Londoners Hold Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Yeo Hold 25th Anniversary.

A very delightful evening was spent last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Yeo, 32 Wortley road, when they celebrated their silver wedding. Both are native Londoners, and durfollowed by an excellent patriotic paper by Miss Rhunke. Next Wednesday evening, officers for the new beautifully decorated with roses, daf- year will be elected. fedils and old-fashioned stocks, the gift of their youngest son, Russell, of Detroit. At the conclusion of the wedding supper, the bride and groom of twenty-five years ago were prethe congratuations of those present, among whom were: Mrs. Emma members to a beach party at High-Janes, mother of Mrs. Yeo; Mr. N. banks next month. The class met at among whom were: Mrs. Emma F. Yeo, Mr. Yeo's father; Miss Emma 6 o'clock for supper and a very eneo, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Janes, Mr and Mrs. Martin Janes. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Janes, Miss Myrta Janes, Miss Ada Janes, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Pearce, Christ Church which was held at the eisters who were unable to be present, Rev. and Mrs. Janes of Woodstock, Ont., Dr. and Mrs. Bunting of Ann Arbor, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Janes of Schenectady, N. Y.

of family treasures, for the Spanish cradle roll, Mrs. Jacques; superin-Arthur Little and Mrs. W. G. Coles. shawl is again to have first place tendent of Outlook, Mrs. Shaw; su-At the tea hour Mrs. Norman Alexamong the formal wraps for evening wear in summer. An odd thing about se Spanish shawls is that they do day boxes, Mrs. Horning; auditor, come from Spain at all. The Mr. W. Fleming; heralds, for French the Orient, and the heavy silk and China, Mrs. Shepley; Indian, Mrs. beautifully-embroidered flowers are Moorehouse, strangers, Mrs Cowan. distinctly Oriental.

If one owns such a shawl, perhaps cream colored silk with vivid embroidery and deep silk fringe, one's given recently in St. Thomas by a summer evening wrap problem is number of local young ladies appearfashionably solved. Nothing is more ed in the St. Thomas Times-Journal: as light and airy as they would seem; at the Centre Street Baptist Church, at least, the real imported ones are not. American-made shawls are made of filmsy crepes, but the real imported kind are of the heavy played brilliancy of technique and a played brilliancy of technique and a Oriental silk which never wears out.

Saskatchewan Man

For Dodd's Kidney Pills Have Made Him Well.

Fox Hills, Sask.. April 20.— ber, "Ojistoh," by Pauline Johnson. (Special)—"I was surprised at the good your Dodd's Kidney Pills did Takes Leave," was capably present-day to the following cost: Hannah I used two boxes, and now I resident of this place, and is only one of the many received from relieved be Sally, the invited guest, Miss Engsufferers.

People all over Canada have tried cessity of courtesy to those consider-Dod's Kidney Pills and found them good. They have been used by thou-sands of people suffering from vari-ness, diabetes and Bright's disease. Ask any one of these thousands to give you his opinion of Dodd's Kidney Pills. It is on the relief afforded sufferers from Kidney trouble that Dodd's Kidney Pills have built their reputation as a sovereign remedy for Dodd's Kidney Pills make healthy kidneys. Healthy kidneys strain all the impurities, all the poison, out of the blood. They are the greatest of all tenics. If you wish to keep young to a good old age, Dodd's Kidney Pills will help you do it. Ask your neighbors about them .- Advt.

To Absorb Freckles and Other Blemishes

Every spring numerous inquiries are made by girls seeking some reliable recipe for removing freckles. Very avorable reports have been received from many who have used ordinary favorable reports have been received favorable reports have used ordinary business was favorable reports have used ordinary business favorable reports the favorable fav

CLUB NEWS

HOLDS LITERARY MEETING.

