

G. T. Pacific Agreement Endorsed By The People

Council Authorized To Purchase Right-of-Way Through The City

The ratemakers yesterday authorized by a large majority the bylaw to raise $75,000 with which to purchase the Grand Trunk Pacific right of way

The vote was as follows: For 448 Against 258 Majority for 198

A majority only was required to carry. The passage of the bylaw enables the Council to fulfil the terms of their agreement with the company, and by endorsing it the ratemakers have made certain where and in what direction the road shall approach and traverse the city and where the terminal facilities shall be located.

Fernie Strike

Strikers Determined To Hold Out But Management Is Hopeful

Nelson, B. C. Oct. 5.—There is no hope of a settlement of the Fernie strike. The miners last night at a meeting determined not to go back until all the men had joined the union. Hundreds of men are leaving the camp expecting a long struggle. On the other hand the management, according to a circular issued, expect that the strike will be over inside of three weeks. The smelter has enough coke for only three or four weeks. The other smelters are equally short and the situation will presently be acute.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER

Montreal, Oct. 5.—The coroner this morning closed the inquest upon the body of the Italian who was murdered in Graham street twelve days ago without obtaining the slightest clue as to who the victim was or who committed the deed. The whole affair is most mysterious and the difficulties of the investigation have been greatly increased by the fear of the Italians when giving evidence.

AUTUMN TRADE

New York, Oct. 5.—R. G. Dunn's Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say: Autumn trade is now in full swing. Special activity being reported in dry goods, millinery and footwear. Many factoring plants are engaged for in the metal departments making the most striking exhibits and the activity of the transportation is shown by heavy earnings in September which were 92 per cent. larger than last year figures.

BADLY MIXED

Alberta: Though Canada may be well advertised in the old land, yet by the look of the following report taken from London Morning Leader, there is something for the newspapers to learn about our geography.

Alberta, B. C. Peace River district, due south of Klondyke, in the extreme north west of British Columbia, and other descriptions given are very interesting.

The article is dated Montreal "from our own correspondent". It reads as follows: A Dominion government survey party which has just returned to Edmonton, in the Alberta district, brings the story of gold being discovered in the Peace river country.

Surprising samples have been brought back, which by the crudest kind of assay gives values of from 7 dollars to 33 dollars per ton.

No experienced miner will accept this as anywhere near the real value of the gold-bearing rock which has been discovered.

This new gold field is thirty miles below Fort St. John and is seventeen miles from Alberta, British Columbia.

The line of gold-bearing rock is a stretch of between 200 and 500 feet projecting from a bank overhanging the river. It is located in Big Iron-shoe Bend.

The Peace River district is due south of Klondyke, and is situated in the extreme northwest of British Columbia, at the foot of the Rocky Mountains. The Peace River is formed by the junction of the Findlay river and the Panamint river which flows through a rocky canyon half a mile long, and subsequently enters the province of Athabasca in the Northwest Territories of Canada.

For some years prospectors have had gold fields in the province of British Columbia being situated on the north bank of the Peace River, where it was moved from the opposite side a few years ago.

For some time prospectors have been at work in the district around St. John, but hitherto without much success, although in the Caribou and other districts of British Columbia, extensive gold fields have been worked.

The prospectors reached St. John from Edmonton in the Northwest Territories, which is the terminus of the branch from the Canadian Pacific Railway (that is from the east) than from British Columbia since there are rapid, heavy portages, dense forests, and extraordinary swarms of black flies and mosquitoes.

If this new gold field proves to be genuine, there will be a great rush from Edmonton to the district where the Rev. Dr. Barr's "All-British" colony of British immigrants was planted a few years ago.

G. T. P. EARNINGS INCREASED

London, Oct. 5.—The half yearly report of the Grand Trunk Pacific has been issued, and a dividend of four per cent recommended. There was an increase in the net revenue.

