Pains in the Back

Are symptoms of a weak, torpid or stagnant condition of the kidneys or liver, and are a warning that it is extremely hazardous to neglect, so important a healthy action of these organs.

They are commonly attended by loss of energy, lack of courage, and sometimes by gloomy foreboding and despondency.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures kidney and liver troubles, relieves the back, and builds up the whole system.

them and ere long this restlessness manifested itself more strongly by the crowding of at least a hundred persons about the little green baize door through which His Holiness was expected to enter the salon.

We now find ourselves with all of an hour to wait, the audience being set for mid-day; but, in spite of our impatience, we were not sorry, for the constantly arriving stream of visitors, made up of all sorts and conditions of men, women and children, was most entertaining to watch.

At the outset it seemed simple enough, for with characteristic enterprise the Americans were the first contingent to arrive, every man among them wearing the conventional swallow-tail coat, trousers sharply creased down the front, lacy collars, white shirts, and immaculate lawn ties.

There were others who wore frock-coats and brown trousers, while one gentleman, evidently from some fashionable resort along the Rhine, had arrayed himself in a dark business suit; but he had been shaved and wore a white tie and seemed to feel that he had complied with the "rigid requirements," for in his behavior he took no pains whatever to conceal the fact that he was present.

The women, on the other hand, came more closely into the line of type, the only difference in their appearance lying in their manner of wearing their black, the texture and cut of their gowns, and the size and quality of their mantillas.

For an hour we waited thus, studying one another and our surroundings with an over-increasing interest. Some of those present, I regret to say, seemed to have come to this function very much for the same reason that the average tourist goes to a picture gallery, and from their demeanor no one would have guessed that His Holiness was anything more than a curious bit of sculpture that was about to be placed on exhibition for a brief period; but there were others who, by their devout behavior and reverent attitude toward the passing hour, more than compensated for the shortcomings of the frivolously inclined.

As the hour of twelve approached, a spirit of unrest came upon the gathering. Those who were seated found themselves shut in by several lines of others standing in front of

HAD LAME BACK

Was Almost Unable To Move: Two Boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills Cured Her.

Mrs. M. B. Cairns, Upham, N.B., writes: "I feel it my duty to drop you a few lines to let you know what Doan's Kidney Pills did for me. I had such a Lame Back that I was almost unable to move, and my kidneys were in an awful condition."

"After taking two boxes of Doan's Pills I was completely cured and feel as well as I ever did."

Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all Kidney Troubles. They begin by expelling all the poisonous matter from the kidneys, and then heal the delicate membranes and make their action regular and natural.

Doan's Kidney Pills are entirely vegetable, and may be safely taken by young and old.

Price 50c per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Sprained Arm. Mary Ovington, Jasper, Ont., writes:—"My mother had a badly sprained arm. Nothing we used did her any good. Then father got Hagyard's Yellow Oil and it cured mother's arm in a few days."

"How do you distinguish the waiters from the guests in this cafe? Both wear full dress." Yes, but the waiters keep sober.

Digby N. S. MINARD'S LINIMENT CO., LTD. GENTLEMAN, —Last August my horse was badly cut in eleven places by a barbed wire fence.

There are thirty-two pages of text matter, full of information and new material, carefully prepared after a recent trip over the route. The publication is profusely illustrated with Grand Trunk plates made from direct photographs, and include pictures of the new boats, scenes in Seattle, Victoria, Vancouver and Prince Rupert.

At first glance everything appeared the embodiment of age and of physical weakness, and it must be confessed that the impression was disappointing; but as he came nearer, and one was able to look more closely into his saddened eyes, one discerned in them not so much of weakness as of loveliness of character, strength of soul, toned by a strange pathos that brought with it the conviction that the people of his beloved city of Venice, among whom as Giuseppe Sarto he had once dwelt, and loved him for reasons that were good.

I pressed his hand with a sincere and earnest feeling of reverence for his office and of respect for the man, and was surprised to find, as a little jump manifested itself in my throat and a suspicious moisture dimmed my eyes for the moment, that I had awakened rather into an intensity of sympathy for the prisoner of the Vatican than of awe and reverence for the successor of the Apostle. There was, indeed, no lack of the latter quality, but the former was from the heart, and I am glad to feel that that is truly the American of it.

In spite of the splendor of his surroundings and the loftiness of his station, one could not escape the conviction that the office carries with it not only responsibilities which are onerous and exacting, but involves as well such sacrifices of life and liberty as would stagger most men, even those rigorously trained for a life of sacrifice as the Church trains its priests. I have sometimes thought it would be pleasant to be the King of Bland or the Emperor of Germany or the President of the United States, but I look upon Pius X. with no feelings of envy in my heart.

I am told that His Holiness was accompanied by a suite of his noble officers, but I did not remark them. The one commanding figure of the group was the man we had come to see, and it is his face that is the most
