Classy Rinks Left in the Contest J. St. Marys. Exeter. Rev. Collins .....15 and Close Fight Assured.

The Labatt trophy competition has narrowed down to 16 rinks, as the result of yesterday's play, and before nightfall the two rinks that will fight it out for the blue ribbon honors will E. Seagram .. 17 T. S. Scott be known.

The rinks are Eddie Seagram's Waterloo rink, former winners; Charlie Abbott, Thistle Club; Dr. Gray, of Stratford, "The Candy Kid"; Dr. Hunter, Goderich; F. McDonald, Copleston; Dr. Beacom, Mount Forest; R. Robinson .. 25 R. Dick Thompson, Paris; Dr. Williamson, Tillsonburg; Dr. Wiley, Brant- Geo. Brown ford; Bill Barley, Mitchell; George Brantford H. Brown, Wyoming; John Lochead, Lon- Dr. Wiley don, last year's runners up: George Nightingale, London Thistles; R. H. Robinson, Orangeville; F. P. Hughes, Strathroy, and Col. Doherty, Mitchell.

The above is an imposing array, and R. Frame .....13 J. Smiley from the number will come the winner. They are all classy rinks, and D. Karn .....19 J. Reid .......11 from now on there will be some very keen bowling.

The wise ones are doing little speculating as to the winner. The game of bowls is an uncertain game. One A. Heaman ...16 W. Inglis ......11 thing is certain, the winning rink will be a great one, and worthy of the Dr. Burritt ....15 W. Booker

The association games are progressing very rapidly, and the consolation has also started. The Scotch doubles will also be got under way. The scores yesterday were as fol-