Special to The Advertiser. Chatham, Ont., April 20.—A literary evening, under the direction of Miss Jean Rhunke, was held by Wesley Methodist Epworth League on Wed-nesday evening. Miss Jean Edwards presided over the opening exercises, and gave a patriotic reading on "Can-ada." The musical numbers were vocal solos by Miss Elda Steen and Mr. W. Grant, of Dover, and an in-strumental by Mrs. Purvis, and were W. M. Phelps.

MIZPAH CLASS MEETS.

Special to The Advertiser.

Chatham, April 20.—The Mizpah
Class of St. Andrew's Church donatand Mrs. Lindsay Sinclair. Class of St. Andrew's Church donated the sum of $10 to the Armenian twenty-five years ago were pre-fund; $25 to the Sabbath school and sented with a purse of silver, with $25 to missions, at the regular meeting last evening. Mrs. D. H. Douglas was in charge and invited joyable time was spent.

KING'S DAUGHTERS MEET.

A happy affair of this week was the meeting of the King's Daughters of Billy Pearce, Mrs. Chas. Gould, Miss home of Mrs. Burton, Grey street, Edna Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Pick- who is one of the oldest members of ering, Miss Ruth Pickering, and Net-tio and Walter, children of Mr. and Mrs. Yeo; and also from brothers and mors, and during the afternoon tea was served with Miss French and Mrs. Noble as assistants.

PLANS SOCIAL EVENING. Following a meeting which will commence at six o'clock Monday evening next, Olive Hive, No. 309, Ladies of Maccabees will hold an open social evening, with cards and a program followed by supper. A drawing contest, the proceeds of which will be given the Salvation Army Fund will

A special meeting of the Union Mothers Club has been arranged for Monday evening of next week, when the reports of the delegates, who attended the educational convention in Toronto, Easter week, will be presented.

meeting of Park Street Methodist W. by a discussion. Miss Ruby McVicar M. S. was held Wednesday with a gave an instrumental followed by a very large attendance. Mrs. M. D. Teetzel presided, and the honorary president, Mrs. A. H. White, gave the scripture reading. The resignations of Fred Wood and Mrs. A. A. Fleming from the Mission Band were accepted with regret. A vocal trio by Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Snell and Mrs. Dalgleish was followed by the presentation of five life membership certificates and the reading of the annual reports. The treasurer's report showed that $828.53 was raised during the term; the strangers' secretary stated that 105 calls were made; Mrs. McGee reported a balance of $27.92 for the Mission Band; Mrs. Stover, 32 members for the cradle roll; Mrs. Dunkley of the floral com mittee stated that many bouquets were bought for members from con-tributions to the birthday boxes. Officers for the new year are: Hon-orary presidents, Mrs. Teetzel and Mrs. Cowan; president, Mrs. A. Wemp; first vice-president, Mrs. H. W. Crews; second vice-president, Mrs. Palmer; third vice-president. Mrs. Shepley; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. H. Ferguson; recording secretary, Mrs. W. H. West-man; treasurer, Mrs. McGee; assistant, Mrs. Sissman: strangers' secretary, Mrs. Gale and Mrs. McKay; superintendent of Christian steward- in Smallman & Ingram's tea. a Spanish shawl in her trunk and Miss Hearst; superintendent of perintendent of mite boxes, Mrs. Dalgleish; superintendent of birth-

VISITS ST. THOMAS. The following account of a recital lengthy applause, which she rewarded with "Reflections On the Water" Is Enthusiastic (De Bussey.) Miss Kathleen England, who has a charming personality, was attired in quaint Italian costume.
Possessing a light, flexible soprano voice, she sang a dainty song, "Flower of Italy," The Misses Harding, Metcalfe and Tanner varied the pro-His Kidney Troubles Soon Disappeared After Taking Dodd's Kidney ed by the following cast: Hannah, the maid, Miss Metcalfe; Aunt Julia, me. I used two boxes, and now I ed by the following cast: Hannah, feel very good. My kidney troubles the maid, Miss Metcalfe; Aunt Julia, the aristocratic aunt, Miss Harding; of Mr. Philip Miller, a well-known Isabelle, her niece, Miss R. Tanner; be Sally; the invited guest, Miss England. The play emphasized the need our inferiors, and especially to the kitchenmaid. At the close of the program, Rev Mr. Newnham in a few pleasant reous forms of Kidney trouble, such as Mr. Newnham in a few pleasant re-rheumatism, dropsy, sore back, weakthe audience for the splendid evening, and extended a cordial invitation to the Londoners for a return visit Miss Taber gratefully responded on behalf of the artists.

