CURLING.

The handsome Western Ontario ankard trophy was yesterday won and lost. Bright curlers are the proud possessors, and the silver ornament is just the thing Bright needed to fill up a vacant space at their rooms.

St. Marys won the cup for three consecutive years after it had been pre-sented by the citizens of London, and were, of course, the owners. Again, in the next year, with a generous the St. Marys club put the cup up for competition on condition that the finals would be played off in that town every alternate year. As a consequence the finals next year ice has been much worse this winter than it was yesterday, but towards midnight it became a little soft, thus greater care had to be exercised on the part of the players, and the shots were made clean. That Bright should win was somewhat of a surprise to the curling fraternity, most of whom thought St. Marys had a regular "cinch" on everything she went up against. Others thought Sarnia would carry away the cup, but Bright upset their calculations. The game was re-
