WARREN STARS STANDING.

The Purple and White Western Univery squad ushered in the 1924 campaign locally Saturday by defeating St. Michaels, last year's champions, 7 to 5 before one of the largest crowds that ever watched an intercollegiate game in London. St. Mikes had practically their championship team of last season intact, but Howell's toe gave Western victory on two beautiful drop-kicks, one in the second quarter from the 30-yard mark and the other in the third quarter at three yards shorter range.

A freak break in the last quarter gave St. Mikes a touchdown, which went unconverted. Western had just been marched back when the outsides gave no yards to O'Brien on a boot, and from their own 40 St. Mikes booted on the first down. Warren, who caught faultessiy all afternoon and outkicked Lowrey, the Irishmen's booter, had plenty of time to get set for the ball. He apparently caught it, but it struck his chest and rofled out over his extended arms. It looked for a moment as if Warren had passed the ball to Kennedy, a St. Mikes sub, who grabbed the oval, tucked it under his arm, and dashed unmolested for the touchline.

Sarnia, Oct. 19.—London Central C. I. Juniors brought a powerful-looking team to Sarnia for their return game Saturday, but were again outclassed, the Sarnians winning 29—0. London put up a stubborn defence against the smooth a stubborn defence against the smooth working Sarnia team, holding them well in check for three of the four periods and for a time holding their own with them in the first period. Heard did some nice kicking for the Londopers, although his leg was injured under the powerful tackling of the Sarnia squad.

Wong was outstanding for London. He was switched from end to quarter, where he did some mighty effective defensive work as well as staging the best plunge London made when he scrambled through the whole Sarnia tackling confensive work as well as staging the best plunge London made when he scrambled through the whole Sarnia tackling contingent for fifteen yards. The Sarnia team worked well, the running of Potter, Strain and Holton, the plunging of Lampel, the punting of Banwell and the deadly tackling of the whole outfit had the Londoners stopped. Strain started the ball rolling in the first period when he recovered a Sarnia fumble ten yards from the London line and raced over. In the second quarter Holton made fifteen yards through centre followed by a dash of twelve yards by Strain, Lampel crashing over the last five yards for a touchdown which Strain converted. Potter went over the line for a touchdown on a 25-yard half line, passing run in the third quarter, the touch being unconverted. In the last period the locals opened up. Potter tried for a field goal, Heard booting the ball to the deadline for a point. Paterson fell on an onside kick for a touchdown which Strain converted. Potter tried for another field goal, but the ball went wide, the booter following down ander it to fall on it for a touchdown which was not converted.
