

Notice to Nurses

All graduate nurses, married or single, in the Province of New Brunswick, are requested to forward their names to Miss A. A. Burns, 72 St. James Street, St. John N. B.; that they may be communicated with regarding Volunteer Service in their own community, or in any part of the Province, in case of epidemic or emergency.

Every nurse should comply with this request, as the New Brunswick Graduate Nurses Association is co-operating with Hon. W. F. Roberts, Minister of Public Health, regarding organized nursing efforts, should there occur an emergency as the Halifax Disaster, or the outbreak of an epidemic such as the influenza of last year.

Newcastle Entertains Her Heroes

Ladies of the Red Cross Society deserve the highest praise and thanks for the magnificent dinner provided for the boys, and their untiring efforts in making them all feel at home.

The decorations on the streets and buildings were many and beautiful and some very artistic effects were quite noticeable. The store windows presented a very attractive appearance and numerous favorable comments were heard from the spectators. The windows of The Stohart Mercantile Co. Ltd., James Stables and E. J. Morris are deserving of special mention, and the proprietors of these stores are to be congratulated on their fine appearance. The Chatham and Newcastle Bands both supplied excellent music and rendered some very pretty selections. Both of these institutions are a credit to the Miramichi and their music was highly appreciated by the public.

At 2.30 a series of sports, participated in mostly by the juveniles was held in the Farrel Field and provided much amusement for both the spectators and contestants. The results were:

Foot Race—Bert Smallwood 1st; H. Treadwell 2nd.

Wheelbarrow Race—Nick Savoy and Mark Hachey 1st; Wallace Watling and Alex Watling 2nd.

Four-Legged Race—Harry Delano, 1st; Bert Smallwood 2nd.

Two xds dash—Wallace Watling 1st; Jack Nicholson 2nd.

Obstacle Race—Hubert Black 1st; H. Treadwell 2nd.

Boat Race—H. Walsh 1st; E. Hachey, 2nd.

The final event was a tug-of-war between ex-members of the infantry and former artillery men, the latter team winning. Cash prizes were awarded the 1st and 2nd winners.

At 3.30 p. m. a Base-Ball game was played between a team of Newcastle Veterans, and a picked team from Chatham, in which the Chatham team won.

A race was held on the river between a boat from each of the steamships in port. The course was from the Morrissey Bridge around a buoy opposite the public wharf and return to the bridge for the finish. The steamers with boats entered were the North Britain, Molesey, Hurliness, Kapana, Watuka and Madan Enterprise. The Kapana's boat was first, with the Molesey second and Watuka third. The prizes were $25.00 $15.00 and $10.00 respectively.

In the Public Square, the Town Booth under the direction of Mr. G. G. Stohart took care of the refreshments and these in charge had an exceedingly busy day. The Deli Booth, Chocolate Booth, and Ring Booth, provided amusement for young and old and these places were continually being besieged by the public at large who thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

A small rain shower occurred about 4.30 p. m. but its duration was short and had no effect whatever in dampening the spirit or enthusiasm of the crowd. In the evening the Welcome Arch was electrically illuminated and presented a very beautiful appearance.

The Public Square was also electrically illuminated and the grounds were packed with enthusiastic patrons of the entertainment and refreshment booth. At 8 o'clock the Newcastle Band occupied the Band Stand and delighted the audience with a program of choice music. Speeches were delivered from the Band Stand by His Worship Mayor D. P. Doyle, Hon. John Morrissey, Ald. Chas. E. Fish and Ex-Mayor Chas. J. Morrissey, each one of the speakers thanking the returned soldiers for their services overseas, and in conclusion asking them to now put their shoulders to the task of re-establishment which was now the great need of our citizens. Capt. A. L. Barry, on behalf of the Returned Soldiers, in a neat little speech, thanked the citizens of the town for the Reception tendered them and assured the citizens that it was greatly appreciated by the returned men.

While the speeches were being delivered from the Band Stand, the display of fireworks was exhibited from the roof of the Stohart Mercantile Building, and at this juncture the only and a most regrettable incident occurred. In some manner, one of the sky rockets which was set off took downward course instead of an upward one, and shot rapidly into the Band Stand, striking Police Magistrate J. R. Lawlor full in the face. Mr. Lawlor was completely taken unaware and was rendered unconscious. He was immediately taken to Dr. F. C. McGrath's office, where it was discovered that several teeth were knocked out and his jaw-bone fractured. Mr. Lawlor who took one of the most prominent arts in this celebration, as well as all previous celebrations held in town, offered a great deal of pain, and his absence from the closing hours of the reception were greatly missed by the co-workers and by the general public. Mr. Lawlor has the sympathy of all in his most unfortunate accident, and we sincerely trust that he will soon be quite well again, and will suffer no bad effects from his injury.

A heavy shower of rain which began about 8 o'clock p. m. and lasting until about 8.45 p. m. somewhat marred the evening performances for a short time, but the large gathering still remained and enjoyed themselves through it all. After the regrettable accident which occurred to Mr. Lawlor, the fireworks were removed from the Stohart Mercantile Co's roof to the Park Wharf. where the balance of the display was exhibited and much enjoyed by the assemblage. By this time it was 11 o'clock p. m. and the citizens began to disperse to their homes, all thoroughly convinced that the Town of Newcastle had certainly given her Returned Soldiers a grand and glorious reception, and a "Red Letter Day" in the history of the Miramichi. The Reception, while being a grand success in the way of entertainment, was also a success financially, and the committees in charge are to be highly congratulated for the manner in which the affair was conducted.

Baby Bear is Afraid of People

The smooth, hard, dustless road round about, through the sylvan depths of giant ferns and mighty timbers in a district round Spirit Lake, Vancouver Island, far away a smoke smudge on the blue above the heaving ocean showed where a Canadian Pacific passenger liner was ploughing the heaving Pacific, bound for the Orient. On the right Spirit Lake gleamed in the bright sun. There was a gentle rustling in the darkness of the undergrowth, the ferns swayed gently. Then there came a sound of scratching and clawing, and finally the head of a three-months' cub rose alongside a great Douglas fir bole. As he cleared the ferns he paused and glanced eagerly about. He sought sight of his mother, who was so wrapped up in some luscious salmon berries that she had forgotten him. Higher and higher he climbed, widening his scope of view. Then came a terrible sound that paralyzed him where he clung to the ragged bark. It was the raucous challenge of a motor horn. Hugging the tree tightly he hoped to be overlooked. On the smooth road a few yards away there rolled into sight a terrible engine carrying ladies and gentlemen. He held his breath and hoped more strongly. But sharp eyes were peering every way from under the auto, canopy and a stream of pleased excitement showed that feminine eyes had spied him. He hunched himself closer and bent his head on his shoulder to watch the awful creature in the big iron machine that always had such a bad breath. A man crashed through the ferns and pointed a black box at him. The cub darted high in the branches of the towering fir tree. The bad-breathing iron animal then grunted several times and crawled swiftly away, and down from him all over in solicitude while the dizzy heights the baby bear hastened his painful backward climb. Arriving at the base he found an anxious mother who had exist and bears can live in comfort. —L. V. K.
