Aylmer Minstrels Play In Springfield Next Monday Night

Other News of The Village

Our new furniture man has rented the late Dr. Thomson property from Beecher Bearss. We welcome them to our village.

There has been quite an unfortunate mixup about engaging the Aylmer Minstrels. The Baptist B.Y.P.U. wanted them and so did the Chalmers Knox Church. It seems the Chalmers church have won out. The big show is billed for May 5th. Tickets 50 cents at Cardiff's Drug Store. Everybody come and enjoy the fun. We are all going through this world for the last time so come and have a good laugh while you have the chance.

Miss Grace Howick is home again after spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) R. Taylor, of Teeterville.

Mr. and Mrs. (Rev.) R. Taylor, of Teeterville, paid the village a flying visit last Saturday.

Miss Maude Henry returned to Toronto on Tuesday to continue her studies at Normal.

Mr. Ivison and Miss Jene Barnby, returned to Toronto on Tuesday.

Miss Vera Barnby returned to her duties in Princeton on Saturday.

Mr. A. G. Ball leaves for the west in a few days in the interests of the Carnation Milk Co. His many friends wish him every success.

Mr. and Mrs. Buttler are locating here. Mr. Butler has a good position in the Carnation Milk plant.

Auto Insurance

I have all kinds of Automobile Insurance. Three of the largest companies doing this kind of Insurance at the cheapest rates obtainable. My Mutual Life of Canada sells all kinds of Life Policies and pays back larger bonuses and dividends. Get my rates and see sample policies.

Miss Lillie Barnes has accepted a position in the Carnation Milk Co.

Miss Ruby Falkins goes to Aylmer to take up a new line of work in the milk plant there.

The Elk Club of the Methodist Sunday school entertained the Princess Pats class of the same Sunday school to a sugar party in the basement of the church on Monday evening. Part of the evening was spent in a program including solos by Fred Shively, Roland Plato and John Stewart, also readings. Partners were then chosen for supper and all sat down to a table loaded with good things. Then the sugar was brought in and all enjoyed a large dish of this, after which the party broke up.

The Princess Pats class of the Methodist Sunday school entertained the Elk Club to a supper in the basement of the church on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock about thirty sat down to supper, which all enjoyed. A program including solos, readings, etc. The writing of a newspaper was an interesting feature of the evening and furnished a great deal of pleasure. The party broke up at an early hour.

Miss Ruby Barons, of Belmont, spent the Easter holidays with her uncle, Mr. A. Barons.

The warning has been sounded (get your coal in now.) But what is worrying us mostly now is where is our summer ice coming from. There is not a pound in the village this year.

All the children who have been on the sick list are improving nicely.

Mrs. John Hodgson is still very ill. Her friends hope for a speedy recovery.

There is a great scarcity of good rentable houses here. Several new employees of the Carnation Milk Co. are unable to get houses to live in.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner were Sunday visitors at Kenneth Sinclair's.

Little Helen Sinclair returned home from Belmont where she has been spending her Easter holidays.

House cleaning is the order of the day around here. A continued whack, whack is heard. Poor man, this is where he gets his alright.

Mrs. Murray and family are visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. Geo. Grant for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Winters and Mr. and Mrs. E. Vincent spent Sunday at Hyde Park.

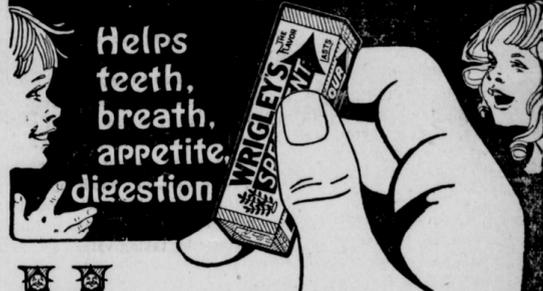

Monday's rain put a damper on the seeding for a few days.