The social committee in charge of Mesdames Southern Bye, Jones and Gray, served delightful refreshments on Wednesday. Mrs. R. C. Henry presided, and Mrs. Buist was appointed delegate to the provincial meeting in Windsor. A Bible reading was given by Mrs. Buist, and Mrs. D. Mc-Kerrall reviewed the "Messenger." Miss Maggie Campbell invited the Social and Personal

Loney, Miss I sie McEwen.

Miss Hilda Keene is entertaining an elderly lady, and the last of he Mrs. W. J. Reid was the hostess of a delightful tea this week. Mrs. Peter Smith of Stratford is a charming visitor in town, a guest with Mrs. John Diprose, Piccadilly street. Mrs. Edward Martyn left yesterday for California where she will spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs.

Mrs. Thomas Baker and Miss Helen Baker are expected home tomorrow after spending the past two weeks in New York city. Mr. Harold Cornish, of the Bank of Many little garments for the children at the Shelter were completed at the sewing social held by the Hale Street Mothers' Club at the home of Mrs. J. Johnston, this week. At the tea hour the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Durwood.

Word has been received of the death of Miss Sarah Hogan, a former well-known resident of Ridgetown.
Miss Hogan, who made her home with her niece, Mrs. Danz of Detroit, was Masuret and Peggy Johnston.

Miss Rose and Miss Winnifred Baker ST. ANDREWS' MOTHERS favored with a plane duet. Very interesting reports were given by Mrs Cecil Rhodes, secretary, the mite box superintendent, and strangers' secretary. Officers elected for the new year are: President, Mrs. Robert Bennett; vice-president, Miss Carrie Noack; recording secretary, Mrs. Carrier Mrs. Keith Edwards; corresponding secretary, Mrs. James Keil; strangers' secretary, Mrs. C. A. Keil; treasurer, Mrs. C. Cher. Following Mrs. James Chinnick; superintendent of Christian stewardship, Mrs. Cecil Rhodes; superintendent of mite boxes, Mrs. O. Rhodes; pianist, Mrs. Cecil Chinnick. Miss Lizzie Noack also be held. The meeting will be in charge of the newly installed commander, Mrs. Hector McFee.

WILL PRESENT REPORTS.

A graph of the distribution of the study book, and Miss Carrie Noack was elected delegate to the convention in London in May. Dainty refreshments tion in London in May. Dainty re-freshments were served at 5 o'clock.

GEOGRAPHY MATCH. The regular meeting of the Lobo Women's Institute was held recently in the Masonic Hall. There were 23 present and the roll call was answer-PARK STREET W. M. S.
Special to The Advertiser.
Chatham, April 20.—The annual dated Schools," which was followed > talk from Mrs. Malc. Gray on "School Taxes and Grants." A geography match proved an interesting feature of the afternoon and was won by Mrs. P. L. Graham. At the close of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed with the program committee who served refreshments. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. T. Cayerhill on May 16. As this is the annual meetfeature also an amusing contest.

> ing all members are invited to attend. Community singing will be a feature also an amusing contest. Roll Call will be answered by "Receipts for One's Favorite Summer

Soldiers' Wives Hold Bridge Tea

Many Attend Successful Bridge At Smallman's Tea Room.

