It will be composed of the deputy minister of agrithe college, three graduates or assoclates, and two practical farmers, not graduates. Under the old act this board was composed of seven practical farmers, no provision being made McAlpine, Smith, McKay, Holmes, for the representation of graduates. An amendment to the act to prevent fraud in the manufacture of cheese and butter, provides for the appointment of sanitary inspectors, as requested by the Dairymen's Association. These inspectors will be under the direct supervision of the department, and will not be in any way connected with the instructors in dairying. All cheese factories and creameries must be kept clean and sanitary, and patrons must properly cleanse all milk houses, milk stands and utensils.

The third bill, for the suppression of foul brood among bees, replaces the old act. The important change is that the direction and appointment of apiary inspectors is taken from the On- Kunz), (Soper and Walsh). tarlo Beekeepers' Association and ture.
