ON THE SUN IN ENGLAND.

BY AN ANGOLO-INDIAN POET.

Have you ever set eyes on an English sun?
For ten days that he's hidden, he shows his face—one,

When his hue is a sort of dirty dun.
Envelop'd in clouds and in vapour dress'd, He gets up in the east, and goes down in the west—

At least they say so,
For I really don't know That I ever yet saw him set and rise, Swaddled up as he is in the dingy skies.

I did see him once in the month of June Peep into my lodgings at twelve at noon;
But the clock scarce struck ere the struggling ray,

Fled like a frightened ghost away,
And never since then, and never before,
Has he shone forth bright,
And I guess that his light Is withdrawn from England for evermore!
I'll blow out my brains—I shall—I shall!
Or plunge into Paddington's dull canal,
Or get the blue devils, at least—I'm sure If these suicidal days endure;

For the wind howls loud in a funeral note,
As the smoke—befoul'd air! tries to stop up my throat.

I love those climes of a softer kind Where Nature herself seems pleased in mind,
Nor sulks, as here,
Through the long, long year,
With the clouds for a frown, and the rain with a tear;

Where the air is free, and all the blue sky:
Not a breeze below—not a cloud on high,
And the sun beams forth with his rays unshorn,

From the first red break of the balmy morn,
To the spot where the shades of eve are born,

And flowers and fruits in their unforced birth
Arise from the lap of the bright green earth:

But here, the whole ground's but one big bog—

The sky's like dirt, and the air's all fog,
And it seems wherever I turn to fly,
That an easterly wind runs into my eye:

And when death shall have taken me far away,
These lines shall my graven tomb-stone show—

"Here in quiet doth lie a poor devil below,
Who died of an English day,"

Remedy for the Rheumatism—A correspondent of the U. S. Gazette gives the following as an infallible remedy for the rheumatism. He says that he as well as hundreds of others, has used it with perfect relief. Recipe—One gill of gypson seed (now ripening) put in a pint bottle with the shavings of a ripe turpentine yellow pine board or knot, then fill up strong alcohol. In three days the turpentine, and the virtue from the gypson seed will be extracted by the alcohol, turning the liquid of a greenish color. It is then fit for use.
Bathe the part affected with the preparation a few times, & it will drive away all pain.

THE EAST.—The Levant Mail arrived with letters from Constantinople of the 8th, and Alexandria of the 6th of October.

A most violent shock of an earthquake occurred at Constantinople on the night of the 5th, such indeed as the oldest inhabitant does not remember to have ever witnessed.

The first shock, felt at twenty five minutes after two in the morning, was strong and lasted some time. The second, at 3 o'clock, and lasted from twenty to twenty five seconds.

This was succeeded half an hour afterwards by a third and slight shock, and at seven in the morning occurred a fourth.

A great deal of damage was done in the Khan, at Constantinople, and in the surrounding villages many lives were said to have been lost; but our correspondent states that there were only five or six persons killed, though the loss of property is very extensive.

According to the terms of contract, the British and North American Royal Mail steam Packet Company is bound to wait the pleasure or orders of government at home, or British authorities abroad, to the extent of a detention beyond the day of sailing, of 48, or at the most 60 hours.

THOMAS STINSON

HAS just received in his Stores, at HAMILTON AND DUNDAS,

the LARGEST assortment of Goods in Western Canada, to be sold

BELOW their ACTUAL VALUE, (they having been purchased in Montreal during a very depressed state of the market,) in addition to

Large Consignments
of which he is compelled to dispose of during the following Winter!!!

He therefore begs to call the attention of the public generally and more particularly those at a DISTANCE to his presents assortment, as they will find themselves amply repaid in the cheapness and quality of his Goods, for any trouble to which their journey may subject them. In addition to his Stock of

DRY GOODS

AND

GROCERIES,

he has on hand a quantity of IRON, NAILS, &c. &c.

His store in Hamilton is situate at the west end of the Brick Block of Buildings, next door to Mr. Juson's Hardware Store, and that at Dundas, nearly opposite Mr.
Bamberger's Hotel, and adjoining the premises lately occupied by Mr. J. P.
Larkin.

GRAND RIVER HOTEL,

(Head of John Street, opposite the Old Market)

HAMILTON.

THE Subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public, that from the additions he has made to his Hotel, both with regard to BOARDING and STABLING, he trusts he will still continue to merit their patronage.

His Table will be constantly supplied with the best the Market affords; while his liquors are various and of the best description.

Extensive Stabling is attached, with every necessary required by the Farmer, who will do well to pay him a visit.

FALL & WINTER FASHIONS

For 1841—1842.

THE Subscriber has just received the
for 1841 and 1842, to which he would call the attention of his customers and the public generally, as there is a very great change in the style of the London and Paris garments.

The Subscriber would also mention, that his workmen being fully competent to make up the most fashionable work, the public may rely on every satisfaction being given.

PORTRAIT PAINTING.

MR. H E L Y. [late from Europe.]

LADIES and Gentlemen wishing correct Likenesses painted, will please call at Chatfield's Hotel, where, from the specimens Mr. H can produce, he hopes to secure their patronage.

N. B.—Ladies and Gentlemen can be called upon at their houses if required.

EDWARD JONES.

Hamilton, Nov 24, 1841

INFORMATION WANTED OF PAT-RICK O'HEARE, formerly of the county Armagh. When last heard of he was living in Ancaster, U. C. about seven years since, and employed as a laborer.

Any intelligence respecting him will be gratefully received by his brother, Edward O'Heare, Perth, U. C.

The Reverend the clergy will confer a great favor by enquiring for him among their respective flocks.

QUEEN'S HEAD HOTEL.

JAMES STREET, (NEAR BURLEY'S HOTEL.)

THE Subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public generally, that he has fitted up the above named house in such a style as to render his guests as comfortable as at any other Hotel in Hamilton. His former experience in the wine and spirit trade enables him to select the best articles for his Bar that the Market affords; and it is admitted by all who have patronized his establishment, that his stabling and sheds are superior to any thing of the kind attached to a public Inn, in the District of Gore.

N. B.—The best of Hay and Oats, with civil and attentive Ostlers.

W. J. GILBERT.

Hamilton, Sept. 15, 1841.

THE HAMILTON RETREAT.

THE Subscriber has opened his Retreat in Hughson street a few doors north of King street, and wishes to acquaint his friends that they may rely on every Luxury the markets afford; his Wines and Liquors will be selected with care, and no expense spared in making his guests comfortable.

Oysters, Clams, &c., will be found in their season. He therefore hopes by strict attention and a desire to please, to merit a share of Public patronage.