A charming affair of yesterday af-By ELOISE. ship, Mrs. F. F. White; superin-Lucky, indeed, is the woman who tendent of mission band, Mrs. Cooper many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests were arranged and the doir cap looks as though the doir cap looks as though it had been many guests are cap arranged and the doir cap looks as though the doir cap looks are cap arranged and many guests were received by Mrs. Arthur Little and Mrs. W. G. Coles. ander, Mrs. A. A. Campbell and Mrs. Sid Rankin poured. Many donations were received from Mrs. Morley most beautiful of them come from work, Miss Huff; Japan, Mrs Clark; Aylesworth, Mrs. William Spittal, Mrs. Benson, Mrs. C. E. Fisher and Mrs. Buchner; and the attractive W. G. Coles. Miss Annie Stevenson and Mrs. Howard Erskine assisted the summer costume than one of these shawls drawn in soft folds about the figure, and they are not as light and airy as they would seem; at least, the real imported ones are not. American-made shawls Mrs. Shannon, Mrs. Cameron Wilson Fantaisie Impromptu (Chopin) and 12th Rhapsodie (Liszt). Her skillful execution in both numbers was The proceeds of this affair are in cord, the double case aid of the league's fund to assist silk and constitutes

Sixteen Girls Are Successful

The social given by the teachers of St. George's School in honor of the mothers was a most successful affair At "Y" Banquet.

of last evening. Folk dances danced to music provided by the newly pur-chased gramaphone was one of the Following a banquet at the most enjoyable features. Solos by "Lenmore" last evening, certificates Mrs. E. Wyatt and Miss Lince were were presented to sixteen girls, all of were presented to sixten girls and dainty supper was served from tables gay with tulips. The committee in charge of the affair included: Miss St. John Ambulance Course, put on St. John Ambulance Club of the Y. W. Loney, Miss Ferguson and Miss Hesle McEwen.

Miss Marjorie Dawson was the cal school.

Miss Marjorie Dawson was the hostess yesterday afternoon of a charming preserved fruit shower given at her home in Duchess avenue in honor of Miss Isabel Muir, a popular bride-elect of next week. The many jars of fruit were hidden in a cupjars of fruit were hidden in a cup-board and little Miss Nora Dawson Grace Dixon, Daisy Dixon, Parker, wearing a quaint Mother Hubbard costume directed the guest of honor to the gifts. At the tea hour Mrs. E. A happy feature of the evening

J. Dawson presided over the tea table gay with daffodils. The guests were: Mrs. T. O. Margrett, and Misses Babbie Chisholm, Jean Jarvis, Dorothy Durand, Louise Duffield, Kathleen Sabine, Helen Raymond, Connie Masuret and Peggy Johnston.

A happy feature of the evening was the presentation to the teacher, Dr. R. J. Gordon of a silver pencil. Other guests of honor present were: H. B. Beal, principal of the Technical school and Mrs. Beal.

Dr. B. F. Keillor acted as examiner and Mrs. Keillor Short addresses. and Mrs. Keillor.

HOLD JOLLY AFFAIR WEDDINGS

were given by the doctors.

McGARVIN-DANIELS.

May Daniels of Thamesville, and Mr

RENWICK-LOUNSBURY.

A quiet wedding took place at

when Miss Bessie Lounsbury, daugh-

McINNIS-BROWNLEE.

St. John's Anglican Church, St.

othy Brownlee were the assistants at

Dr. McInnis is a graduate of MAIN-EDGE.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at high noon on Thursday, April 19, in St. Thomas, when Margaret Frances, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edge, Goderich street, was united in marriage to Mr. William Wright Main of Burlington, eldest son of the late Mr. W. W. Main and Mrs. Main of Hamilton. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding

March played by the organist, Mr. George Clark, who also played a soft accompaniment throughout the service. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. T. H. Brown, in the presence of about forty-five guests. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a gown of white canton crepe simply draped and caught with pearl ornaments. The train which fell gracefully from one shoulder was ined with pink georgette and sleeves of old honiton lace. She wore the traditional veil with orange blossoms and silver ribbons and carried shower bouquet of Sweetheart roses and lily-of-the-valley. The brides-maids, Miss Beth Willis and Miss Dorothy Wilson wore dainty gowns of peach and mauve taffeta with poke hats of black taffeta and carried old-sweet peas. The groom was attended by the Rev. Jeffrey Preston of Galt.

am never without them in the house. They have always given the great-fashioned nosegays of roses

During the signing of the the wedding breakfast.

side at Romney.

