in three and one half days.

A good story has just leaked out concerning the pastor of a church not a hundred miles away from West Warren, Mass., and a neighbor who is not in the habit of attending church regularly. The neighbor had stated as a reason for not going to church the next Sunday that he had a lot of wood to saw. The clergyman offered to saw the wood himself before Sunday if the man would agree to attend church. A bargain was struck, the wood was sawed, and the minister caught his bird.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 31.—A despatch from Titusville, Pa., says an accident took place this morning on the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio railway, about three miles west of Meadville, Pa., between the limited express from Chicago and Cincinnati to New York and the west bound freight. Both engineers and one passenger were killed. The cars are all piled up, and it is impossible to tell how many were injured. The pullman sleepers did not leave the track, and the passengers in them were not injured.—Luckily the cars did not take fire.

Mr. Thos. Mowat, inspector of fisheries, shipped 800,000 sockeye salmon eggs to Nanaimo on Tuesday morning on the steamer Dunsmuir. The eggs will be deposited in the Nanaimo river, which, it is hoped, will be stocked with salmon in a few years. Mr. Mowat is also about to ship 600,000 spring (quinnat) salmon eggs to New Brunswick, where they will be deposited in the best salmon streams. This will be the first shipment of salmon eggs to New Brunswick. As the ova require much care every day, it is probable a man will be sent along to look after them so that the success of the experiment will not be marred by want of proper attention.—Victoria Colonist.

42 YEARS.

Steadfastly for forty-two years the WEEKLY WITNESS has held to principles which have stood the tests of time, ridicule, and of opposition, fair and unfair, and the WITNESS to-day speaks to sixty where in 1846 it spoke to one. Its growth has been both rapid and steady. Its publishers, desiring of still further increasing its circulation, have this year gone to large expense to secure a reproduction of THE LATEST MASTERPIECE of Davidson Knowles, (who was selected by Queen Victoria to paint the scene at Princess Beatrice's wedding), entitled Suffer the little Children to come unto Me.

It depicts the memorable scene with startling realism, reproducing in oils all the richness of ORIENTAL COLORING. The picture, executed by the greatest art firm in England, would bring $1.50 if sold, but is reserved EXCLUSIVELY FOR SUBSCRIBERS to the WITNESS.

The price of the WEEKLY WITNESS and picture is $1.25; the paper alone $1.00.

In 1860 the DAILY WITNESS was launched, and, like the WEEKLY, to advocate the same principles regardless of cost. The picture "Suffer Little Children to Come Unto Me," and the DAILY WITNESS, $3.25 a year; the paper alone, $3.00.

The NORTHERN MESSENGER still continues to be the favorite in the home circle and Sabbath School, and commencing with January 1st with new type, finer paper and other improvements, will be more attractive than ever. Prizes of books are given to friends who canvass for it. Annual subscriptions, 30c, with reductions for clubs.

Sample copies of the different publications mailed on application. Agents wanted in every town and village.
