

Interior of Melting Room, of the Consolidated Cariboo Hydraulic Mining Company, Limited, Bullion, B.C. Amalgam Refining Furnaces in Background, two Melting Furnaces to left. In foreground, weighing scale. Result of First Clean-up for Season 1900, after 62 days washing with 2,500 Miner's Ditches of Water. Gold weighing 7,897 ounces, valued at $135,275.00 in Foreground of Photo.

to calculate with far greater exactitude the resources of a hydraulic property than it is to estimate the value or to gauge the capabilities of a quartz lode and the computation that in the area controlled by the Consolidated Cariboo Company are available for washing by hydraulic process five hundred millions