-As predicted, the United States court of inquiry has decided that the "Maine" was blown up by an outside agency, and the crisis is at hand. The report is now being ness. considered by Congress. The attitude cf President McKiuley hardly conforms with the warlike expression of the American press, but, under the circumstances, he is pledged to carry out his announced policy of de manding an indemnity from the Spanish overprenent Spain is is during to the spanish government. Spain is indulging in much war talk and is apparently quite ready to engage in a new conflict. She has recently-floated a loan of $40,000,000, and this will government, but it is hardly probable that such an offer has been made at this stage of the game. The Spaniards aré full of fight; and a war with the United States will, if anything, help straighten the tangle interview. The Spaniards are full of the s strengthen her sinews of war to a great exanything, help straighten the tangle into which the affairs of the nation have been is a fortnight in advance of 1897. drawn through the wars in Cuba and the Philippines, and the dissentious conduct of the leaders of the political parties at home. --Rev. E. E. Locke has tendered his res-ignation as pastor of the Middleton Baptist church, to take place the first of June. Both countries are making rapid and extensive preparations for a struggle and nothing short of a complete backdown will avert that struggle. The decision of the United States government may be delayed to permit of H. W. Benson's. more precautions being taken to defend the more precautions being taken to defend the Atlantic coast and make additions to the navy, but that decision is not hard to fore-the rooms next Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

--Forsythe vs. Sutherland et als was argued last week before the full bench of the Supreme Court. This is an appeal from the judgment of Mr. Justice Henry in favor of the plaintiff. The case of Morse vs. Morse was also argued. This is an appeal from the Probate Court. Judgment was reserved in both suits. In the case of Gates vs. Giles and Bent an appeal has been taken to the Supreme Court of Canada. Mr. Justice Henry gave judgment after trial in favor of the plaintiff and an appeal was taken to Halifax where the court consisting of Mo-Donald C. J., and Meagher, Ritchie and Townshend J.
