Saskatchewan Swept by Hurricane.

$5,000,000 is Latest Estimate of New Brunswick Fire Loss--France Makes New Move to Force Germany to Come to Terms.

FRANCE'S LATEST MOVE.
ESSEN, June 17. Miners and factory workers in various parts of Ruhr held meetings today to determine what action should be taken in view of the latest moves of the forces of occupation to break the passive resistance of Germans by taking over of the railway stations of Dortmund, Bochum, Herne, Gelsenkirchen and other industrial towns. The French control absolutely all the railroad lines leading into and thru' Ruhr by which up to last Saturday the Germans had been bringing in food supplies from unoccupied Germany. These shipments to Ruhr have been from five to six hundred shipments daily. When the remaining lines here were taken over the German railroad men quit work as part of their passive resistance programme. Owing to the seizure of the lines, according to the French authorities the Germans now will be forced to come to terms in order to allow the necessary food supplies to reach the inhabitants of Ruhr.

FRENCH METHOD TO ENFORCE PAYMENT.
DUSSELDORF, June 17. Plans to take control of the coal, coke and raw material supplies of all factories in the Ruhr, were announced Saturday at French headquarters here. This method is adopted to enforce payment for coal which all but a few of the smaller plants have heretofore refused to pay.

BRITAIN'S NEWEST SUBMARINE.
CHATHAM, Eng., June 16. Submarine XI, the largest and most powerful underwater craft in the world, was launched here to-day. This mystery ship, as she has been called, displaces 2,780 tons on the surface and 3,600 tons submerged, which is greater by more than a thousand tons than any similar craft now afloat. The submarine will mount a twelve inch gun and her great speed will be a match for any surface warcraft.

300 CHINESE DROWNED IN COAL MINE.
SHANGHAI, June 17. Three hundred Chinese coal miners were drowned at Taohowang on Friday when meddlesome soldiers cut off the electric power, stopping the pumps, according to advices received here.

TERRIFIC HURRICANE SWEEPS SASKATCHEWAN.
SASKATOON, Sask., June 17. One death and a rapidly mounting toll of property loss is reported here from a hurricane which swept Central Saskatchewan Saturday night. Store fronts were demolished, farm buildings carried hundreds of yards through the air, telephone lines blown down, and farm houses destroyed by lightning, according to reports from points over a two hundred mile radius. Fifteen were killed when a bunk house near Rosetown was picked up bodily and thrown twenty yards through the air. Ten miles northwest of Rosetown a shack, in which Mr. and Mrs. Nile Woods were sleeping, was picked up by the wind and tumbled for a mile and a half across the prairie. The woman escaped with a bad shaking up, but Woods is reported in a serious condition. Six patients on the upper floor of Rosetown Hospital were endangered when the roof of the structure vanished, but the building itself did not give way. Many persons had miraculous escapes. Arthur Brown was sleeping in a bunkhouse near Rosetown, which started a five hundred yard journey, finally falling over a haystack. Landing on its side it smashed to pieces. Brown was not hurt, but as he was crawling to shelter a barrel struck him on the head. He is in hospital but will recover. Edward Allan's large farm house in Rosetown district, with himself and family in it, was switched right around on its foundation. No one was hurt. His barn and out-buildings, including six granaries, were badly smashed and eight horses and several cattle killed.

ENGLAND WORRIED OVER Emigration to America.
LONDON, May 22.—Great Britain is worried over the increasing number of skilled artisans and domestic servants who want to take up their abodes in the United States. The stream of emigrants which has flooded from these shores to America has caused a special committee of the government to inquire into the causes. Only the exhaustion of the annual quota of British subjects eligible to enter the United States under the percentage law has prevented tens of thousands of others from pitching their tents under the Stars and Stripes. With the exception of France and Germany, practically every nation is now barred from sending emigrants to America until next July, when the new annual quota begins. Already the steamer bookings from the United Kingdom to America for July, August and September are full.

THE BELFRY TOWER.
London Morning Post: Even the Middle Ages England was the "Ringing Isle," and the love of bell music has endured amongst us to this day. Indeed, there are more bells in this country than in any other, and nowhere else is the athletic exercise of change-ringing anything like as popular. Not so very long ago our church bell-towers were regarded as outside the parson's jurisdiction; they were often the scene of drunken and disorderly frolics, which were thought to be justified by such bell inscriptions as the oft-quoted couplet: Hart, do ye hear? Our clappers want beer.