The Mothers' Association of St. Andrew's Church enjoyed a happy afternoon this week. An impromptu The home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Daniels, Chatham, was beautifully little tots who accompanied their mothers to the tea party. Following this Miss Clara Brenton gave a most instructive talk on the importance of forming habits in the pre-school age.

She stated that fifty per cent of the caremony in front of any of the caremony in front of the caremony in the ca She stated that fifty per cent of the formed the coremony in front of an defects discovered in the children after the caremony in front of an which have been showered upon Miss ter they come to school could have lilies effectively arranged in the livter they come to school could have been prevented in the pre-school The tea table was most attractively adorned with little old fashioned ladles with hooped skirts. Mrs. George and sweet peas and yellow candles Wood and Mrs. D. A. Curle poured in silver holders. Early in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. McGarvin left tea, and were assisted by Mrs. Mar-tin and Mrs. Ashplant. Attractive little favors, were also given to the children. The decorations were in charge of Mrs. Atcheson. Fashions by Wire days.

Special to The Advertiser. Copyright.

RIBBON COCKADES SHOWN, Paris, April 20.—One clever little and Mrs. T. P. Ferguson of London. hat worn here today, with a brim rolling up slightly in the front, is of black and silky straw. It is trimmed Charing Cross Methodist parsonage on one side with the inevitable ribbon vesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock on one side with the inevitable ribbon cockades, very small ones in this case. The upturned brim is embroidred in colors matching the cockades REVEALS BRILLIANT BODICE. Renwick, both of Romney, were united in marriage by the Rev. Harold Bentley. After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Renwick will reside at Romney. Paris, April 20.—A single fastening at the neck, below the high collar, is seen today on most of the hin-length jackets, this single fastening enables the jacket to flare apart at the waist ine and reveal a brilliant bodice, the astening is generally a jewelled

APRON EFFECT SHOWN.

London, April 20.—There is a bothird daughter of Mrs. Brownlee and loro effect in some gowns of light the late Rev. W. F. Brownlee, was materials of the moment, the bolero married to E. L. McInnis, M. D., of London, April 20.—The newest bou-loir cap looks as though it had been The bride, who was unattended, turned round, wrong side to. The bow which used to hang down the back is so arranged that it comes lege, London, and looked very charm-

New York, April 20.—There is yet prayer book.

Following the ceremony, an inforfor so long has been wandering from mal reception was held at the home place to place on the costume. Today bridge prizes were donated by Mrs. it has settled at the back of the neck, street. The house was lovely and is more than likely to extend to the hem of the skirt. Often it is of a and marigolds. Miss Clarice Bull, material different from the rest of Misses Gertrude, Kathleen and Dor-

PYJAMAS BEAR MONOGRAM. New York, April 20.—French knots Dr. McInnis is a g trim much of the spring lingerie, Western University, London which comes in such spring colors as dawn pink, heliotrope, primrose and violet, the knots are often black, and arranged in a prim little pattern Pyjamas are embroidered with the VANITY CASE OF SILK. New York, April 20.-The latest vanity case is a cigarette case as well Mrs. A. T. Edwards and Miss Jean-ette Wilson won the bridge trophy. Not very large, and topped by a silk The proceeds of this affair are in cord, the double case is of brocaded bright spot in one's wrist bag.

All of a sudden one day mother too. He stands a long time at the glass liscovered that John Thomas 'who has always been the best of boys to brush until his hair lies as flat as an his mother, obedient and pleasant and oilskin cap. He ties and unties his all that and willing to be advised, tie and finally jerks it off and throws and always a home boy is not any it on the bed and bawls, "Mother of these things.

