Solway From Labrador.

The S. S. Solway, Capt. Parsons, arrived here last night at 10 o'clock from the Labrador. Leaving here on the 6th inst., she had it very stormy until she arrived at Emily Harbor, where she reached on the 16th. The weather was so tempestuous that the ship could not transfer her freight to the Stella Maris and had to go to Run by Guess and there shelter until the weather cleared. On the 18th the freight for the Northern Coast was transferred to the Stella Maris. On that day the fishing crews of Holton rowed to Emily Har. and boarded the Solway and on the 19th the fishermen at Smoky and contiguous places were taken on board. Right along to Battle Har. men and women joined the steamer so that she had over 300 passengers on board coming south, most of them of course in the steerage. These were landed at various places in Conception Bay. She brought a large freight of fish, oil, etc., and her saloon passengers for St. John's were G. Moty, P. Gerret, Messrs. Grant, Pond, Learning, Costigan, Rose and Barrett.

Gas is Coal With the Trouble Taken Out.

Gas is really nothing more than coal, only with gas you have the coal less dirt, ash and smoke. These have been taken out by the Gas Company. The weight, too, has been taken out, for when you use gas you don't have to carry it up from the cellar in buckets, straining your back in the attempt. All of the drudgery has been removed. The Gas Company has taken everything out of the coal but the heat—and that's the one thing you want. This they deliver to you right to the burner of your range. You only have to turn a tap and strike a match in order to have it.

If your mind is half made up to buy a GAS RANGE, remove the remaining doubt by thinking of last summer and the many days when your kitchen was like a burning furnace. The gas range never overheats the kitchen.

Phone the Gas Company, or call at their showrooms and get full particulars.

Florizel in Port.

The S. S. Florizel, Capt. Smith, arrived from New York via Halifax at 9 o'clock last night. Favorable weather prevailed while the ship was en route to Halifax. Here she was detained landing and taking freight. She left Halifax at 10 o'clock Tuesday night and met stormy weather coming to this port. She brought a large cargo including deck load and the following passengers in saloon:—M. Doyle, A. Coffin, Miss M. Devineaux, M. Crowe, J. Roche, P. Roche, A. Richards, A. Christopher, A. Walsh, L. Quigley, P. Curran, W. Lewis, J. Doyle, J. and Mrs. Manco, O. Mowatt, G. Brown, W. Nunn, J. K. Oswald, A. W. Fleming, B. Hill, C. F. Zimmerman, C. Plough, M. Dunn, P. Powers, W. Day, J. Vine, W. Fitzpatrick, M. Walsh, S. Shea and several in steerage.

FREEHOLD SITES, situated on Rostellan Road, adjoining "Rostellan" grounds. A few large lots of 50 feet frontage with 110 feet rearage can be got for $300.00. The cheapest land in the market. Splendid situation. Near enough to town and country for an all-the-year residence or a summer bungalow. Plans of buildings to be approved. Full particulars may be had from F. A. MEWS, Solicitor, Duckworth Street.—oct9, eod, tf

THE LABRADOR CATCH.—By the Solway we hear that at present there are four vessels loading on the Labrador for the Mediterranean. They will take between them about 16,000 qts. which should give about 180,000 lbs. of fish shipped from the coast this year, while it is reckoned that about 20,000 will come to Newfoundland, this fish being caught by the sturgeon-fishers. The total catch will be between 210,000 and 220,000 qts.

Mary's Advice.

FORGET EVERYTHING WHILE THE GOVERNOR AND PREMIER ARE IN THE BAY.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—The Agricultural Exhibition will be opened here in Conception Hall on Wednesday next, and we are going to have a visit from His Excellency the Governor, Sir Ralph Williams, accompanied by Sir E. P. Morris, The Reid Nrd. Co. are taking a great interest in this exhibition, and are going to give your St. John's people excursion rates. I think we should all take an interest in this and the visit of the above named pair of notables. As I am always there for making suggestions, perhaps you will allow me to advise "al my people" and visitors as well to FORGET the Governor's action in the Morrison-Strong case—forget all about it, and not let it enter their minds; and I hope the Governor will forget to make any mention of it. If he should mention it, the small boys and others at the exhibition might forget that the articles on exhibition do not belong to them and might pocket some of the goods. I would also suggest that all the people (aside, and you too, Tom, remember now) do forget for the time Sir Edward's promises to give us an Electric Road Board, the advantages of having the Prospero call here regularly, the steam ferry for the harbor, reduction of taxation, clean government and a long list of others, all broken.