BROADCASTING.
Hong Kong Press: We see little prospect of "broadcasting" becoming a paying proposition in Hong Kong or of affording "listeners-in" any constant enjoyment unless we could count upon listening, say, to the daily performances of the famous Cantonese musical treatise as may be provided anywhere between Tokyo and the Straits Settlements. Possibly the Chinese may be the first to take up the invention for the pleasure of listening to famous singers or actors in Canton. We fear, however, that if the absence of broadcasting in Hong Kong is to be taken as indicating a lack of enterprise, Hong Kong will remain under that stigma for some time yet to come.

MILLIONS.
Philadelphia Ledger: One of the outstanding romances of American industrial life is the story of Ford's rise to affluence and influence from the day twenty years ago when he and his wife tried to get credit for $1.50 from a Detroit shopkeeper when they wanted a chicken for their Sunday dinner. At the same time the wires bring the story of a bequest of $1,000,000 to a boy of fourteen. He must wait till he comes of age to get it.

CHASTIC TIME.
London Chronicle: Summer time is perhaps the one good thing that came out of the war. For the worker in a city office at least it is an immeasurable boon. But it is in a fair way of becoming an immeasurable curse to the traveller and to all these agencies that are concerned with international traffic and intercourse. For other nations have not taken to it so kindly as we do. France has rejected it. Belgium is to follow suit. Germany is in two minds about it. And the consequence is something like chaos in the international time-table. In this respect summer time has meant retro-

THE WORLD'S PRESS.

THE MIND STILL GOVERNS.
Cleveland Plain Dealer: Harvard professor wants to reorganise society so as to create an aristocracy of the brains. But it exists, without monkeying with society.

ENCOURAGING DELUSIONS.
London Daily Mail: The two obstacles to agricultural revival in this country are the farmers' obstinate demand for a Protection which he will never get and his refusal in all but a few countries to recognize that the laborer is a partner with himself in the industry and cannot be crushed without destroying it. The Government policy is apparently to encourage both these fatal delusions.

CANADA'S NEED.
Le Canada: There is not a business man at the present time who will not admit that Canada's need is an industrial recovery which will both support the artisan population of the towns and equally a town market for our farm products. If we wish to pay our war debt and meet the railway deficit we must increase our population—and this is only possible by industrial development; that is to say more workmen supported by more farmers.

THOSE WHO DWELL IN CITIES.
London Daily Telegraph: If certain facts are ignored our national civilization will pay for it. One is the fact that those who do not possess property to be seized by the State are the great majority of the electorate to-day. To them is addressed the specious argument that since confiscation would take nothing from them directly, they can have nothing to lose by it. The other is the fact that alone among great nations, Great Britain has a population of town-dwelling workers in excess of those who live and labor on the land.

DESSING THE WINDOWS.
Natal Advertiser: After the Napoleonic wars there was an interval of many years before the Great Exhibition in Hyde Park. Now, within less than five years of the Armistice, British industrialists welcomed inspection of their products. If this dressing of the shop windows in Great Britain has such beneficial effects, how much greater will be the results when the shutters are raised to reveal the products and progress of the whole of the British Empire. All that is required for success is a stout heart and steady work.

Prince Does not Pine to be Called Royal.
LONDON, May 23.—Lady Astor likes to bring people together at her dinners. At one of her recent entertainments she had among her guests the Prince of Wales and Will Thorne, the socialist labor leader and member of Parliament. Thorne now tells this story:
"I said to the prince I would doubtless be unpleasantly criticized by some of my constituents for putting my feet under the table with royalty."
"The prince smilingly replied: 'I object to royalty, Mr. Thorne, but I don't mind being called the Prince of Wales.'"

Lonely Island Residents Look Askance at Radio.
KILDA, Outer Hebrides. May 13.—Although cut off from civilization since last August, for no steamer is able to fight its way through the storm during the autumn and winter months, the 75 lonely inhabitants of this island look askance at the telephone and will not use the wireless which was built here during the war by the British.
Recently the West Highland steamers sailed from the island of Kilda, the largest and most northerly of the Hebrides group, and thus broke Kilda's nine months' solitude by bringing it mails, provisions and other necessities.
During their isolated months the islanders send their letters to Lewis in the usual and remarkable way. They put them in a tin canister in sheepskin bags and launch them when there is a breeze of northwest wind. Sometimes they get blown out of their course and take the letters thousands of miles, but very often they cross the 60 mile stretch of sea to Lewis Island safely, and are then posted from that point.