Beef Commission

Four Western Provinces Choose The Members For Board of Inquiry

The Beef Inquiry Commission which was announced some time ago by the Minister of Agriculture, has been under consideration by the governments of the four western provinces and arrangements are almost completed.

The members of the commission are: J. W. Logan, Victoria, commissioner of British Columbia; W. Scallion, Virden, Manitoba, commissioner for Manitoba; D. W. Quirk, Maple Creek, commissioner for Saskatchewan; Alex. Middleton, Coleridge, commissioner for Alberta.

Mr. Logan will be appointed as secretary to the commission, with a stenographer.

Each commissioner will be appointed by each of the four governments to give them all the same and plenary power in dealing with the matter from the date of the appointment. It is not yet known when or where the commission will meet.

ROYAL BANK COMING

Regina Standard: The Royal Bank of Canada will not open its branch in Regina at the present time, although branches will be opened at Moose Jaw, Calgary and Edmonton forthwith.

The announcement of W. A. Crosby, general manager of that financial institution, and her singing of last evening. At the same time Mr. Crosby stated that the bank would keep its eye on the future of the city and as soon as suitable premises could be secured, the branch would be thrown open.

The only consideration which prevents the Royal Bank from opening its office forthwith was that of a site. Mr. Crosby says he found it impossible to secure a building to rent, and to purchase lots at the present prices being asked was out of the question.

In both Edmonton and Calgary he had been able to select sites for the bank, but in Regina he had to be satisfied with a building which he had to secure under a lease for a term.

Mr. Crosby thinks that prices of business real property in Regina are a little over the mark, and that he said, he was assured that the place would have a great future, but at the same time he thought it would be convenient to him to have a building in which to place the bank, and in Regina the tendency seemed to be exactly the opposite.

WHOLE GRAIN vs. MEAL

The following extract issued from a Bulletin by the Dominion Department of Agriculture discusses an important matter: It says:

Referring again to the first table given above, note that in experiments 3 and 4, in which the pigs were kept young at the commencement of the experiment, grinding resulted in a saving of a little over ten per cent, while in experiments seven and eight, in which the pigs weighed over 100 lbs. at the commencement of the experiment, the grain saved by grinding was scarcely five per cent. In experiments five and six, in which the grain was soaked in brine cases the saving effected by grinding was about four per cent.

It will be noticed that in experiments one and two, in which the ration contained no oats, grinding affected a saving of only two per cent. Prof. Grading observes that "Whenever whole oats are fed, a considerable quantity is undigested, due, probably to their thick fibrous hulls."

Prof. Henry of the Wisconsin station in his report for 1932 uses a series of experiments to determine the relative value of whole grain and meal. In three of twelve experiments, the results were slightly in favor of whole grain; but in the other nine the advantage in favor of grinding was very marked, varying from three to seventeen per cent.

JUT CROP SHORT

Interest in the final forecast of the year's jute crop just issued by the British Government extended beyond the dry goods trade, to Ontario flour millers and others. The usage of jute has increased very materially in the last five years. Not only have the burlaps become a necessity, but many upholstery fabrics are now made of jute and there are hundreds of new uses to which the fibre would be put if the price of the raw material were lower.

The final forecast shows only 6,000,000 bales. Opinions vary considerably as to whether the crop of 8,000,000 bales will be large enough to meet the world's needs. The common hope was that a crop of at least 9,000,000 bales would be cut this year, and when the early forecasts showed a shortage prices went up very rapidly.

At the present price of many jute products compared with the state of the coarse cotton goods market, it is quite possible that there may be many substitutions of cottons for jute products and that may simplify the difficulties some factors in the jute market now fear.

CUBANS DISARMED

Santa Clara, Cuba, Oct. 3.—The first day's work of the disarmament commission sent into this province has proved satisfactory. The members of the commission have seized the rebel forces under Machado, numbered 2,500 men, encamped near Santa Clara City and at Picoata. The actual work of disarmament will begin today. The revolutionists are anxious to return to their homes. The commission will visit Cienfuegos district tomorrow.