Will you come and tie my tie? Why
He is noisy in his movements and don't you buy me some decent ties doing it before he will even start. lurches out and bangs the door To get him up in the morning becomes a dreadful task. She feels to He comes home from school one a dreadful task. She teets to accomplish it she would better afternoon and blurts out, "Mother, if anywhere. You think all the relieves think? And then this strange creature no good. Make a baby out of me. Never had any fun in this house." This from the obedient, rehave an adolescent son and you will know you have an adolescent son and you will spectful son of a few months ago.

He announces that he isn't going to eat any more prunes, and as long as he lives, never. He eats enormously and wants to eat enough to mously and wants to eat enough to be very helpful.

If you trained the right way from the time he was horn until new you.

loud in his talk. He questions every that will look like something? These little thing he is asked to do and are no good." Then races downstairs suggests twenty different ways of two at a time whistling shrilly as he Gray, served delightful refreshments to the guests. Those responsible for the concert are Charles Kerr and Miss B. Kerr.

CHALMERS W. M. S.
Special to The Advertiser.
Chatham, April 20.—A paper on the study book, "Missionaries of Cansada," prepared by Mrs. Parrish, was read by Mrs. R. C. Cummings at the Chalmers Presbyterian W. M. S. meeting at Mrs. Andrew Buist's home on Wednesday. Mrs. R. C. Henry

Gray, served delightful refreshments to the decimal state would better begin the night before until she is reminded of the fact that to get him to bed on time is even more difficult. He resents advice. "Aw, what's the idea? Think I'm a baby? Think I don't know how to take care of myself? Why can't I stay until ten o'clock? It isn't dark. No, it isn't and anyway aren't the other fellows therefore until she is reminded of the fact that to get him to bed on time is even more difficult. He resents advice. "Aw, what's the idea? Think I'm a baby? Think I don't know how to take care of myself? Why can't I stay until ten o'clock? It isn't dark. No, it isn't and anyway aren't the other fellows therefore until she is reminded of the fact that to get him to bed on time is even more difficult. He resents advice. "Aw, what's the idea? Think I'm a baby? Think I don't know how to take care of myself? Why can't I stay until ten o'clock? It isn't dark. No, it isn't and anyway aren't the other fellows the follows are middle of the fact that to get him to bed on time is even more difficult. He resents advice. "Aw, what's the idea? Think I'm a baby? Think I don't know how to take care of myself. You and father never say a word to her and she does what she pleases. You got to make her stop. She called out on the street to me today when I was walking home with Jean Jones. "O you-oo. Keeping up with the Jones." What will people think? And then this strange creating the content of the fact that to get him to be don't make Helen leave mand my friends alone I'll do scmething to her that will make her behave her-self. You and father never sa

The guests from out-of-town were Mrs. W. W. Main, Miss Agnes Main, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Main, Miss Evelyn Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Johnstone, Hamilton; Rev. Jeffrey and Mrs. Preston, Galt; Miss S. A. Edge, Toronto; and Miss Lula Bett Preston. Presents First Aid Certificates Following the ceremony a reception was held at "Idylweiss," the home of was held at "Idylw the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Main left on the afternoon train for New York and Atiantic City. McCANN-SPICER.

e. of the bride, acted as ushers

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jethro Spicer. Harwich, last evening, when their daughter, Elsie Louise, was united in marriage to James Lloyd McCann, also of Hawking The counter the second secon also of Harwich. The service was read at half-past 6 o'clock by the Rev. R. M. Gale, pastor of St. Paul's Church. The bride wore pearl gray Canton crepe, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. Miss Gladys Gale was the bridesmaid, and Mr. Will Spicer attended the groom. Lit tle Mabel Spicer made a charming flower girl and carried the ring in a dainty basket. The groom's gifts to the bride and bridesmaid were sil-ver barpins set with brilliants, to the best man, cuff links, and to the flower girl, a string of pearls. Mr. and Mrs. McCann will reside in Har-

FREEMAN-PETTYPIECE. On Wednesday afternoon, at Park Street Methodist parsonage, the marriage took place quietly of Sidney Horace Freeman of Howard Township, and Lily Ann Pettypiece of Harwich Township. Rev. Dr. H. W. Crews officiated. The bride wore a traveling suit of navy blue and a gray hat. Her sister, Miss Lulu Pettypiece, attended the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Freeman will reside in Howard Township.

