The Pacific Railway and the Canadian Loan Guarantee Bill.

Late intelligence from England confirms the report already circulated, that the efforts of Sir Hugh Allan to raise money among the English capitalists for the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway have ended in utter failure. All the great financial houses gave the scheme the cold shoulder. The charter was objected to, and people laughed at the idea of the road being built in ten years.
Objection was also taken to the proposal to start the road from a point near Lake Nipissing, and to run through the country north of Lake Superior. Nearly every one who gave an opinion said the road should start from a point at or near Toronto. Others again thought the capital of the Company too small, and that the Canadian promoters of it should have shown their confidence in the scheme by subscribing more largely than they had done. Great surprise was also expressed at the extraordinary powers granted by the Government, and the fears of many in the soundness of the enterprise were aroused by the charges which Mr. Huntington preferred against Sir John A. Macdonald and his colleagues. And to crown all, the poverful influence of the Grand Trunk stockholders in London was exercised to defeat Sir Hugh Allan, and they have succeeded.

The bill authorizing the Imperial Government to guarantee the payment of a loan to be raised by the Canadian Government for the construction of the Pacific Railway, enlargement of the canal and to repeal the Canada Defence Loan Act has been introduced in the House of Commons. It recites that the Government of Canada propose to raise a loan not exceeding eight million pounds for the above purposes; that the Imperial Government be authorized to guarantee a portion of the loan, the amount so guaranteed not to exceed three million six hundred thousand pounds, the rate of interest not to exceed four per cent; that the Government of Canada be required to form a sinking fund at the rate of one per cent, per annum on the entire amount of loan guaranteed by the Imperial Treasury. The remaining clauses of the bill refer to the mode of payment and investment of the sinking fund and interest, and for securing the re-payment of such sums as may be advanced by the Imperial Government.

A Halifax special says that it will take the greater part of the summer to recover the entire cargo of the Atlantic.

The Ottawa Citizen gives circulation to the rumor that Mr. Macdonald, of Pictou, will fill the vacancy in the Cabinet made by Mr. Howe's retirement. He will not, however, take his seat, until after the Pacific Railway Committee has reported.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.—We have received a despatch, stating that the Prince Edward Island Legislature on Monday, unanimously passed resolutions accepting the terms offered that Province on entering the Union.
The only other British North American Province not in the Canadian Confederation, is Newfoundland.

DESPATCH FROM PARIS says the new French Government has resolved to adopt a free trade policy, and also to reduce the military expenditures. M. Thiers will resume his literary labors. A despatch from Berlin says the prevalent opinion in the German Capital is that President McMahon will prove a counterpart of General Monck, the restorer of the house of Stuart to the English throne, and that his election heralds the legitimate restoration in France.

FAREWELL SERMON AND PRESENTATION.
—Last Sabbath the Rev. R. Acherson of the U. F. Church, Galt, preached his farewell sermon, from 2 Cor. vi. 2,—"Behold now is the day of salvation." There was a large attendance, including besides the members of his own congregation, a large number from other churches. On Tuesday a farewell prayer meeting was held in the church, and was followed by the presentation to Mr. Acherson of an address, and a purse containing the handsome sum of $150. Mr.
Acherson made a feeling reply, and added a few affectionate words of farewell.
After singing the 139th Psalm, the Rev.
Mr. Fortens offered up prayer and the meeting dispersed.

GUELPH TOWNSHIP COUNCIL.—In our report of the proceeding of the Guelph Township Council at their last session we made the last paragraph read, "The Council adjourned to meet again on the 14th of June next." It should have read, "the 9th of June next." All whom this may concern will please take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

CENTRAL FAIR.—Farmers will remember the very fine show of turnips, carrots and mangel shown at the exhibition last year, especially those grown from seed purchased of W. H. Macklin's retail store, opposite the Market. When purchasing this year keep in mind where the seed was bought.

1873 THE LION! THE LION! 1873

GREAT COMMOTION IN THE DRY GOODS TRADE and a Tremendous Rush at our Mantle and Millinery Rooms.

On all hands we hear of dull trade: "Nothing doing," says Tom, Dick, and Harry, but it is not so at THE LION. Times better than ever. Still great bustle and activity at the leading house. The spring trade is opening beautifully, thus encouraging us to greater endeavors in the public weal; and the reason of our success is apparent. Our Goods are all direct from the manufactory, and none can do a successful business only those who buy from first hands, for which our Establishment has long been noted, and has raised the standard of our House (combined with the energy of the proprietors of the firm) to the present proud position, and more especially for the last two years, so that our daily sales are almost equal to the combined trade of the same character in the Town of Guelph.

OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

Our Millinery is a complete success this spring, the taste inherent displayed by Miss McDonald is captivating all hearts, and places her high in the ranks of first-class Milliners. Combined with the genuine popularity of Miss Sutherland, thus making our rooms the centre of attraction.