RUSHING TYPE DULUTH ROAD

Fort Frances, Ont., Oct. 5.—President Cook, of the Duluth, Rainy Lake, and Winnipeg Railway, is here. The international steel bridge will be built at once, 510 feet long, with a swing 180 feet in length. Grading is being pushed from Ash Lake to Rainy Lake as quickly as possible and season will be laid to Ash Lake by the end of the month.

Six hundred men are at work, and grading and construction will be rushed all winter until completed. Work on the bridge commences this fall so that early in the new year there ought to be trains running from Duluth to Winnipeg.

ANOTHER SOUTHERN TORNADO

New Orleans, Oct. 5.—A tornado swept diagonally across residential portions of New Orleans about 8 a.m. today, taking off roofs, tearing down buildings and doing other damage.

DOINGS AT THE FORT

Fort Saskatchewan, Oct. 1.—Building operations continue to be brisk in this district. Mr. Moret has within the last month, received orders for three quarters of a million of bricks to be sent to the town. Mr. Moret has within the last month, next summer to enlarge his plant and increase his output to two millions.

Mr. Eugene Clark of Vermilion and Mr. Adolphus Mackenzie of Vegreville, were renewing acquaintances here last Sunday.

Mr. Wilkin, of Wilkin & Jones, has gone to Winnipeg, to meet Mrs. Wilkin and son "Billy" who are on their return trip, after spending the summer in England.

Maver Langworthy and Messrs. J. W. Shera and Cameron were visitors at Vegreville last on Friday last.

Mr. E. F. Holden, general manager of the Merchants bank, paid a visit to the Fort one day last week. He is on a tour of the Northwest branches and was very favorably impressed by this part of the country.

Mr. Chard, station agent here, has returned from his vacation, and taken up his duties again. We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Chard is very seriously indisposed.

The Dominion Government has given the contract of building a wire fence around Elk park, to our local manufacturer, Mr. W. A. D. Lees.

Rev. A. Grazer, Lutheran minister, of this place, preached his farewell sermon to a very large congregation on Sunday last. Rev. Heinman of Winnipeg preached the funeral service. Mr. Macdougall of Edmonton is spending a week at the Fort, visiting his daughter, Mrs. Bliss.

The Innisfree post office is the distributing point for mail going to Viking, Gilpin, and Ramfury. Over one hundred families receive mail at this office, besides. Owing to the enormous increase in business during the past months, the Postmaster General decided to give us a money order office, and a mail service twice daily, one from the east and one from the west. Both these changes took place October 1st.

What might have been a fatal accident took place a few days ago, when three workmen fell from the top of Norris Bros. new store now in course of construction. The staging gave way, precipitating the three men to the ground. Only one man, Mr. J. A. Courtemanche, contractor, was cut over the eye, which rendered seriously injured. He sustained a bad scalp wound over the eye, which rendered him unconscious for some time. A doctor was immediately summoned, and recommended that the injured man be taken to the Edmonton General Hospital. This was done, and according to last accounts, Mr. Courtemanche is making rapid recovery.

Gold is still the all-absorbing topic of conversation, and the Innisfree gravel pit is daily visited by scores of people in search of the wealth which makes men mad. There is considerable variety of opinion as regards the richness of the deposit.

TOPIFF NEWS

Toffie, Oct. 1.—The recent moving of several buildings to our town for store house purposes, etc., gives the place a more business-like air.

Mr. Bios is building a new house on his quarter section.

Miss C. Williams has left for Edmonton.

Mr. Palmer and family take their departure for Uncle Sam's territory this week, having turned over into hard cash, one of Alberta's good things in real estate.

Mr. Swift is in town in connection with starting a lumber yard. This will be a boon to our neighborhood.

The cheques are being received for the Grand Trunk Pacific right of way. Work on the opening up of the public road west of Toffie commences this week.
