—In the case of Gerrard vs. London Mutual Fire Insurance Company at Osgood Hall yesterday G. W. Marsh, London, for the plaintiff, moved to increase the damages allowed by the judgment of MacMahon, J., who tried the action with a jury at London. The action is upon an insurance policy to recover for loss upon as barn and its contents. The trial judge deducted from the amount found by the jury the sum of $50, because of a condition in the policy that straw should not be allowed for except after threshing. This the plaintiff contends is an unreasonable condition. Duncan MacMillan, London, for the defendants, contra. Reserved.
