The French Capital the Headquarters of the Dynamite Cowards.

Paris, Jan. 27.—Gil Blas declares positively that the authors or the London explosions are the same men who made the dynamite attack on London bridge and at Gower street railway station. The chief organizers of the plots have been for a long time, and are now employed, in an English printing office in Paris, and until a recent date lodged in the St. Denis quarter, where they manufactured the infernal machines used in their diabolical work. When everything was ready picked men, who were to lodge and set the machines, departed by different routes for London, each carrying one or more machines. This was six weeks ago. FEARS OF SURTHER OUTRAGES.

Public Buildings in London Closed Entirely Against Visitors. London, Jan. 27 .- In some respects the panic produced by Saturday's events has increased. Fears were entertained yesterday that the dynamiters meditated an attack upon the national arsenal and waval stations and they were placed under a special watch. At Chatham dock yard police were kept affoat the entire night. To day instructions were issued to stop all ingress at the tower, the house of commons and Westminster hall. Even members and peers were refused admission. The entrances to palace yard have been closed and all the public doors of parliament buildings have been locked, barred and barricaded. The injured are all reported Engineer Sproatt put in a request to be released from the charge is much of the waterworks department. His duties as head of the works department, his duties as head of the works department have in-creased so quickly that he feels he cannot give full attention to the waterworks busi-ness. Ald. Hall and McKenzie held that a practical engineer should be engaged.

Mayor Manning and the remaining members held that a practical business man could fill the bill. The appointment of a sub-committee to think out the matter was finally agreed to. Putting in mains on Robert street and North Drive will be delayed until the frost is out of the ground.

The committee received the engineer's stimate of expenditure for 1885. The items mount up to a total of $105,902, or $85,000 more than last year's. The committee will demand an interim appropriation of $25,000.

The Works Committee. The members of the works committee had the advantage of Mayor Manning's presence at their bi-monthly meeting yesterday afternoon, His worship went for the initiative section of the local improvement system in lively style. He was aided by Ald. Baxter, but the committee did not agree with his views. As the outcome of an interview with Hon. Frank Smith, his an interview with Hon. About twenty sleigh-loads of the frail sisters and young bloods of the town drove out to the revel, which was kept up all night. There was not much of one to suppose that it was the event of the Dynamite for Dynamite. The following item was handed over The World counter yesterday: "At a meeting of the British Retaliatory society, held here, $3000 was subscribed toward carrying on a dynamite war against the United States. The socialists of Chicago are to be invited to co-operate. Some of the most cherished monuments in the States have been marked for destruction."

Governor Robinson called on Mayor Man-ing at the city hall yesterday. Mrs. Mary Griffith; aged 92. sister of Gea. Grant's mother, died yesterday morning at Batavia, O.

John Munro, ex-M. P. for West Elgin, died at Morrisburg, Dundas county, Jan. 25, aged 65. He was a conservative. Mr. Gladstone is reported in excellent health and yesterday, it is stated, he resumed his wood-chopping at Hawarden.

Frank Turner, C. E., left for Brazil yesterday. He will be engaged in railroad building for an English company in that country for three years.

Mr. Kayjor issued the first number of a new monthly yesterday: it is devoted, according to the announcement, to the "principals" and men. Notwithstanding that Mr. Kayjor is editor and publisher of the Bill of the Play, he workmen will be sure to appreciate it.

The grand jury OFFERING HIS LORDSHIP A BATH. While addressing a jury in the assize court last evening Justice Galt asked an officer to bring him a drink of water. A sheriff's bailiff abashed.