HYDE PARK BRIDE-ELECT

HOLDS TROUSSEAU TEA the many useful wedding presents ing-room. The bride wore a pretty 21st, was afforded her many friends frock of gray Russian crepe, with corsage of Richmond roses and sweet on Wednesday afternoon and evepeas, and shoes to match. She was ning, when her mother, Mrs. Austin given away by her father. The din-Winter, received at her home in Hyde ing-room was bright with daffodils Park. Potted flowers were used effectively throughout the rooms which added a sunny touch, on a two weeks' motor trip to Montreal, the latter traveling in a navy flat crepe dress, black Bolivia cloth wrap with chenille and steel bead trimmings. Miss Lena was charmtrimmings, a cross fox scarf, the groom's gift, and small gray hat. Upon their return they will reside in Seventh street. The out-of-town guests included Mr. M. D. Little of Detroit, Mrs. Charles Wise of Detroit, Mrs. Charles Wise of Detroit, Mrs. Frank Daniels and Miss May Daniels of Themsayille, and Mrs. Laura Keays of Hyde Park, and Miss Laura Keays of Hyde Park. and Miss Laura Keays of Hyde Park, presided over the dainty table. Miss Mae Winter dressed in brown canton crepe was in charge of the trousseau and gifts.

In the evening, Miss Queenie Mc-Dowell attractively gowned in apricot lace-over black, assisted by Miss ter of Mr. William Lounsbury, and George Renwick, son of Mr. John Phyllis Gray, who looked charming in henna canton crepe, invited to the supper room and Mrs. Stephens poured tea. Miss Mae Winter was the door attendant, and Miss Winnifred Winter was in charge of the gifts and

PALMERSTON CIRCLE

Thomas, was the scene of a pretty wedding at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, April 19, when Edith Stuart, APPOINTS NEW OFFICERS Special to The Advertiser. Palmerston, April 20 .- The regular monthly meeting of the mission circle matches the lower part of the skirt, and all the space between is filled with a rather haphazard but graceful blouse of some figured silk or genral blouse silk or genral bl ternoon was the bridge and euchre given by the Soldiers' Wives League, with an apron effect in front.

WORN WRONG SIDE TO.

Harding officiated at the ceremony, which was witnessed by a large number of friends and relatives, who describes the resulting specific to the sensing year: General superintendent, Mrs. Walter Everitt; president, Miss Florence was given in marriage by her bro-ther, Stuart Brownlee, of Huron Col-lege, London, and looked very charm-Beulah Ranton; secretary, Miss Mae back is so arranged that it comes across one cheek and curves under the chin, it forms an attractive and tricotine, with smart squirrel collar and smart hat of gray and blue. She Jennings; pianist, Mrs. H. Jennings; mits boxes, Miss I and sweet peas and carried a white superintendent of mite boxes, Miss I stewardship, Miss Mariel Perkin.

Arkell: superintendent

brother of the groom, sang "Beloved It Is Morn." Mr. Clarence Tuck of Hamilton and Mr. Ernest Edge, PAISLEY HOSE NEXT. By ELOISE.

