THE SIX DAY RACE
Harlem Team Led at Sixth Hour, Having Covered 309 Miles on Motor-cycles.

Brighton Beach, Sept. 27.—At 8 o'clock this morning only four teams remained in the six-day motor bicycle race which began one minute after midnight this morning on the Brighton Beach motor drome. Five of the nine teams entered kept chugging around for five hours and then the Brooklyn team riders, Devine, Ericson and Sullivan, dropped out of the contest. Both their machines had been rendered useless by the breaking of the steel bearings.

During the second hour, Wm. Wray of the New York team, was thrown heavily through the fence on the back stretch, owing to the breaking of a chain. He was not injured beyond a bad shaking up, but the mishap lost the team fully four miles.
The score for the sixth hour follows: Harlem 309, New York 307, Bedford Park 254, Flatbush 138.
The race was resumed at 8 o'clock.

All wedding rings may look much alike to the average person. We know from experience that many such rings sold that are not uniform in shape, and especially in the setting. There is actually more care taken in the making of our wedding rings than in a claw-set ring—because it's necessary the oval should be true and even to produce a uniform shape.

Special Sermons.
Special harvest thanksgiving services were held yesterday at St. John the Evangelist Church. The edifice was handsomely decorated with fruits, vegetables and flowers, and presented a very fine appearance. The morning services were conducted by the rector, Rev. W. T. Hill, and the evening services by Rev. Precentor Dann, of St. Paul's Cathedral.

A Handsome Present.
A full supply of the new Book of Common Prayer has been presented to St. Luke's Church, Broughdale, by a citizen of London whose name is withheld. The announcement was made last evening during the service by Archdeacon Richardson. The gift was greatly appreciated by the congregation. The new hymn book will be used for the first time on Oct. 17, the festival of St. Luke the Evangelist.

CITIZENS SHOULD KEEP THEIR MONEY AT HOME
A drummer paid his hotel bill in Homeville, handing the clerk a $5 gold piece.
A few minutes later the hotel cashier handed the five to the local butcher in payment of a meat bill.
The butcher dropped into a shoe store and left the V in exchange for a pair of shoes for his wife.
That evening the shoe man passing by the hardware store handed out the gold piece for a lawn mower.
It remained in the hardware man's till all that night.

The latter kept the five until nearly noon, when he passed it on to the grocery man in payment of his monthly account.
The grocery-man's wife next took possession of the coin and exchanged it at the drygoods store for sundry purchases.
The next man to get it was the drayman, who had a bill for hauling. He in turn passed it on to the doctor, who had treated his sick child.
The doctor handed it over to the druggist for value received, and the druggist deposited it in the bank.
Next day the bank cashier returned the gold piece to the hotel man in payment of his board bill.

MAD AS HORNETS.
London, Sept. 25.—Wild scenes are reported to have taken place in the prison of Birmingham, as the result of the forcible feeding with a stomach pump of the suffragettes, who are on a hunger strike. The women resisted the efforts of the keepers, smashed the windows, assaulted the wardresses, and finally had to be handcuffed and placed in solitary confinement. The leaders of the suffragettes here are indignant over the attempt to feed the women. They contend that forcible actions against the medical authorities of the prison concerned in it.

Wellington Street Church.
Special Thanksgiving services, and a rally in the Sunday school were held at the Wellington Street Methodist Church yesterday, and were well attended. In the morning Rev. H. A. Graham spoke especially to parents on the subject, "The Prime Importance of Parental Training," from the text, "Train up a child in the way he should go." In the afternoon addresses were given by the Sunday school pupils, particularly to young people, urging them to have a rule for the cultivation of their intellect, a rule for the government of their bodies, a rule for saving their money, and a rule for everything, but above all for their religious life.