They say they will open the Dock. My sake's alive, I got me old sides sore from laughing. The Dock has been running all summer, and only going to open it now. Again, if I were to start a bull's-eye shop in town, a private concern, would His Excellency and the Premier come over to open that. No, sir, not even if I got a Government guarantee. Too thin, Sir Edward, too thin.

Yours sincerely,
MARY.

Klark-Urban Co.

The reputation of "The Dairy Farm" by the Klark-Urban Coy. crowded the Casino theatre last night. This excellent drama depicting rural life in the State of New York, received a fine rendition last night at the hands of the company and the applause which greeted the performers was hearty and long sustained. The various characters alluded to by us in last night's issue excelled their previous efforts and all present were delighted. Yesterday's matinee when the company staged Raffles, also brought a big audience. To-night a very pretty drama "The Golden Rule" should afford this popular company a big audience.

MISSING BOY RETURNS.—A boy named Ronald Snow of Stevens St. had been missing from his home since last Monday last. His absence gave much concern to his parents, who were greatly relieved when he returned home yesterday. He had been at work on a farm on the Cove Road.

Special Evening Telegram.
LONDON, Oct. 24.

While the Balkan nations and Turkey are all generous with official statements as to the progress of the war in other parts of European Turkey, they maintain complete silence regarding the great battle which has been raging for at least two days between Adrianople and Kirk Killiseh, for news for which all the world is waiting. Reports issued from the opposing sides as to other battles show grave discrepancies, but the public is at least able to choose between the two reports. Moreover, even what has been published as to events near Adrianople is largely supposition. British military officers who, for many years, have made the study of Balkan military preparations a specialty, incline to the belief that the Turkish army has been holding the line between Adrianople and Kirk Killiseh with a covering force estimated at thirty thousand men, and that the main Ottoman Army is only now due on the scene. This might account for the Turkish statement to-day that something more definite will be known by to-night, for the arrival of her main army at the front, Turkey is expected to take the offensive. These same army critics say that the Bulgarian Army has advantage of occupying high ground at Kirk Killiseh, and that the Turks must have their full force in order to dislodge them.

LONDON, Oct. 24.

Another fierce encounter is in progress around Kumanovo on the way to Uskub, where both Servians and Turks claim the victory. Turkish official reports, on the one hand, say that the Servians have been completely routed, while the Servians assert that they have taken one part of the town and continue to make progress. It is possible that these reports refer to different parts of the area, which is an extended one. Other indications than Turkish show that the Servians suffered severely. A call has been issued at Belgrade for all retired reservist officers, as well as military employees, lawyers and engineers to join the seventh Servian regiment, the crack corps of Belgrade, within forty-eight hours. Some doubts are expressed at Belgrade as to whether the cartridge factories of Servia will be able to issue cartridges fast enough to supply the needs of troops engaged in hard fighting.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 24.

Rear Admiral Chagin, commander of the Zar's yacht, Standard, consulted suicide at his residence here. The cause is unknown. It was reported at the time of the recent troubles in connection with the mutiny of sailors of the Black Sea Fleet, that they had arranged a plot to seize the Standard while the Emperor and the Imperial family were being conveyed from Yalta to Sabastopol. A large number of bluejackets were arrested there.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 24.

The Servian Army, operating near Kumanovo, has been completely defeated by the Turkish troops defending that town, which is on the way to Uskub. The Servians suffered enormous losses, according to official despatches from the Commander-in-chief of the Turkish Western Army.

SOFIA, Oct. 24.

The Turkish garrison at Adrianople suffered heavy losses during a sortie, which was attempted last night from the North Eastern quarter of the town. They left twelve cannon in the field when they retired. The Bulgarians are now only three miles from the redoubts and fortified positions.