For novelty in sports wear, and the sports costume, an eastern maker has designed this clever knitted suit. It is a black and white mixture with Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones, she jacket made in surplice effect. piping of black and white marks a plain skirt and a smart slip-over the first trial convinces her there is nothing to equal them in keeping children well. The Tablets are a and an emblem embroidered in black children well. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which and white on the jacket gives the stomach, thus driving out constipa-just now on sports frocks and blouses the fevers and property of the fearegulate the bowels and sweeten the More unusual than any of the fea-tures of the frock, however, is the ple fevers, and making teething easier. Concerning them, Mrs. Saluste Pelletier, St. Dumas, Que., paisley design of the hose. Vividly colored in the large paisley pattern, these stockings will make the most writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past ten years, and blase start a bit. When worn with is more than unusual—it simply shricks. est satisfaction, and I can gladly recommend them to all mothers of little ones." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers, or direct by mail, at 25 cents a box, from The Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville,

The graceful hat worn with thi putiti is a gray straw and silk mode with a black and white poppy place t the side front. It is a lovely shad at and suitable for wear upon nearl,

LISTOWEL EFWORTH LEAGUE Mothers and Their CLECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Listowel, April 20.—The Methodist Epworth League appointed its officers for the coming year at its annual meeting this week. Mrs. William W. Karges, who has acted as president for the last two seasons, was unanimously returned to office and complimented upon her work. The other officers are as follows: First vice-president, Miss Emily First vice-president, Miss Emily Ogram; second vice-president, Miss Mabel Rheim: third vice-president, Frank von Zuben; fourth vice-president, Miss Thelma Kilgour; secretary, Sam Bartja; 'reasurer, Graham Walters; pianist, Miss Good; assistant pianist, Harry Rheim; chorister, Miss E. Benreit.

HEALTH OFFICER WARNS

PALMERSTON CITIZENS Palmerston, April 19.-There has last week, and while the cases in general are of a mild nature every precaution is being taken to prevent enidemic. Medical Health Officer Dr. J. A. Greenlaw has issued a warning to citizens to report all cases of some outline stitches around the

Mrs. E. Bennett.

Children

Rompers for the Toddler. My little boy has several suits of been an increase in the number of rompers which I made with very cases of smallpox here during the little effort. I simply cut out a little one-piece pattern, fitted it on him, so I knew it was his size, and then cut the rompers out of unbleached muslin. I appliqued on them little circles of bright Japanese crepe, and made siceves and neck. Buddy always has a clean romper suit now.

Don't let diapers irritate your baby's skin

O matter how carefully you bathe and powder him—if his diapers are washed with harsh soap—his tender skin will suffer. The diaper rash that is the source of such severe suffering to babies is caused by this very thingwashing dispers with harsh or impure soaps.

Safe for all his little clothes

Keep your baby's diapers soft and comfortable. Wash them in pure, safe Lux suds and thoroughly

There is no free alkali in Lux to stick to them and make them irritating. No harmful ingredient to inflame the sensitive skin. These pure flakes are safe for all the clothes that touch his tender skin. Use Lux for your baby's soft woollen shirts and bands, his petticoats and dresses, his diapers and

To keep diapers from irritating

To prepare for washing: Remove all solid matter immediately put to soak in cold water. If dispers are simply wet place in a covered pail and let soak in cold water.

To wash: Whish "two tablespoonsfule of Lux into a thick lather in a tub of very hot water. Let dispers soak for a few minutes then dip up and down pressing suds repeatedly through them.

Theroughly riuse in three waters. Boil dispers once a week using one table-spoonful of Lox to a gallon of water.

Sold only in sealed packets-dustproof! LEVER BROTHERS LIMITED

Curtain Month April 21 to May 19

Extra facilities have been set aside in our plant to give you the best possible service to launder from the cheapest net to the most expensive hand-made lace curtains (tint them if you desire.)

They will be hand-washed, in Lux suds, stretched so that they will hang straight, ironed and finished as only our experts can do.

Our Dry Cleaning and Dyeing Departments will Dry Clean or Dye your Portieres, whether they are silk, velour, tapestry or cretonne.

Remember, we specialize in Dyeing to match your color scheme, and we have all the latest New York color cards to choose from.

Phone 558 for service wagon to call or for expert advice.

-Some Way and Somehow-

The Parisian SHOULD Laundry Launderers, Dry Cleaners, Dyers and Rug Cleaners